EDITORIAL NOTES.

One of the greatest curiosities in Japan is the wonderful variety of coins able to compete with the advocates of these three days the earth revolves that are used daily. In some instances it takes one thousand pieces to make a dollar. These are called "cash," and are seldom received by foreigners.

Thirty-one young couples in a Missouri county have pooled their issues, and propose to all be married at one time. By making one wedding feast and lumping the job, so to speak, with the minister, they expect to reduce. their individual expenses very materi ally.

Some of the absconding bank presidents and cashiers from the United States who have fled to Canada have either secured employment in that nursed in modern "Christian" doccountry or are engaged in giving lessons in "finance" to the Blue-noses. A secretary and treasurer of a Halifax insurance company has absconded with the major part of its funds.

The public mud throwing at private character having been suspended for a ble that such a new and despised creed season, owing to the election being an accomplished fact, the partisan virulence now assumes another shape. It takes the form of accusations, criminations and recriminations in relation to election frauds, the corrupt methods of procuring votes and manipulating the returns. It is in the tue of besmudging all the same, in accordance with a conspicuous feature of American politics.

In passing down the street, let any person curious to find out the prevalent view in relation to the presidential election ask each individual he meets as he goes along what he thinks of the situation; he will discover that the number is not few cf those who not only believe that the position is decidedly critical but dangerous, and likely to culminate in a row the like of which has not been seen in the Republic. The contest is close enough to cause a dispute, which is likely to arise. There is a general apprehension of trouble.

Says the Chicago News: The difference between the two men was shown at the last moment, when Blaine sat with his ear close to a telegraph instrument, sorry that he couldn't read the news before his private operator wrote it. Cleveland, on the other hand. sat mansion at Albany and chatted pleasantly with friends. receiving the returns as common people received them, by the regular channels. Mr. Blaine's straining anxiety to be President has not left him for one waking moment since early in the seventies, and the nearer he has come to the coveted goal the more anxiety he has displayed. On the one hand it is the man turning every possible stone to get the presidency; on the other hand it is the man calmly waiting for the presidency to come to him. Which is the more manly picture?

the "Mormons" are only a little comunity of cranks out of harmony with the enlightened and mighty hosts of Christian civilization. Why, then, should there be any fear that "Morinfluence has been used to shield the mon" polygamy, if not suppressed by accused from the beginning, no journal brute force, will spread over the entire will take greater pleasure in exhibiting nation? There seems to be consider-able inconsistency in the dread ex-that so much vaunted by theologians and writers for the press, why should there be any dublety as to the issue when the two systems come into peaceful contact? Are not the champions of and the night following will see in the orthodoxy and modern social ethics "Mormon heresy?" Is there any danger of fair comparison between the two systems and their legitimate fruits? Can it be possible that mighty Christendom dreads contrast with m- It is to the capture of a comet by Ura-ed, will spread and prevail in a nation trine, fed on modern "Christian" pabulum, brought up in modern "Christian" tradition and matured in modern "Christian" customs and practices? In a nation so pure and refined and orthodox, so enlightened, free and progressive, how is it possias "Mormonism," received only byia few "ignorant, unlearned and slavish" folk, can have any dangerous effect upon the vast and well-trained multitude?

There must be some misgiving as to the stability of existing institutions, some shaking of the knees among the leaders of orthodoxy, some serious doubts in the minds of its conther and the souther and the souther and doubts in the minds of its scribes and preachers, or they would never invoke the aid of physical force to put down a people and a creed w hich they affect to treat with such lofty scorn and high-minded ignominy. Why not bring forth their strong reasons? Why not demonstrate the falsehood and folly of the religion which they desire to suppress by prison and the sword? Why fear the power of this "new religion" over the masses if it is allowed free access to their homes and public places? What is the matter?

We will tell them. Their boasted Christendom is honey-combed with rottenness. Their theories are the mere opinions of men. Their church organizations are human and weak. Their society is full of corruption. Hypocrisy shows upon the faces of their chief men. Priests and people are infidel at heart. Faith abides in the souls of but a few. Popular religious doctrines will not bear the electric light of the everlasting Gospel shining

The curions fight against the Rev. Dr. J. P. Newman of the Madison Avenue Congregational Church in New York has assumed a new phase. Some members of the church have been trying to oust their pastor for a longtime, mainly on the ground that he the world, and their creed towers up, mixes too much politics, with his re- above and beyond the dogmas and inligion, but a very strong faction of able-bodied friends has maintained him in his position. Recently, however, the pastor set out for San Francisco, the ostensible object of his visit being to officiate at the funeral ceremonles over the son of ex-Governor Stanford. His enemies say that, as his vacation expired on the first Sunday in October, he has abandoned the fight, and they now ask the Superior Court of New York to compel the Trustees of the church to show cause why Dr. Newman should not be deposed, and why the Trustees themselves should not be suspended from the exercise of their duties. The fight promises to bring out some new developments in a case which has already become celebrated.

WHY THIS DREAD OF 'MORMONISM?"

GEN. BRISBIN has been writing again to the Omaha Herald and exposing his "Christians?" inorance about "Mormonism." We commented upon a former letter of his upon this subject some time ago. Why the General should be so exercised on the polygamy question, we are at a loss to determine. How it can possibly affect him it is difficult to perceive. He declares that he "knows very well Church must of its own accord put away polygamy. Second-That if the know anything about it. He may think so and his opinion may be very deciddone is as limited as his knowledge of that which he attempts to oppose. He is profoundly ignorant of both. Gen. Brisbin is also self-deceived as to the method by which he predicts polygamy will be destroyed by the Government. He is sure that many lives will be destroyen in the process, which is one of the most infamous and lives will be destroyen in the process, that the Latter-day Saints will fight in the creed of the Latter-day Saints. The lives of men and women everywhere are unclean and un-Christian, and in shouting against the "Mormons" they think to gain credit for personal goodness and divert attention from a multitude of slns. Crying out "polygamy!" does not hide the evils of monogamy, but it serves as a pretense of purity to the most libidinous and defiled.

There are, doubtless, weak and wicked people who are called by the name of Saints. There are "Mormons" who forget their covenants of chastity and practise evil. The followers of "Mormonism" may come far short of its standard of personal excellence and its mark of holiness and exalted character. But their lives, as a body of people will suffer nothing by comparison with those of any society of religionists in The Board of County Canvassers. New YORE, 11.—To-day at noon the board of aldermen were sworn in as a board of county canvassers. Chas. B. Waite, republican, was elected chair-man. The board room was filled with iswyers, interested in the count, and spectators. Among the lawyers pres-ent representing the republican na-tional and state committees were: Wm. E. Evarts, Col. Geo. Bliss, Rost. Sewell, Clarence A. Seaward and Wm. Allen Butler. The democratic national and state committee were repre-sented by Gen. Francis C.=Bar-low, Franklin Bartlett, Aaron J. Vanderpool, Charles P. Miller, Fran-cis M. Scott, Francis L. Stetson, Ed-ward R. Bacon and James C. Carter. ventions of men, and bears with it a spirit and a power as high above the man-made vagaries in modern Christendom, as the sun is above the flick-ering will o' the wisps which lead benighted men into the bogs and swamps of earth in the darkness.

"Mormonism" is dreaded because of its inherent strength and progressive force. Prisons, penalties and implements of war are invoked against its adherents, because its truths and spirit cannot be overcome by legitimate methods. And men fear its spread over the nation because of its vitality and compact organism, which they cannot touch with the fair weapons of controversy. Therefore they call for extraordinary civil forces to stamp it out, and these failing, in their madness and defeat they demand its extinction by the soldlery, that it may be drowned out in WASHINGTON, 11. - Secretary Mc-Pherson, says: According to his fig-ures, subject to corrections, but not likely to be changed, the democrats will have 183 members in the next House; the republicans 141, and green-backers 1 (Weller). The democrats lose 17 and greenbackers and independ-ents lose four. the blood of its devotees. And is not this dread as well as this demand highly creditable for nineteenth century

These numbers do not include additional cases and deaths which occurred at the hospitals. In numerous instances the victims were the country. First-That the Mormon been published concerning is. The chief aim of the defense was to waive an examination and have the case go to The General is mistaken. He does not know anything about it. He may think siderable interest in the matter, and ed. But his knowledge of what will be his reasoning on the point was sound. He also met promptly the desire of the defense for a continuance for a week, and this morning the prospect seemed fair for the examination to be entered upon at two o'clock to-day.

that this Latter-day Saints will fight and every one, men, women and child-ren will take up arms, and "to die fighting for their religion will be the duty of every "Mormon." This soldier that wants to shine as a writer is not aware that the prolound faith of the Saints is that the Lord will fight their battles, and that they are oppos-ed to the shedding of blood.
