It is very seldom you see a fighter of prominence who does not exhibit some marks of fierce ring battles. They will show a crooked nose, one that has been broken, a "cauliflower" ear, a scare on the lips or a lump on a hand or an enlarged finger joint.

COUNCIL DISCUSSES SPORTS. "Young Corbett," champion of featherweights, has none of these marks. In fact, Not the City Council but the 'Varsity he has very few marks of battle on his body. His face is as smooth as a seminary girl's and not a blemish can be detected on his hands. He has had to give tetted on his hadden terrific punches and take some terrific punches to win his way to the top rung of the puglistic ladder, and it is remarkable that he does not show some ugly mark from a stinging wallop. Athletic Council. The University Athletic council, con-sisting of President Kingsbury, Harvey Holmes, George Riser, P. P. Christensen and Prof. Byron Cummings, held its first meeting of the year yesterday afternoon for the purpose of discussing ways and means for the advancement of good sport at the institution. Among the most im-portant matters considered pertained to football. It was unanimously decided to-employe an eastern coach, the best that can be obtained. Treasurer Cummings made his report, ad stated that the receipts for the past year had just about paid the expenses. It was decided, after considerable dis-cussion, not to put a baseball team in the field this year owing to the fact that there will be but few school teams with which to play. After the meeting a committee composwillow, in specifying of the matter recent-ivy Corbett said: "I don't know whether I have been hecky or not, but my hands are as sound as when I started fighting. When you consider that I hit from most any position and am not particular whether I and on a fellow's hody or his bony head, I guess I must have been a little lucky to come through the way I have Of course I wear bandages on my hands, but they are no thicker or heavier than the average fighter wears. Sieloff has been in training at Chicago for some time and will not require much work to fit himself for the struggle with Jerry. He is said to be very fast and carries a sleep-producing punch in either hand. McCarthy still keeps up his hard licks and is already in great snape. If "condi-tion counts," he says, "I ought to get away with Otto for I am in fine form now."

After his lecture, one of the ladies became personal, and asked him: "Prince, would you be contented with one wife?" "Madame,," declared the oriental, "I never had a desire for more than one until I met the American women."

"Eternity," said the country horter, who wanted to make things clear, "is forever and forever, and five or six everlastings on top of that. Why brothers and sisters, after millions and billions of centuries had rolled away in eternity, it would still be a hundred thousand years before breakfast time."

Why she was worried: "I wonder who that woman is whose hat is on crooked, and who looks bothered half to death," said a man on the back platform of a streetcar. "That's my wife," said Mr. Meekton: "she's bothered to death for fear she won't get to her 'Don't Worry' club in time to attend the election of officers."

A New England representative who had been dallying too long with drink awoke the other morning to find him-self, as he afterward explained, "just one jump ahead of the willies." Realiz-ing his condition he declared to his wife that he would never touch liquor again. Continuing to feel badly, he began to need a drink.

"Til not take another drink for the United States," he said, "no, not even if a doctor prescribes it for me. I'll never take another drink-voluntarily; but say, Mary, my wife, I wish you or some one just about as strong as you are would grab me and hold me and force me to take one."

"You heard of that chap who com-plained to Representative Rupert that he couldn't get any work to do at his trade, and when Rupert asked him what his trade was he said he was a lineman for a wireless telegraph com-pany?" asked Representative Sullivan, "Well, I got one this morning that heat that. A big hobo struck me for a quarter. "What's the matter with working?" I asked him. 'Can't get anything to do at my trade,' said the hobo. "What is your trade?"

"'I'm foreman in a radium factory," he said.'
