Printed every other Saturday, by

W. RICHARDS, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR;

(Office at the Post Office.)

dook & Job work of all descriptions done at this office:

PAMPHLETS, HAND-BILLS, CARDS, Blanks, Circulars Labels, Invitations, Hat and Watch Tips, &c., &c., &c.

Marrying 'em Ovor Again .- Or a Joker Forestalled.

Some time last summer, says, Falconbridge, while canvassing the 'down east' states, Dodge (need we particularize what Dodge'—Ossian E. Dodge, of course, the mouth of a young gentleman quite noted for his off hand practical jokes; and having heard of Dodge, our nameur joker, made up his mind that when and where he neet the extensively known and thoroughbred wag, there would probably be files about, and somebody's eye-teeth would be cat.

and thoroughbred wag, there would probably be files about, and somebody's eye-teeth would be cat.

When D. dige appeared in our annateur wit's diggings, ho straightway went to work to introduce himself to the unrivalled humorist.

'I understand, sit,' said the montour, 'that you are not to be caught napping. I've read and heard a great deal of your practical joking, and thought i don't profess to be very smart that way, yet I've made a betwith some of my friends, that in less than six months I will show you a new link or two—I intond to show you due eiephant, sit.'

'Ah, indeod? said Dodge. 'Woll, sit, I'm talerably conversant with that species of quadruped, having studied animated nature for sometime; but I shall always be pleased to learn something new, although I fast, sit, that the criticity you meation would hardly, with my experience, come under the head of novelty with the. However, I don't want to damp your enthesiant; a you may figure it up, and fatch along your entertainment whenever you feel like it.'

The amateur made several small filets at Dodge during his stay in the anateur made several small filets at Dodge during his stay in the anateur made several small filets at Dodge during his stay in the anateur made several small filets at Dodge during his stay in the anateur made several small filets at Dodge during his early in the other parts of the country, in the vicinity of the city of notions, quite an intimacy sprung up between the two 'sawyers,' and finally one day, said the anateur Joker—'Mr. Bodge I'm going to be married.'

'Am I though?' said the other. 'Guess not—it's all arranged—the old man don't like me—the young lady does, and that makes it all right, you know. We're guing to New York to-morrow evening to be married the next day, and if you have nothing serious to prevent you, I was you to join a small select party of the young lady's freeds, and mine, and you have nothing serious to prevent you, I wish you to join a small select party of the young lady's friends and mine, and awkward; in short, I must decline your invitation.

'O, no, 'twonthn't do,' Dodge must go—couldn't get off.
So next day, a small party of some four or five ladies and gentiomen metat the Martboro' Hotel, and in a few hours afterwards the couch drow thoth down to the Provincence railway depot, where they were some embarked; and the noxt morning, just as the sun had began to peep over the eastern part of creation, the bride and bridegroom, and their made and female attendants, with our facetious and selfsacrificing triend Dodge, who was to act as grand master of the ceremones, &c., compled with a young lady, a relative of the bridegroom, found themselves at the pier No. 1, North River, New York.

Now Mr. Butter's said the amateur, inker, two are at the bridegroom, found themselves at the pier No. 1, North River, New York.

Now, Mr. Dodge, 'said the amateur joker, 'we are all strangers here in New York, and we put you in command of our affairs, to diject our movements.'

'Exactly—that's all right, 'said Bodge, 'leave all to me.' 'Say, you' look here?' buwled Bodge to one of the hundred and fifty cabs, coaches and trunks, usually besetting the steuners landing thear passengers at the Now York piers, 'You,' I mean—we all go to the living thease—fly around—get the baggage—allow me Miss———, to assist you to this coach; so—all in—drive off?

In the course of ten minutes, the bridal party were housed at the freing, in private parlors, as any und merry as bees. Dodge stepped out to get the parson, and arrange the minutise of the marriage.

At 11, a.m., the parties were spliced: good humor, a few tears and kisses precalled; and the party under the charge of Dodge, started out to see the bions of Gotham; and thus merrity passed the hours away until the hour of retirement came round, and the parties separated for the might.

'Sir.——, a.———but no matter.'

'Did you wish to speak to me, Mr. Dolge?' said the happy bridegroom, tarning back, as Dodge made of the broken cail.

'Yos, that is—but no matter; some other time will answer. Good night; God bless——'And as if haboring timer some undigested trouble, Dodge

'Yes, that is—but no matter; some other time will nuswer. Good dignt; God bless—'
And as if laboring under some undigested trouble, Dodge disappeared, and took a stroll by hintself.

Returning about midotight to the living with a invistorious looking companion, they nook seats in the drawing room, and sent for the landlord. He cause, a brief whispering took place, the immored grimed and grunned, and finally broke out in something of a laugh, and said——
'Well, I don't care—you're all friends—it's rather a good joke—it will surprise them some—do as you please, sir.'

The landlord disappored; a servant same in, and intimated if the gentleman was ready he'd show him up to No.—. Tap, tap, tap, gently weat Dodge's knuckles on the door of No.-

'Who's there?' said a quick voice.
'Me,' said todge. Get up quick.'
'Heaven's sake, what's the matter?'

'O, get up, sir, quick. Open your door.'
'The house on fire? Heaven's sake, what's the matter, Mr. Dodge?'
Then was heard a finer strung voice, humidly making the same inquiry, and soon the door was opened, and the out-lines of a gentleman cadishabilis thrusting out his nose and

"Why, sir, but I-I hope you'll pardon me-I-I confess

'Mr. Doige, are we in darger," said the and small voice of the little bride, her beight eyes and pretty little night-cap ap-pearing in the back-ground.

"Awful! too bad, mu'um! I shall never forgive myself." And here Dodge actually threw up the whites of those big eyes, and sighed twice.

(Votat danger—how—where?' said the married couple in Tell usail, sir, exclaimed the husband. 'Yos, yes, for mercy's sake del' said the wife.

'Then is I must, I must,' said Dodge. 'You are not man

Then it I must, I must, 'said Dodge. 'You are not man and note.'
'What?' said the husband.
'Mr. Dodge?' said the wrie.
'Pact—I ought to be hung and quateced—my fault.'
'What do you mean, sir? You don't protend—'
'Yes I do; ''s a fact, sir.'
'What!' a fact, Mr. Dodge?' enquired the alarmed bride.
'Not married—all a shaan—my fault.'
'O -o o Pm—Pm—'
Here the husband, as he supposed himself, caught his wife, as he supposed she was, just as she was about to swoon.
'Mr. Dodge, this is a shabby business, sir,' said the supposed husband, Hisband, 'I know it,' said Dodge. 'I confess all. I regret it severely, sir. I could not -a -a -a - I couldn't sleep sir. I get up, r. I could not—a—a—a—I couldn't sleep sir. I got ur, determined to make all the—i sleep sir. I got ur, determined to make all the—i sleep seed married man. 'Not at all, sir, I did it as a joke.'

'A joke, sir, I the villations, sir,'
'But 1'll repair it, sir,'
'But 1'll repair it sir,'

But I'll repair it, sir. I'll run off to the minister's,' 'Bon't meddle any more, vir. Take yourself off, sir, and leave us to ourselves The husband was about to shut the door. This brought the dy to. She rushed to the door.

Go, Mr. D odge, go-do go and get the minister-do, sir. 'Never mind now it's almost morning, my dear, then we'll arragne the matter without his intervention,' said the other files aroused from their downy couches, and the and Cercil (Sashiel) Woods a Presbyterian who committed many other deprodations, such Dreadful accident on the New Haven Rail Road, About $2,000,000 v and were soon confronted by Dodge and a new parson, who Clergyman. General Parks informed us that a sa driving off horses, sheep, cattle, hogs, &c. May 6th; the 8 a. m., train for New York ran off the Haverhill per annum.

began to neep through the windows at the sombre looking wedding party, when Dodge and the parson left.

And with the entire party close upon his heels, the in-corrigible juker made his exit.

A fellow walking through Old Bailey at the ment to his cause,—and their determination to plundered and burned by the mob she having time of execution, when an Irishman was on the keep the faith, were thus brought to an untimepoint of being turned off, inhumanly bawled out:

Are you there? I always said you would come 'You're a liar,' replied Pat, 'if it was the last word settlement being made, solicited the saints to command, asked what was to be done. He told I had to spake; I did not come, I was brought.'

leave the place. Thomas said he had as-

Truth and Liberty.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1853. VOL. 3.1 NO. 17

To the Editor of the DESERET NEWS. Eve was a beauty smiting, But yet she had her grief, The alone mands heart bequiling She could not find relief. Oneday as sadly straying By the banks of a murmuring stream, She saw two spirits playing In the bright sun's golden beam.

She saw one looked bewitching, And the other gazed so sly, To talk they felt an itching But not while Eve was nigh. One spoke at length in sighing, Ohl tell inc gentle maid, Why art thon sadly crying, In this sequestered glade?

Where is thy husband straying 'And calls his Eve in vain (While Eve in tears is straying 'To weep some funcied pant?' 'Has Adam ceased to love thee? 'Hast thou then lost his heart? 'Has rapture ceased to move thee? 'Or joy its peace impart?'

Oh! cease I do besech thee Cried the lovely weeping Eve Perhaps thou too canst teach me Never more to grieve: 'I want to be the master, Not the servant of the man: 'I wish him to obey me 'As I think he ought and can

'Oh! tell me then this secret 'That I may ever reign; 'The man shall ne'er regret "And I no more complain: 'Oh! give me but this blessing *And thouPt give me back my bliss, fl'ill rule him in caressing Command him while I kiss! 'Oh! Eve replies the spirit

'If you wish man to beguile 'Hell always be your subject 'So long as you can smile! 'And tho' this heart grows hardened · Tis useless still to fear, 'The hardest heart is softened By a lovely woman's tear!' Now sisters, learn the moral

In this little song of mine; The ladies want to govern, They ever love to shine: The man thinks he's the master, And therefore ne'er complains: But woman with her smiles and tears, Tis woman sure that reigns! For none can help confessing,

The heart may guide the hoad, By charms and love impressing Till contradiction's fled, Then you, who wish to govern Learn now the wiser part; If you want to guide the head Then strive to rule the heart!!!

[Copyright Secured.]

HISTORY OF JOSEPH SMITH

[OCTOBER, 1838.]

even sympathy from his Excellency. '(Soon, go on, got with it.')

'(In Dodge, are we'in danger.' said the fire small voice of in, to aid them from Ray, Saline, Howard, me on the Public Square the next day.

Livingston, Clinton, Clay, Platte and other There were seven cut off from the Clay. their lender.

they attempted to go out to get food, of which Richards had as much as they could do, they were destitute. As fast as their cattle, some time, to see to the branches already planthorses or other property got where the mob ed, without planting new ones. them to dress and come down into the drawing room immediately, and he would have the real parson there, and the root there should be a prima facia, bona fide and veritable wedding.

Two other principal men of the mobilities. While I was there, a number of houses be-So he left. The discomfited votaries of flymen and their were Major Ashly, Member of the Legislature, longing to our people were burned by the meb, put them over the ground again in good and substantial greater part of his men under Captain Bogart A number of whose houses were burned down, as draw bridge at Norwalk, killed 41, and injured 38 stape.

The performance, however, took up the time until daylight draw them off from the place, for fear they situations, fied into the town for suffer, and for would join the mob; consequently be could of shelter from the inclemency of the weather as After breakfast, the entire party being again assembled in fer us no assistance. We had now no hopes a considerable snow storm took place on the the faw in the state of the s Lept constantly increasing: our provisions were thus obliged and with the evil not bear to leave their house, and travel several miles in order to effect their escape. My feelings were thus obliged and which the evil to leave their house, and travel several miles in order to effect their escape. My feelings were such as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot describe when I saw them flock into the village, almost entirely destinate of each as I cannot descr elusion to leave that place, and seek a shelter unsolicited. elsewhere; and gathering up as many wagons as could be got ready, which was about seventy, with the remnant of the property they had been able to save from their matchless foes, left De Witt and save from their matchless foes, left De Witt and save from their matchless foes, left De Witt and save from their matchless foes, left De Witt and save from their matchless foes, left De Witt and save from their matchless foes, left De California emigration from operations of the mob, and having to move her before her strength would admit) died, and was buried in the Grove without a coffin. hasten to Davies in order to accomplish their place, the night previous, leaving a letter for object; that if they would join and drive them one of the brethren which would develope the out they could get all the lands back again, secret. Counties, to aid Woods in his effort to drive peaceable inhabitants. peaceable citizens from their homes and take their property.

On my arrival in Caldwell, I was informed by General Doniphan of Clay County, that a company of mobbers, eight hundred strong, were Davies County. He ordered out one of the have agreed to cross the ocean, and sing for sixty-officers, to raise a force and march immediately to what he called Wight's Town, and Ines of a gentleman cadishabilis thrusting out his nose and night cap.

The messenger, Mr. Caldwell, who had been defend our people from the attacks of the mob, until he should raise the Militia in his, and the disputched to the Governor for assistance, remaining Countries of the mobility of what an this disputched to the Governor for assistance, remaining Countries of the mobility of what an object of the mose and defend our people from the attacks of the mobility of the pair!

Fifty lives lost by a Colliery explosion at Wigan, addition of the control of the messenger, Mr. Caldwell, who had been defend our people from the attacks of the mobility of the pair!

Fifty lives lost by a Colliery explosion at Wigan, addition of the called wight's Town, and defend our people from the attacks of the mobility of the pair! turned, but instead of receiving any nid or adjoining Counties to put them down. A small England we were company of Militin who were on their route to There is a Playing, Care Factory in London whi that—a—I was wrong very wrong, in—a—I was wrong very wrong very wrong, in—a—I was wrong very w his eyes, and ordered him to leave the place Sunday 14th, I preached to the brethren at in England; railway stations are crowded to get a forthwith, which he did by fleeing from De Far West, from the saying of the Savhor, glimpse of her. Witt to Caldwell County. The mob had sent to greater love hath no man than this, that he lay Jackson County and got a cannon, powder, and down his life for the brethren. At the close I out to be a hoax, all the gold exhibited having been commission of enquiry, have found That Mr F. season—1846, perhaps, excepted. balls, and bodies of armed men had gathered called upon all that would stand by me to meet

There were seven cut off from the Church in darkness raged and it seemed as though Satan crowded with emigrants. The saints were forbid to go out of the town was fully determined to make an end of the under pain of death; and were shot at when work in that kingdom. Elders Fielding and Oyster, and found in it 23 pearls, some of good size.

could get hold of it, it was taken as spoil. By Monday 15th, the brothren assembled on the these outrages the brethren were obliged, most Public Square, and formed a company of about Monday 15th, the brothren assembled on the exclaim, Speak, now; I am sure you can. Court for protection, who ordered out two com- understood, that this company were Militia of panies of Militia, one commanded by Captain the County of Caldwell, acting under Lieuten-Bogart, a Methodist Priest, and mobocrat of ant Colonel Hinkle, agreeably to the order of the depest die; the whole under the command General Doniphan, and the brethren were very of General Parks another mobber, if his let- careful in all their movements to act in strict ters speak his feelings, and his actions did not accordance with the Constitutional laws of the belie him, for he never made the first attempt land. The special object of this march was to virtuous, and against whom, no legal process, among whom was Agnes M. Smith, wife of my could for one moment be sustained, but who, brother Don Carlos Smith who was absent on in consequence of their love to God,—attachamission in Tenessee, her house having been helpless babes, having had to wade Grand surances from the mob that if they would leave the place they would not be hurt; and that they was immediately raised for the purpose of cwt., and II ounces of gold, besides a large quantity would be paid for all losses which they had susquelling the mob, and in a short time were on in the hands of the passengers. would be paid for all losses which they had sus- quening the mot, and in a short time had so the passengers.

tained, and that they had come as mediators to their march with a determination to drive the mot, or die in the attempt; as they could bear five persons executed, and three hundred arrested. be appointed to set value on the property which such treatment no longer. The mob, having have persons executed, and three hundred arrested.

they had to leave, and that they should be paid learned the orders of General Parks, and like. A woman has been sent to jail at Cincinnati for for it. They finally, through necessity, had to wise being aware of the determination of the comply and leave the place; accordingly the oppressed, broke up their encampment of the wards of that city at the late election by Committee was appointed—Judge Erichson and fled. The mob seeing that they could not dressing in male attire, and passing herself off as a was one of the Committee, and Major Florey, succeed by force, now resorted to stratagem; of Rutsville another—the names of the others and after removing their property out of their William Rufus King, Vice President of the United not recollected. They appraised the Real Es- houses, which were nothing but log cabins, tate, that was all. When the people came to they fired them, and then reported to the States, died at his home in Selma, Dallas County, start, their horses, oxen, and cows were gone, Authorities of the State, that the Mormons

A great number of cows, oxen, and horses the ministry, and soon commenced preaching was in Samson County, North Carolina, a few miles have never been seen since, which doubtless the and haptizing in Manchester.

mob took and kept and that was all the breth-ren ever received of the promised pay for all the privilege of settling my business, I had their losses at De Witt. Many houses belong- previous to this, employed Colonel Oliver Graning to my brethren were burned, their cattle ger as my Agent to close all my affairs in the elected Member of Congress in 1810, and has several driven away, and a great quantity of their pro- Eastern States; and as I have been accused of times been President of the Senate pro tem. In 1844 perty destroyed by the mob. Seeing no pros- "running away, cheating my creditors," &c., he was chosen Minister to France, and on his return pect of relief, the Governor having turned a I will insert a few of the many cards and let- in 1846 was again elected a Senator of the United deaf ear to our entreaties, the Militia having ters I have received from gentlemen who have States, and was chosen President of the Senate pro: mutinied, and the greater part of them ready had the best opportunity of knowing my busito join the mob; the brethren came to the con-ness transactions and whose testimony comes

They traveled that day about twelve miles, credit to himself, and all others that committed and encamped in a grove of timber near the to him the care of adjusting their business with

THOMAS GRIFFITH, JOHN S. SEYMOUR." About this time William Morgan, Sheriff of During our journey we were continually har-rassed and threatened by the mob, who shot at William P. Penniston, Doctor Samuel Venable, brethren left De Witt than Sashiel Woods call rally a sufficient force around their Standard, led the mob together and made a speech to them and produce a total overthrow, massacre, or that they must hasten to assist their friends in banishment of the Mormons from the State. were coming on, and if they could get the fired their own houses and then fled the County the same, except that the latter votes as a Senator, Mormons driven out, they could get all the lands crying "fire and murder." It was reported in and has the cotting vote. entitled to pre-emptions, and that they must Far West to-day that Orson Hyde had left that as well as all the pay they had received for them.

He assured the mob that they had nothing to fear from the authorities in so doing, for they had now full proof that the authorities would seven in the evening, where I had hoped to have strong inducement in favor of emigration to Oregon.

It appears that the government grant of 640 acres of land, allowed to each family actually settling and cultivating it for a term of years, is operating as a strong inducement in favor of emigration to Oregon. not assist the Mormons, and that they might as enjoyed some respite from our enemies, at least well take their property from them as not. His request was complied with, and accordingly was informed that a mob had commenced the whole banditti started, taking with them hostilities on the borders of that County, adtheir cannon for Davies County. In the joining to Ray County, and that they had taken ment to Pope Adrian IV., the only Englishman who mean time Cornelius Gilliam was busily en- some of our brethren prisoners; burned some ever sat in the papal chair. gaged in raising a moh in Platte and Clinton houses, and had committed depredations on the

Summary

May 6th.

Signo Mario, the greatest tenor, and Madame if any, is necessary to protect the ignorant and cremarching toward a settlement of our people in Grisi, the most splendid operatic actress of the age, dulous from the delusive arts of Spirit Rappers. three nights in North America, for about $2,300 per amounts to two millions of copics, and it has been kingdom of Hanover. Mrs. Uncle Tom Stowe is the 'lion' of the season brought from California.

A person in Cardiff, Wales, recently opened an his own affairs' in a lunatic asylum?]

report. She has however made her ninth trip safely. When spiritual humbig is brought to bear against pri- for the Utah Indians. vate interests, there will be no security against per- Edward Leahey, the Monk of La Trappe, has last. sonal malice.

since the year 1831, 38 bears, 984 wolves, 3,847. to disperse the mob, and when asked the reason protect Adam-ondi-ahman, and repel the at- coons, 993 foxes, 961 wild geese, 2.040 pheasants, of his conduct, he always replied that Bogart tacks of the mob in Davies County. Having 44 ground hogs, 80 wild cats, 14 polecats, 200 minks, and having a hosides some property in that County, and having a hosides some property in that County. besides squirrel, quail, and other small game beyond amount on each person liable to do military duty. his power to calculate. He realized about twelve thousand dollars.

Large fire at Valparaiso March 24th; loss $100,000.

There are 66 Post Offices in Oregon.

Islands on the 3rd May, and near two hundred lives and a boy-were literally burnt to ashes.

from Cuba to Spain, to await the decision of the another dreadfully burt.

mouth, England.

Fire in the Navy Yard, Brooklyn, 17th April; lors $105,000. Five men were incarcerated in a cell at the Tombs.

New York, 17th April for being intoxicated; next were taken out alive, and they much injured-In the mean time Henry Root, and David River, Colonel Wight, who held a commission morning three of them were found dead, and a fourth Thomas, who had been the sole cause of the in the 59th Regiment under his (General Parks) writhing in his who died during the day; the cause writhing in fits who died during the day; the cause ca and Australia during the month of April last. was supposed to be foul air.

The Steamship Great Britain, arrived at Liverpool.

William Rufus King, Vice President of the United Alubama, on the 18th April last, having reached that unany of them, and could not be found: it was known at the time, and the mob boasted of it, business in England and gave himself wholly to been born on the 7th April, 1786. His native place east of Fayetteville. He was elected a member of the Legislature from his native county in 1806, being then in the twenty-first year of his age. He was dency. Mr. King was the only bachelor who has ever Witt, and started for Caldwell on the afternoon of Thursday October 11th. 1838.

the claims, accounts, &c., against the former the states is this season going by way of the Arcitizens of Kirtland Township, has done much kansas.

The publisher of the Life in Boston was assaulted beat and bruised him until he was supposed to be life. by this 'terrible railway accident.'

Insanity is still resulting from the Spiritual Rapping of 17th May, are filled with interesting intelligence from Great Salt Lake City. system.

There is no provision in the Constitution for filling us several times; whilst several of our brethren died from the fatigue, and privations, which they had to endure, and we had to inter them of the most inflamammatory kind, charging office will now remain vacant until the next election take Mr. Herald! The Dramatic Association is now by the way-side without a coffin, and under circumstances the most distressing, we arrived in had been committed by the mob, endeavoring Caldwell on the twelfth—No sooner had the brethren left De Witt than Sashiel Woods enl. that office become vacant before another election. The powers and duties of the Vice President, and Davies County. The Land Sales (he said) These and their associates were the ones who the President of the Senate pro: tem., are precisely

It is estimated that the emigration towards the Pacific this season, will take from the Atlantic States no fewer than 100,000 head of cattle.

The Queen of England gave birth to another son on the 7th April at Buckingham Palace. The English in Rome are moving to erect a monu-Solon Borland is appointed Governor of New Mexico.

An order was adopted by the Massachusetts House The Sule of 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' in Europe dramatized in ten or twelve theatres.

Dreadful collision on the Michigan Southern Rail Some were terrific and destructive. Road, April 26th.; twenty killed, and about fifty inch jured, some of whom are not expected to recover.

A Democratic conspiracy has been discovered in the grate. No less a sum than £600,000, or nearly three because the knowing ones say that the King of Holthing is going on in Australia.

Mr. Feargus O'Connor is now an inmate of a In Ireland it is with the utmost difficulty that men managing his affairs,? dating the lunacy from the 10th lowing handsome dividends, after all expenses were parts of the State and a man by the name of Preston, England this day. It was a general can be obtained, at advance wages, to carry out June, 1852, the day on which he was committed to lackson from Howard County was a general can be obtained, at advance wages, to carry out June, 1852, the day on which he was committed to Jackson from Howard County was appointed time of pruning in England. The powers of agricultural operations, while every morning train is the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms, of the House 900. of Commons .- [ Who would be capable of 'managing Donatello, the great Florentine Sculptor, on giving Mecilla Valley as the property of the United States, Berlin. the list stroke to his statue of Judith, was heard to has caused the most intense excitement both in New Mexico and throughout a large portion of Mexico. A Spiritual Medium declared that the Steamer The authorities of the latter country have formally cific, one of the Ladrone Islands. of them to live in wagons or tents. Application one hundred, who took up a line of march for Jeannie Deans would blow up on her night trip, and and solemnly protested against it, and are preparing to had been made to the Judge of the Circuit Adam-ondi-ahman; and here let it be distinctly the business of the boat was really injured by the resist it by force of arms, if necessary. Edward A. Bedell is appointed an Indian Agent been found guilty of the deliberate murder of Ber-Wat Eckman, a hunter of Kentucky, has killed hard Manly, and is sentenced to be imprisoned in Wisconsin State prison for life.

The Legislature of Virginia has abolished all Militia musters, and substituted a tax of 75 cents per

The Canadian Parliament has adopted a plan for a decimal currency in dollars and cents.

cient to work all the factories in the world.

A farmer of Burlington, N. J., has a hog which from Snain.

The new Empress of France has been seriously indisposed, in consequence of a premature accough-

The bill for the removal of Jewish disabilities is again thrown out of the British House of Lords. An earthquake occurred in Lawrence County, Pa., on the 5th May. Mrs. Sherman, of West Troy, hung herself on the 11th May. Cause, excitement of mind, occasioned by Spiritualism; very common occurrence.

Terriffic storm at Galveston May 2nd ; grant damage done to buildings, shipping, &c.

peet; the object, or one of the objects of it, seems to be the dethronement of the reigning Emperor in faarray against them any thing like an equal force.

has turned Roman Catholic.

It is calculated that there are no less than 100,000 foreign refuges in London. [Saints, do you see any signs of the last days, or are you looking for wonderful appearances in the heavens? These will come in their time; but they will not speak any plainer than the present appearances in the political firmament.

The wife of Mr. Matthew Tuck, of Farmington, Me., on the 5th May last, gave birth to three smart boys, weighing seven pounds each, and the mother and children are all doing well. It is rumored that Mexico is again soon to be transformed into a dependency of the Spanish crowns Santa Anna is afraid of him.

Thurlow Weed is strenuously advocating the annexation of the Sandwich Islands to the United States.

Two German ladies were delivered, one of a bouncroad. That evening a woman, who had some this community, which also furnishes evidence on the night of the 18th April last, when within a ing boy, and the other of a promising girl, on the short time before given birth to a child (in that there was no intention on their part of de-consequence of the exposure occasioned by the frauding their creditors.

Lew paces of his residence in Cambridge, by two down train from Columbus to Cincinnati, May 11th.

The property of the sufference of the exposure occasioned by the frauding their creditors. ruffians in the employ of the Boston Gamblers, who Pr. Brarch was called into the aid of the sufferers

The Herald says that the drama in Salt Lake, like for the death of their Chief, August 15th. The Herald of October 20th, contains a large list of the Blocks sent by the different States &c., to the now on the way thither. Her British Majesty's Ship Prince Albert bad res turned after a fruitless search for Sir John Franklin. English Officers have been repeatedly insulted by Skirmishing continues the same as usual August 23rd, and reported discovery of gold at the Cape of Good Hope.

Gallope, which has become the rage in England. The Czar of Russia is 57 years old, and has reigned 27 years.

Corn Pudding .- Cooks, attention! Take four spoonsful of flour, one pint of sweet milk, salt and pepper to season; bake it well, and you will have the

There were more thunder storms in Great Britain last year, then in any year within remembrance.

It may not be generally known that the present Emperor of France is the reputed son of Louis King in his veins. The extent of the potatoe disease in England and Scotland last year was as great as in any previous O'Connor was of unsound mind, and incapable of Jeany Lind's doings in America produced the folexcellent health, and is engaged daily for some hours The proclamation of Governor Laue, claiming the on a fourth volume of the 'Cosmos.' He resides in > been discovered on Tinian Island, in the North Pa-The French Cathedral in Montreal will comfort-

Mr. J. L. Stephens, the eminent traveler in Central America and Syria, died in New York 12th October The possibility of controlling the movements of an

Ærial machine has at length become an undisputed fact. M Henri Giffard of Paris has invented one; in which he ascended to the hight of 5,400 feet, and could turn the vessel's head in any direction he pleased It is said that a man named Lace, was shot by a young woman whom he had seduced at Milwaukie, after promise of marriage, and that the verdict of the but it requires a good deal of faith to believe that such a justiflable act. The Indians know better, they would have applauded and blessed the maiden for her verdiet on his docket? Can it he possible there is a For what? For defending the life, the liberty, the in human shape!! No! The Devil is a gentleman, about it, namely on those Jurors, Judges and when his Majesty is ashamed of them; and upon the will five under laws that require their Officers to deal thus adulterously. Should the above report prove may have something to say to her murderers here-

The rebellion in China is assuming a serious asvor of a prince selected by the insurgents themselves, who declare that the whole country is misgoverned, overtaxed, and generally oppressed. The army of the insurgents already numbers 50,000 men; and small as this seems, it is thought the Emperor cannot

The celebrated Pritchard, the Otaheite Missionary and some of Santa Anna's proceedings are strengthening this rumor. The Ex-President of Mexico, General Arista, who has been hanished by Santa Anna's government, says that he would prefer the annexation of that country to the United States. Arista is now in Europe, but retains his rank and pay in the Mexican Army; he has committed no offence but

Two columns and a half of the New York Herald

A desperate attempt was made to assassinate the Shah of Persia, by six of the sect of Bali, in revenge

Washington Monument. Deseret's contribution is Austrian Officials in Italy.

General Summary. A new gallope has appeared, called the Laughing

From the New York Herald, from April 23rd, to of R presentatives on the 15th April, directing the ears of green corn, boil them till half done, cut off the Committee on Education to inquire what legislation, corn as fine as convenient, mix it with two heaping most ecstatic dish ever invented.

Large remittances are being continually made by of Holland, brother of Napoleon the Great, and Horthe Irish in this country to enable their friends to emi- tense the daughter of Josephine. We say reputed, millions of dollars, was remitted to Ireland last year land had no agency in the matter; if so, the present through one bank alone, for this purpose. The same Emperor has not the least drop of Bonaparte blood

Baron Von Humboldt is now 83 years old; is in

The ruins of an ancient and magnificient city have ably seat ten thousand persons, and hold 15 thousand.

About $2,000,000 worth of shoes are made in jury was; Wilful Munder!! [All this may be true It is calculated that the water of Niagara is of jury can be found in a Christain country, in this en-4,533,144 horse power, and that it is more than suffi. lightened age, who would render such a verdict, for Louis Napoleon grants no quarter to any who are weights 1,307 pounds; he is eight feet and six inches heroic, virtuous deed. Can it be possible there is a kept constantly increasing: our provisions were the most delicate situations, were thus obliged not precisely of his way of thinking; Republicanism long, and seven feet seven inches in circumference, Judge in these United States who will receive such a April 29th, a Temperance Hotel in Rochester was Governor of a State in this Union, who will suffer Ship William and Mary wrecked near the Bahama destroyed by fire, and four domestics-three women such a praise worthy Heroine to go to the gallows? A house was washed down by heavy rain in St. sacred honor, of the present and succeeding gene-April 9th, 45 revolutionary prisoners were sent Louis, 22nd April; two children instantly killed, and rations, from the accursed acts of an infernal demon Tuere has been a discovery at Old Panama of compared with such Jurors, such Judges, such Severe shock of an earthquake felt at Constance, Roman Copper Coins nearly 1600 years old; it is con- Governors, and we will not fix a stigma on him, we Havre, and Caen, April 1st, it was also felt at Ports- jectured they were brought there by some adventurer will leave it where it belongs, till we know more

A large building in Buffalo, which was undergoing Governors, who will do such things, and by so doing repairs, caved in on the 13th May, and buried twenty strive to make themselves the Devils boot blacks, of the workmen beneath the rains, only five of whom State, if any such there be in the Confedration, 27,000 emigrants embarked at Liverpool for Ameritrue, and this champion of virtue be executed.