

MORMON ELDERS IN NEW YORK.

New York World Prints Long Story
Of Their Work.

POLYGAMY NOT PREACHED.

Elders Are Reported as Being Among
The Brightest and Ablest Young Men in the Church.

The New York World of recent date prints the following article about the "Mormon" missionaries now at work in that city, together with a group picture of the Elders and the "Mormon" Articles of Faith:

The Hooper Young murder has brought an astonishing revelation to New Yorkers of the widespread efforts of "Mormon" missionaries to gain converts and start churches in this city.

So quietly has their work been done that until the searchlight was turned upon them by the murder committed by the grandsons of the famous exponent of their religion was it known that this city is the center of a strong and well organized missionary campaign.

Nearly a score of the ablest and brightest young missionaries of the church are the recruiting agents of the church here. They are located at specially selected points throughout the city, whence they conduct their work quietly and without ostentation.

Day and night these young men carry on their work. By day they make a house to house canvass, proselyting and selling their literature, and by night they hold meetings on street corners, in houses, in public halls and at the two established headquarters of the church in Greater New York—the big hall at No. 151 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and No. 210 Steuben street, Brooklyn.

A typical representative of the younger generation of "Mormons" is at the head of the movement here. He is John G. McQuarrie, a native of Utah, and a young man who was distinguished as a zealous worker for the church before he was sent east as the president of the Eastern States mission. Present, McQuarrie's home at No. 172 West Eighty-first street—a great, cozy establishment—occupies the dual role of home and official headquarters of the church. It is always filled with those interested in the work and is the scene of meetings of the different "Mormon" organizations. It is here that the "Mormon" organization, the only "Mormon" organization of women in the city, holds its meetings.

NO REGULAR CHURCH HERE.

The "Mormons" as yet have no regular church here. Many meetings are held at the homes of converts and in private halls hired for the purpose. A curious fact is that all the missionaries are young men, able-bodied, healthy, and as a rule, well educated and good talkers. The pick of the young men of the Church have been selected to come here. They have nothing in their manner or dress to distinguish them.

The New York missionaries are all volunteers, and according to their statements come here without salary. Some of them are enabled to do this by means of a small salary of $100 a month, and others gain a living by selling books and other works.

Burt Eastman, one of the brightest of the "Mormon" missionaries, was graduated from the art school of the Pratt Institute in Brooklyn only a few weeks ago. In the intervals of his study at the institute he has been seeking converts to his church, and he speaks almost nightly at a street gathering or at some private house.

Polygamy is not openly preached in this city, if at all. The missionaries who talk frankly about their work and declare that they have nothing to say that polygamy is still adhered to as a principle of the Church, but that as it is prohibited by law its practice has been abandoned.

One of the principal tenets of our creed is that we bow to kings and rulers," said Elder Clarence Snow, one of the most prominent of the young missionaries. "For that reason we do not teach polygamy any longer. We still hold to it as a principle of our religion, however."

Converts made here are encouraged to go to Utah, and most of them do so. The unexcused features of practicing teachings of the "Mormons" to gather the followers of the church into communities so that the religion might be best illustrated and practiced.

WOMEN ENTHUSIASTIC WORKERS

Comparatively few "Mormons" converts in New York. It is stated that the number here, outside of the missionaries, does not exceed 100. More than half of this number are women.

The women are among the most enthusiastic and active workers, and the Women's Relief association is one of the strongest organizations of the church in New York. Miss Rose Agnes Lane, the well known actress, who for several years has been a convert to "Mormonism," is the president of this association. Miss Lane was once leading lady for Richard Mansfield, and is at present touring with a company of which Joseph Haworth is the head.

Miss Lane is a talented actress, and not long ago she headed a company that presented a "Mormon" drama in Salt Lake City for the benefit of the church. During her absence on the road with her theatrical company Mrs. Katherine Lane, of No. 202 West Twenty-third street, is acting as the head of the relief organization.

While it is called a relief association it is actually a missionary organization, engaged in the spreading of the "Mormon" doctrine. It is organized by President McQuarrie, no field exists in New York for a "Mormon" relief organization, and the women's organization of that name occupies itself with missionary work. It has over 30 active members, who devote their time to spreading the "Mormon" literature and talking to those who take an interest in the doctrine.

A woman missionary has been one of the most effective workers for the church in this city. She is Miss Sussie Decraft, of No. 148 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, whose father and mother became converts to the "Mormon" religion several years ago and went to live at Ogden, Utah. Miss Decraft went there for a time, but returned here to gain more converts. She went back to Utah on a visit a few weeks ago.

Miss Decraft is a young woman of fine education and a fluent talker. It is said by the men missionaries that she has been remarkably successful in interesting both men and women in the church. She is counted one of the most valuable aides of President McQuarrie in the east.

CONDUCTS BIG LITERARY BUSINESS.

President McQuarrie has charge of the "Mormon" work in the New England states, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware. He conducts an extensive literary business and his office is the headquarters of all the missionaries in the city. His assistant is Elder Freeman, one of the few young missionaries who has a wife. Elder Freeman is a small, shaven, pleasant-faced young man, who talks interestingly and glibly of the "Mormon" doctrine. When a World reporter called on President McQuarrie's headquarters last week he was seated at the old-fashioned organ in the big parlor playing a "Mormon" hymn, while half a dozen of the starry-eyed missionaries bustled themselves about the house. Some were reading, one was seated at the typewriter and another was busy dashing off a tract for distribution.

President McQuarrie's desk was piled high with letters and correspondence, and the bookshelves in the office and in the parlor adjoining were filled with "Mormon" literature.

President McQuarrie is a tall, spare man, less than thirty years of age. He is the only one of the entire staff of missionaries who wears a beard. He has a dark mustache. He is a rapid talker and carries the doctrine of the church on his tongue's end. To the reporter he said:

"Our work in New York is an open book. We have nothing to conceal. We are anxious for the world to know what we are doing. We invite scrutiny."

"We, of course, have got a lot of unpleasant notoriety out of the Young murder. I hardly suppose any sensible person would think of holding the 'Mormon' Church responsible for that crime."

"The 'Mormon' missionary work in New York is under the immediate direction of Elder John Porter, who is president of the conference comprising Greater New York and Long Island. Elder Porter is a young man, who came here a few months ago from Utah, and has a fine, pleasant face. He conducts the Sunday services at our Harlem headquarters in West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street. The Brooklyn services are conducted by Elders W. E. Potter and C. H. Miller."

People build schoolhouses before temples of worship. It becomes apparent from this that it is a fiction that ignorance is necessary to the growth of Mormonism."

The missionaries say they have been discouraged by the notoriety brought upon them by the Young murder and say they will go on with their work with more energy than ever.

HE WAS DESPERATE.

In an especially crowded hour of a crowded shop a man had succeeded in working his way to the ribbon counter and in maintaining his place there until the saleswoman felt disposed to take him out of her existence.

"I want five yards of broad white ribbon," he said.

"We do not keep white at this counter," was the disheartening response.

"What do you keep?"

"Anything else."

"Then give me five yards of anything else."

The surrounding women held their breath while the saleswoman disparagingly measured off five yards of light blue. Then as one woman they turned to watch with pitying eyes the man as, examining the paper bag into his pocket, he left the shop.—New York Sun.

PAIN IN THE BACK

A Sure Sign of Kidney Trouble. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will cure you.

Pain in the back is a never failing sign of kidney disease; another sure sign is the condition of the urine; if you have a pain in the back then look to the condition of your urine. Take a glass tumbler of your urine; after it has stood 24 hrs. if it has a sediment, if it is milky or cloudy, pale or discolored, stringy orropy, your kidneys and bladder are in a dangerous condition and need immediate attention, or the consequences may prove fatal.

F. C. Wilcox of 559 New Britain Ave., Hartford, Conn., says:

"I had a frightful pain in my back, the result of kidney trouble. My physician seemed powerless to relieve me. I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy; it helped me wonderfully, and in a short time cured me completely."

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the one medicine that really cures all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer on the system. It is wonderful how it makes that pain in the back disappear, how it relieves the desire to urinate often, especially at night, and drives away the scalding pain in passing water and in a remarkably short time makes you well and strong.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is for sale by all druggists, $1 a bottle, or 6 bottles for $5—less than one cent a dose.

Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.

RAYMOND A

GOODLY PLACE.
James F. Johnson Thinks it Will Out Rank Older Towns.

POPULATION ABOUT 1,000

Have Been Many New Buildings Go Up During Past Year—Is Strictly Prohibition.

James F. Johnson of Raymond, Alberta, Canada, is among the visitors to Conference. He is greatly impressed with conditions in his section and believes that before long the youngest town in the entire northwest territory will have a population to exceed a great many of those started many years before.

Raymond was named after Raymond Knight, son of Jesse Knight, and was laid out in August, 1901. Its population at the present time is about 1,000. During the period of its existence over 100 substantial dwellings have been erected, together with a comfortable meeting house, a hotel, two mercantile houses, three implement houses, two banks, a drug store, a butcher shop, a postoffice and telephone and telegraph offices. The town also boasts two lumber yards and a land office, so it can be seen that it is becoming quite pretentious in a comparatively short time.

Raymond, says Mr. Johnson, is a prohibition town and therefore has no saloons. The people, for the most part, are engaged in farming and stock raising. The first season they put in 5,000 acres of grain and harvested 150,000 bushels. They also raised a good quantity of the vegetables, and planted a great many vines and fruit trees. At present there are three threshers in operation with a combined capacity of 5,000 bushels per day. The town has 75 square miles under fence and has good water for culinary purposes which is piped into the city from a spring two miles away. For wheat and small grains no irrigation is required, but for sugar beets and garden truck it will be necessary to irrigate.

Work has begun on the sugar factory which is being erected by Jesse Knight's company. It is thought it will be completed by next fall. Cattle are shipped east and west and being on the highway to the best markets in America, bring good figures and pay handsomely. The Alberta Land & Stock company has recently sold $20,000 worth of beef and Raymond Knight disposed of a similar amount. The beef cattle netted over $50 per head. The country around Raymond is a good one for grazing purposes and the cattle get bigger there than in any other place for miles around. Durhams and Herefords are the stock principally raised. There are also plenty of sheep there and those owning them get good returns on the investment.

Mr. Johnson says there is no more liberal government on earth than that offered by the Canadians. As an instance of this he cites the fact that everything is done to encourage settlement, and that in Raymond the government has taken a subsidy on the sugar plant to the amount of $150,000 and has also made the company exempt from taxation for a period of 20 years. Further, he says, Alberta is the only section in Canada where foreigners are permitted to hold public office, and that, too, in the face of the fact that the people resident there have not yet signified their intentions of becoming citizens. Generally speaking the health of the people is good and the weather at this time of the year is quite pleasant. New comers arrive on every train, and the railroad, owned by the Alberta Irrigation and Land Co., is very generous in its dealings with the people. This road is to be broad-gauged in the near future.

In addition to the buildings mentioned above, Raymond also possesses a lathing storehouse and a Relief Society granary with a combined capacity of 50,000 bushels. There is also a mill and elevator in course of erection, which will be completed by Nov. 1. This plant will have cost $50,000 and will have a capacity of 100 barrels per day. Its owners are R. P. Ellison and Jesse Knight, the former of Farmington, Davis county, Utah. Mr. Ellison is also interested in the sugar factory and has the general management of both.

There are needed in Raymond at the present time, says Mr. Johnson, a harness maker, a harness maker, and a packing house. The latter, he says, could make money and would be a great blessing to the community. Samples of grain and vegetables raised there, are now on exhibition at the state fair.

NO MORE GRAY HAIRS

Is a Thing of Reality if You Use
"DeLacy's French Hair Tonic," so says
Mr. G. E. Fessenden, of 912 N. 6th St., a well-known St. Louis Business Man.
Here's his Letter, Word for Word:

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 12th, 1901.

Gentlemen—About a year ago I began using DeLacy's Hair Tonic for dandruff and gray hair. My head was perfectly bald on top, as smooth and free from hair as the palm of your hand, so I had no hopes of doing anything for the baldness. But the hair on the sides and back was nearly entirely gray, and dandruff so bad I pulled it off in large scales. After using 2 bottles of DeLacy's Hair Tonic the dandruff was completely cured and the hair began to grow again. I continued using the tonic each night until I had used 9 bottles, and to-day I can show as fine a head of dark brown hair as any man in St. Louis, clean and perfectly free from dandruff, and NOT A GRAY HAIR ON MY HEAD. I am 47 years of age, live in St. Louis as foreman of Clapp's big Livery Stable at 921 North 6th Street for the past 8 years, and can be easily found, and it will be a pleasure for me to answer any questions and allow any interested party to carefully examine my head at my place of business, for I am certainly a DeLacy Hair Tonic enthusiast, for it has performed WONDERS for me, and I can't find words that would speak strongly enough of its Wonderful and True merits, for it is all you claim and ten times more.

Yours very truly,
G. E. FESSENDEN, 912 N. 6th St.
