New York, Jan. 2 .- The plans of the ternational Banking corporation hich has been named by the Presint as the repository for the portion the Chinese indemnity due to the nited States have been explained by n. Thomas H. Hubbard, the presint of the board of directors of the w corporation. He says that after Philippine agency is established, er branches will be instituted in principal cities of the new insular ssions of the United States. The mate purpose is that the entire ient and South and Central America all be comprehended by the operans of the bank,

'All of this is but the natural out with of the commercial and terriial expansion of the United States, nued Gen. Hubbard, "Heretofore re has been no particular need in United States for a banking instion doing an international business since the Spanish war and the tre us trade of recent years with uth America and the promise of nstantly increasing commerce with ina and the orient, the necessity for t such an institution as this has de-

TEACHING OF TEMPERANCE.

Question Discussed by President of Am. Association of Naturalists.

TOO MUCH STATE DOMINATION

Science and Education Suffer From Temperauce Propaganda Until it Has Become Intolerable.

Chicago, Jan. 1 .- Scientific temper ance instruction as taught in the public schools from the text-books now in use, together with anti-vivisection, an ti-vaccination and Christian Science was denounced by Prof. William T. Sedgwick, president of the American Association of Naturalists, at a hanguet conight given by the members of the scientific societies now in session at the University of Chicago, "It is a notorious and disgraceful fact," said Prof. Sedgwick, "that with a view of pleasing a self-constituted oligarchy some writers have even made alcoholic instruction form the beginning, the middle and the end of their text-books. Of such books it may be truly said that they have no permanency of their own, and with difficulty would be preserved in schools."

President Sedgwick's address was upon "The Modern Subjection of Sciand Education to re Propoganda." "Ye Tem-Propoganda." "Pientific instruction," he said, perance emperance "has grown to such proportions and has gained such power as to dominate almost all instruction in elementary physiology and hygiene in America. It is right, of course, that pupils should be taught the danger of alcohol and narcotics, but teachers often go too far, and it even shows that all instruction in physiology and hygiene in publie schools has passed to a great and unjustifiable extent into the hands and under the subjection of the temperance propaganda. President Sedgwick believes that here should be little or no state regulation of what shall appear in text-books. "Scarcely had science and edu-cation," he said, "freed themselves from the church when they began to be threatened by subjection to the state, While it is right that the youth should be taught the dangers of alcohol, I believe that it is odious and unreasonable that the exact amount of such teaching should be prescribed by law; that the method of teaching by text-books, and the space devoted to it in the text-books, should be legally regulated by law, but especially that the kind of text-books used should be largely determined by a self-constituted and unofficial oligarchy-leaders of a propa-ganda which is neither educational nor The effect of these peculiar laws, he aid, had been to create a peculiar class of text-books, some of which were pre-pared by competent writers, but most were inferior and some were distinctly bad.

The officers in charge of the island military post made efforts to keep the fact of the death of the prisoners from becoming public, but the story leaked out today through the gossip of sol-dier guards at the prison.

Nothing would be said by the officers of the condition of the three men who were in the hospital, though it was told by one of the hospital attendants that one of them was so affected by the poison that his sight had left him The other two were reported to be well on the road to recovery. EVARTS, CHOATE & BEAMAN. Celebrated New York Law Firm Has

Dissolved. New York, Jan. 1 .-- After a continuous service of nearly half a century in the law firm of Evaris, Choate &

Beaman, Joseph H. Choate has withdrawn, and temporarily at least, will discontinue the practice of law. Mr. Choate communicated his intertion to his associate some time ago giving as his reason that his duties state as ambassador from the United States to England have prevented his active participation in the affairs or the parinership for the last two years and that these duties would consum so much of this time for several years to come that it would be impossible for him to pursue his law practice.

Another reason recited was that the ecent deaths of William M. Evarts. Charles C. Beaman and Prescett Hall Butler would necessitate a change in the firm name, and he urged that such should be done.
