

ACQUITTED ONCE ARRESTED AGAIN

John Kothlaffs Declared Not Guilty of Killing Peter Getis At Bingham.

JURY WAS OUT FOUR HOURS

As soon as Released Kothlaffs Was Again Taken in Custody on Charge of Attempted Murder.

John Kothlaffs, who was acquitted last night by a jury in Judge Thomas Lewis' court of murdering Peter Getis in Bingham canyon on Dec. 25, 1908, was rearrested on the charge of attempted murder as soon as he was released. He was taken to the county jail and bonds will be fixed in his case today.

The second charge grew out of the admission made by Kothlaffs that he and Getis engaged in a duel about two weeks before the fatal battle in which he fired the first shot.

The jury was given the case about 10 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and after four hours of deliberation returned a verdict of not guilty. It is believed that Kothlaffs was acquitted on his own story which the prosecution was unable to shake.

It was established by the defense that Getis fired the first shot and Kothlaffs after he was wounded fired his revolver and fired steadily into the dark in the direction from which he was attacked. He testified that he did not know that he had killed Getis until two days after the shooting.

Kothlaffs was arrested in Judge Lewis' courtroom before the jury who acquitted him. The warrant was sworn out shortly after the case was closed.

Henry Watterson Says From Being Defender of Liberty, Has Become An Invader.

NO HOUSEHOLD LONGER SAFE

Reporters Being Turned Into Detectives—Movement Toward Better Conditions Should Be Organized.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Deprecating the tendency of newspapers toward sensationalism, Col. Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, addressed members of the National Press club tonight at a reception in his honor on the personal relation of the newspaper to the public. Mr. Watterson is on his way home, after an extensive European trip.

"Tending to be the special defenders of liberty, we are becoming the invaders of private right," said Col. Watterson. "No household longer seems safe against intrusion. Our reporters are being turned into detectives. As surely as this we are checked, we shall grow to be the subjects of fear and hatred instead of trust and respect. Some one ought to organize an intelligent and definite movement toward the bettering of that which has reached alarming proportions. I say this in your interest as well as the interest of the public and the profession, for I am sure that you are gentlemen and want to be considered so, whereas the work you are often set to do is often the reverse of the gentlemanly. It subjects you to aversion and contempt—brings you and a high and rightly calling into disrepute—by confusing the purpose and functions of the newspaper with those of the police and the scavenger. I have been proud of that calling all my life, and when I go to my country I want to see a clean and honored flag flying from the masthead."

WOULD ONLY COST $20,000,000.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Building of a 14-foot waterway from the present terminus of the drainage canal to Illinois, the head of navigation on the Illinois river, would be a tremendous step toward the lakes-to-the-gulf deep waterway. Such a project would cost only $20,000,000 and the work of deepening the remainder to East St. Louis would be reduced to $10,000,000, the price of one battleship. We could depend on the federal government to furnish this aid, meet at St. Louis, the completion of the waterway would be easily accomplished, as the interests on the river, Missouri and upper Mississippi rivers could be working with instead of competing against us. The foregoing was the central thought.

The Watch. A wise merchant is honest for business sake if for no other reason. His first and most valuable asset is his integrity, and his second, his stock of goods—the latter of little value if the first is wanting.
