BURNED SECTION TO BE REBUILT.

Pluck and Energy of Burned-Out Merchants—Business Already Resumed.

COMMERCIAL MEN CONFER.

The O'Laughlin Damage Suit—Estate Of Dr. Lyman Skeen—Burial Of Mrs. Martha I. Skeen.

Ogden, May 24.—It is gratifying to witness the manner in which those merchants who were burned out Monday night have calmly faced the misfortune which befell them and have in every instance felt to make the best of it, and start over again with renewed energy to please the public.

The Burton Improvement company was fortunate in saving a few of its buggies, but has several carloads of machinery, wagons, and other things en route to Ogden, and has placed orders for large quantities so that they will be ready to meet the demands of their trade cheerfully. They have opened up a temporary office in the A. S. Brewer building on Twenty-fourth street.

J. M. Abbott of the Geo. A. Lowe company says: "The impression seems to have gone out that we are going to discontinue business. This information is entirely erroneous. While our loss is severe, still we are happy to say we will be able to absorb same and still show a comfortable surplus.

We will begin the erection of a new building just as soon as the debris is cleared away. In the meantime we intend to fit up our shop building on Twenty-third street. Moving the machinery to the rear, we are now busily engaged in ordering a new stock of goods.

There also seems to be an impression that our entire stock is destroyed. We have $40,000 worth of stock in our warehouse at the depot, with which to do business. Our Salt Lake competitors have most graciously come to our rescue and we will be in position to take care of our trade in a very few days, and inside of 30 days we hope to be in position to take care of our trade as well as in the past, with the possible exception of being inconvenienced by cramped quarters.

During the past 30 years of our business career we have until recently been most fortunate as regards loss by fire or otherwise, and during this period have been accumulating a surplus for the rainy day that is now upon us."

The Barrup Grocery company was quick to get into line, and yesterday rented a store at 2270 Washington avenue, stocked it and is satisfying its trade.

The Lone Star barber shop having saved its chairs, rented a place next to Mr. Barrup, and commenced yesterday to lather the faces of its patrons.

W. Farr & Co. are preparing to open up again, as are most of the other sufferers in the fire. One benefit to Ogden from the fire will be that the several frame structures that were old and delapidated that faced on Washington avenue, and were like kindling wood for the flames, will be replaced by brick structures, giving the avenue a better appearance and much safer as to fire.

The Elite Cleaning & Dye Works was not the only loser in its building, as it had an unusually large number of suits on hand to be cleaned and pressed for spring wear, and they all went up in smoke.

Some of the insurance companies have already had their agents meet the losers in the fire, take an inventory and adjust and pay the insurance, which has also helped the business men to get into working order quick. There was some fear at the time of the fire that on account of the great losses experienced through the San Francisco disaster, that the insurance companies would be slow to adjust the losses, but quite to the contrary in most cases they were prompt in taking the matters up.

FOR BIG CONVENTION.

Committees Appointed for June Events.

Ogden, May 24.—A meeting of some of the committees of the United Commercial Travelers was held last evening at the Weber club, and from reports they received every indication is for a big time in Ogden on June 7, 8 and 9, when the traveling men will have the city thrown open to them for three days of business and jollification. The extremely low railroad rates offered from all parts of the adjacent states has been an incentive for many business men and private citizens to avail themselves of the opportunity to visit our beautiful city, take a ride over the Ogden-Lucin cut-off, one of the greatest pieces of engineering work of modern times and to spend a few days in recreation.

Chairman J. A. Howell yesterday appointed the following committees:

Reception—Dr. R. S. Joyce, Prof. D. O. McKay and S. W. Badcon.

Lucin cut off—A. B. Boseley, Sam Browning and J. G. Read.

Canyon—R. E. Hoag, J. G. Read and H. J. Toller.

Invitation—S. W. Badcom, Sam Browning and J. A. Howell.

Oratory—Prof. D. O. McKay, Dr. R. S. Joyce and J. A. Howell.

Reception and Dances—Arthur Kuhn, H. J. Toller and F. A. Burt.

Horse and Automobile Races—J. G. Read, R. E. Hoag and R. A. Grant.

Bicycle Races—C. H. Kircher, A. B. Moseley and R. A. Grant.

Decoration—F. A. Burt, R. A. Grant and Arthur Kuhn.

The lodge colors—blue, yellow and white—are all the go, and you see most of the business men, clerks and many others wearing badges of these colors.

BIG SUIT IN COURT.

Prosecution Rests—Case Long Drawn Out.

Ogden, May 24.—The prosecution has rested in the O'Laughlin $50,000 damage suit against the Union Pacific, and the further hearing of the case was continued until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. This has been a very hard fought suit, having taken a week almost to get in the evidence of the plaintiff, and it may take almost as long again before the case is submitted to the jury.

The matter of the estate of Dr. Lyman Skeen, deceased, a petition was filed by Lyman Skeen, Sr., paying for his appointment as administrator of the estate which consists of a $5,000 life insurance policy, and $2,000 worth of book accounts and other effects.

MRS. SKEEN BURIED.

Many Friends Pay Respects to Estimable Lady.

Ogden, May 24.—All that was mortal of Mrs. Martha I. Skeen was peacefully consigned to her final resting place in the Mountain View cemetery yesterday afternoon by the side of her late husband, Moroni Skeen, Sr.

Impressive funeral services over her remains were held at the Baptist church commencing at 2:30, Rev. Horace Blood officiating. He preached a comforting sermon and eulogy on the excellent, Godfearing life of the deceased, and the power of the resurrection wrought out by the Savior. Some beautiful music was furnished by the church choir. A wealth of floral tributes and the large attendance at the services were evidences of the love and esteem in which she was held in Ogden.

OGDEN BURGLARS SENT TO PRISON.

J. J. Brooks and George Wilson Sentenced by Judge Howell.

M. S. BROWNING LOSES SUIT.

Carstensen Must Return Ring and Pay For Stud—Bell Boy Suffers From Bursted Blood Vessel.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, May 24.—This morning Judge Howell sentenced J. J. Brooks, who had pleaded guilty to burglary in the second degree, to serve three years in the state prison. Brooks is one of the three arrested for robbing the store of L. H. Beecraft, on May 1. The plunder secured consisted of guns, cutlery, etc.

George Wilson, who also had pleaded guilty to a similar charge, but a different occurrence—the taking of a gun from Gavros' rooming house, was also sent to the state prison for three years.

Judge Howell rendered a decision in the case of the Salt Lake & Ogden Railway company vs M. S. Browning. The plaintiffs are permitted to take possession of 66 acres of ground, on which to build their proposed electric line to the mouth of Ogden canyon, but are denied the right to condemn land adjoining, as prayed for.

The court also rendered a decision in the case of C. M. Carstensen, administrator of the estate of Karen Carstensen, against Alma B. Carstensen. The suit was brought to recover a diamond stud, valued at $200, and a diamond ring, belonging to the estate. The court held that defendant must return the ring to the administrator, and that he must pay the sum of $200, in lieu of the stud which had been sold by defendant.

Tomorrow afternoon, County Commissioner Oscar B. Matson, will sell at public auction the property owned by Weber county taken by tax sales. There are a number of pieces of real estate that are considered valuable, which can be bought in by the payment of the taxes, accrued interest and costs.

Peter Christensen, Jr., a 17-year-old bell boy at the Reed hotel, is reported to be lying seriously ill at the home of his parents on Grant avenue from the breaking of a blood vessel in the brain. On Wednesday afternoon the boy had a severe siege of nose bleeding. It is presumed that the same was stopped too suddenly, though for a time no bad effects were noticeable. However, last evening as he arose from his bed at the hotel to go on night shift, he fell unconscious. He was discovered by Night Clerk Backett, who had him removed to his parents' home, where he is receiving the attentions of a physician.

Brigham Robinson, a Five Points saloon man, has had a druggist of that place, named Childs, arrested for the alleged selling of liquor without a license. Robinson claims that he is being injured in his business by reason of the sale of liquor by Childs, and he proposes to see that he takes out a license or suffers the consequence. The case will be heard on Saturday.

REX-GALE NUPTIALS.

The county clerk granted a marriage license to Archie J. Gale, 22 and Miss Eva Rex, 18, both of Ogden.
