CHICKEN thieves are again getting their work in, and last night made an extensive visit to the Twentleth Ward. Poultry owners in that district are beginning to feel that a charge of birdtheir hen coops.

THE work of shoveling snow on the Utah & Northern is almost as hazardous to the shovelers as is the work of digging the Panama canal to the laborers employed thereon. Some twenty of them have had their feet frozen. -Butte Miner.

THERE will be an auction sale at the Clift House to-morrow, particulars of which will be found in an advertisement elsewhere. A large lot of furniture, carpets, etc., will be disposed of to the highest bidder. Andrews & Whiteley, auctioneers.

Another Arrest.-On Friday last David B. Ward, an aged resident of Beaver County, was arrested on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. He was taken to Beaver City, and placed under bonds to await trial; the members of his family were required to give bail for their appearance as wit-

Lulu Hurst .- Many of our readers will remember Lulu Hurst, the magnetic girl of Georgia, who exhibited her wonderful powers in the Theatre of this city some time ago. From an exchange wo learn that she was recently married to Paul Atkinson, her former manager. It appears that after a few months her remarkable power deserted her, but not until she had realized about $20,000, which has since increased by southern investments to about $50,-000 and a fruit farm.

A Defaulter.-Second Lieutenant John Shaw, of Company K, Fifth Infantry, who left this city about the middle of December on a two months' furlough granted him on his claim of being afflicted with rheumatism, failed to return to his post of duty at Fort Taylor at 4:15 p. m. Douglas. Since he left it has developed that he had duplicated his pay accounts and stolen the pay of the men. His whereabouts are at present unknown, and it is not unlikely that he . has made use of his time in getting beyond the jurisdiction of the United Concert and Ball .- The sociable held by the Y. L. M. I. A. of the 8th Ward two weeks ago proved to be such a very enjoyable affair that those who had the pleasure of attending will doubtless be delighted at learning that a concert and ball will be given in the 8th Ward Assembly Rooms, on Friday evening next, commencing at 7:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the same association. The new ordinance in relation to does in Laramie, Wyoming is being enforced with a vigor worthy of a better cause. Up to the 14th inst. the canine assassin of that city had gathered in sixty-six scalps. The Boomerang says the city in consequence does not present such a busy appearance, but there is more room for busipees.

—It is reported that every day cattle are perishing by drowning in the Wind River, Wyoming. The river is trozen over from the source to the mouth, but the ice surface is perforated with innumerable air-holes. In the immediate vicinity of these air-holes the ice is thin and weak. The intense cold has frozen up all of the small creeks and the springs of the ranges, and the eattle, in their search for water, walk out upon the river to to the air-holes, land in the attempt to drink break through, and are swept at once from sight and life by the swift waters of the Wind River. Private advices of a late date from the Wind River country say that a great many cattle are dying thus every day.

Though the pipe is apparently the stefnal companion of all Germans, there have been distinguished exceptions, of whom Goethe is the most remarkable. Another has to be added to the list. An exhibitor of some South African cigars recently sent a box to the Emperor of Germany, The gift was graciously accepted and cordially acknowledged, but the secretary of the Emperor added that as his Majesty did not smoke himself he had handed over the cigars to his grand-son, Prince William.

The City Council met in regular session at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. In the absence of Mayor Armstrong Alderman Riter was chosen to preside A petition from T. E. Torkeldson directed attention to an old order of the Council requiring a road to be opened on Oak Street, from Plum to Pear Streets, and stated that the work had never been done. Referred to the Street Supervisor, with instructions to have the work done as soon as practicable.

One retail liquor license was granted. The unexpired portion of W. S. Smith's license as a fruit dealer was transferred to Hyde & Griffin. Chief of Police Solomon presented his tabulated report for the year 1886, detailing the number of crimes and kind of crimes committed in the city for which arrests had been made. The total was 1,333 against 1,235 in 1885, an total was 1,333 against 1,235 in 1885, an increase of 98; of the total number of arrests, 85 had been of boys under 16, and 134 had been females. During the year the total value of property reported stolen was $5,788.75, of which $3,102.56 had been recovered, or about 54 per cent. The report was received and placed on file.
