EVENING NEWS Monday. - January 15, 1877.

The Bennetts and Matrimony. The recent sensational adventures of the present James Gordon Bennett, proprietor of the New York Herald, have induced various papers to publish some particulars pertaining to the sensational marriage experiences of James Gordon Bennett, father of the present J. G. B., and founder and proprietor of the New York Herald, who by the by was an unmitigated by the by was an unmitigated Scotchman, with as decided a dialectic twang as most lowland Sectemmen. Here follows the Elder Bennetts' announcement of his own marriage, published in the Herald of June 1, 1840—

To the Readers of the "Herald"--Declaration of Love-Caught at Last-Going to be Married-New Movement in Civilization.

I am going to be married in a few days. The weather is so beautiful; times are getting so good; the prospects of political and moral reform so auspicious, that I cannot resist the divine instinct of honest nature any longer; so I am going to be married to one of the most splendid women in intellect, in heart, in soul, in property, in person, in soul, in property, in person, in manner, that I have yet seen in the course of my interesting pilgrimage through human life.

* * I cannot stop in my career. I must fulfil that awful destiny which the Almighty Father has written against my name, in the broad letters of life, against the wall of Heaven. I must give the world a pattern of happy wedded life, with all the charities that spring from a nuptial love. In a few days I shall be married according to the holy rites of the most holy Christian Church, to one of the most remarkable, accomplished, and beautiful young women of the age. She possesses a fortune. I sought and possesses a fortune. I sought and found a fortune — a large fortune. She has no Stonington shares or Manhattan stock, but in purity and uprightness she is worth half a million of pure coin. Can any swindling bank show as much? In good sense and elegance another half million; in mind, soul and beauty, millions on millions, equal to the whole specie of all the rotten banks in the world. Happily, the patrenage of the Herald is nearly $25,000 per annum—almost equal to a President's salary. But property in the world's goods was never my object. Fame, public good, useful-ness in my generation; the religious associations of female excellence; the progress of true industry-these have been my dreams by night, and my desires by day. In the new and holy condition into which I am about to enter, and to enter with the same reverentla feelings as I would Heaven itself, I anticipate some signal changes in my feelings, in my views, in my purposes, in my pursuits. What they may be I know not—time alone can tell. My ardent desire has been through life to reach the highest order of human excellence by the shortest possible cut. Asso-tiated, night and day, in sickness and in health, in war and in peace with a woman of this highest order of excellence, must produce some curious results in my heart and feelings, and these results the future will develop in ductime in the columns of the Herald.

Meantime, I return my heartfelt thanks for the enthusiastic patronage of the public, both of Europe and America. The holy state of wedlock will only increase my desire to be still more useful. God Almighty bless you all. JAMES GORDON BENNETT,

In a posts(21 & t), this a mounce-ment, Bennett gave notice that he should have no time to waste upon editors who attacked him, "until after marriage and the honey.

On the 8th of June, 1840, the mar-riage was announced at the head of the editorial columns of the Herald, MARRIED. On Saturday afternoon, the 6th inst., by the Rev. Dr. Power, of St. Peter's Catholic Church, in Barelay street, James Gordon Bennett, the York Herald, to Henfietta Agnes Crean. What may be the effect of this event on the great newspaper contest now waging in New York, time alone can show.

A Sure Cure for the Piles

A sure cure for the Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William (an Indian remedy), called Dr. William's Indian Ointment. Lotions, instruments and electuaries domore harm than good. Williams' ointment supports the tumors, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared exclusively for Piles, and nothing else. For certificates of cures and full directions for use, see large circular around each box. Sold by all the leading druggists and country storekeepers every-Cieveland, O., Oct. 30, 1878.

DR. FRAZIER. Dear Sir. I feel it a duty I owe to suffering humanity to write you, stating the wonderful benefit I have derived from the use of your Life Syrup and Strengthening Root Bitters. For Strengthening Root Bitters. For some time I was sorely afflicted with a cough, raising bad stuff, with every symptom of being a confirmed consumptive. I tried different medicines and cures, without finding relief, I also consulted three of our most prominent Cleveland physicians, the last one of which pronounced my case serious and informed me I could not live more than a few months. About this time, hearing of your wonderful success, I commenced taking your Life Symp for the lungs, in connection with your Root Bitters, and at once was benefitted, and after using the medicine some two months, I find myself entirely cured. If this statement of my case can be of any service to you in bringing your medicines to the notice of the suffering, my object in writing this note will be attained, for I firmly believe my life has been saved by your treatment.

Signed, Torrence Durst.
