

LIQUOR THE ROOT OF MARITAL WOE

Three Bibulous Husbands Lose Their Wives By Divorce Decrees.

JACOBSEN'S HABITS REGULAR

Spouse Says He Was Drunk Twice Each Week—Also Used His Fists on Her.

Judge Armstrong granted three divorces at yesterday afternoon's matinee, and in all three the use of liquor was the moving cause. The husband in each instance was charged with drinking, and in one of being a habitual drunkard.

Ellen Nora Jacobsen was the first applicant for severance of the matrimonial bonds. She said she had married Charles L. Jacobsen Aug. 26, 1903, and said that he had been in the habit of coming home drunk twice a week for a long time. She further alleged that in April, 1906, he ceased supporting her, and she has been compelled to work as a clerk in a store to maintain herself. Mrs. Jacobsen testified that her husband had struck her at different times, and this was enough for the judge, and the divorce was granted.

Louise E. White testified that her husband, William L. White, had been a habitual drunkard for six years past, and had been a drunkard for 15 years. The oldest boy in a family of six took the stand and bore out the story told by his mother. The young man, who is 20 years old, said on the witness stand that as long as he could remember his father had been coming home drunk. The husband is a cattle man and earns, according to the evidence, a salary of $200 per month. The plaintiff was given a divorce, the custody of the children and $75 per month alimony.

Mary E. Bartlett asked for a divorce from her husband, Edward E. Bartlett, whom she married at Carthage, Mo., Aug. 19, 1896, on the ground that he had failed to support her. She said her husband spent the money he got in gambling and drink. She asserted that he earns $200 per month as an engineer on the Rio Grande railroad. Judge Morse awarded her a divorce carrying $25 per month alimony and $75 attorneys' fees.

HEIRS PAY BIG TAX.
The inheritance tax in the estate of O. J. Salisbury was paid in full yesterday. The estate was valued at $25,739.37. The tax is valued at $4,112, which, after deductions of $12,296.21 for debts, the net valuation is $17,433.88, on which the tax according to the inheritance statute amounts to the figure given.

LARSEN FOUND GUILTY.
Veda Larsen, charged with resisting an officer and disorderly conduct at Saltair on July 4, had a hearing before Judge Anton Lundberg yesterday afternoon. The testimony went to show that Larsen was under the influence of liquor and swore on the witness stand that he was drunk. Larsen was found guilty and fined $25.

BEFORE JUDGE DIEHL.
Mudley Assembly of Offenders Lined Up in Police Court.

Negroes, Mexicans, white men and half white, drunks, petty thieves, vagrants and lighters were lined up on the mourners' bench before Judge C. B. Diehl of the criminal division of the city court this morning. There were old men, young men, mere boys and one colored woman to answer to various charges.

Pantaleon Martinez, a Mexican, declared he was not guilty of stealing a hat, a pair of shoes and a couple of shirts from J. M. Chicoen. He declared that another Mexican took the property from him, but as his story did not sound reasonable, and as Asst. City Atty. Rogers introduced evidence showing that Martinez stole the articles, the latter will make little stock out of big ones on the chain gang for the next 90 days, unless he pays a dollar per day.

Ed Turner and Henry Arnold, who did not appear to be over 20 years of age, were charged with vagrancy and pleaded guilty. They were given a chance to leave the city and if they are here Monday they will go to the city court on the rock pile. Turner is the young man who armed himself with a big revolver, a tin badge and a mysterious look, and started out to round up the Utah National bank robbers. He promised to cut out the detective business in the future and stop carrying deadly weapons.

Upton Williams admitted that he appropriated a revolver that did not belong to him, but as he was more than willing to return the weapon to its rightful owner, and extremely anxious to beat it to pasture now, he was given until 6 o'clock this evening to get out of town.

On Monday next, Loui Pens will be tried on the charge of committing a battery "without sufficient cause and without just provocation" upon one G. J. Solomon.

Thomas Ferris, a vag, admitted that he had been begging on the streets and Judge Diehl issued an order that will prevent Ferris from begging for the next 30 days.

George Baker and Thomas Sweeney were charged with fighting. Baker denied the allegation but Sweeney admitted his guilt and took the stand to explain matters. He said he got drunk and when he ran across Baker on Commercial street he struck the latter in the face and Baker was forced to defend himself. "I don't know why I struck him," said Sweeney. "I was drunk and when I saw him I simply hit him a wallop and he was forced to defend himself." Sweeney was fined $15 and Baker was discharged.

The cases of Izzie Graham and Mary Taylor, two colored women charged with vagrancy, will be tried next Thursday afternoon. The defendants are represented by Atty. Newton who stated this morning that he would probably file a demurrer in each case.

George John said he did not batter the countenance of Eddie John and he will have an opportunity to prove his

PAYS BIG JUDGMENT.
The Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company yesterday paid the judgment recently awarded to Katherine Porter in a personal injury suit, amounting to $12,000. The judgment was originally $12,000, but accrued interest and costs brought the total up to the larger sum. Miss Porter was in an accident on defendant's road at Durango, Colo., on Dec. 29, 1906, and lost an arm through having that member crushed under the car, and afterwards amputated. She sued the company for $125,000, and the case was tried in Judge Lewis' division of the Third district court. After a trial lasting two weeks, the jury brought in a verdict in favor of Miss Porter for $12,000.

KULACHIS IN COURT.
Gus Kulachis, a saloon keeper, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Dan T. Smith yesterday afternoon on the charge of threatening to murder John Anagryos. He pleaded not guilty and in default of $250 bail he was committed to the county jail. The man was arrested by Sheriff Emery.

CHESHIRE ESTATE.
In the district court the will of Cora-line P. Cheshire was admitted. John R. Cheshire, husband of deceased, and Mary V. Bachelor, sister of deceased, were named as executors, and the bond was fixed at $11,000, the value of the estate being half that amount.

GROOS' CASE UP.
In Justice Dana T. Smith's court this afternoon, J. F. Groos is having a preliminary hearing on the charge of criminal assault upon a young woman named Bessie Randaile. The case was called on this morning but was continued this afternoon.

Chin You Appointed Administrator of Affairs of Late Chin Wee.

In the probate session of Judge Armstrong's court this morning, considerable "chinning" was in evidence. The matter of appointing an administrator in the estate of Chin Wee was on the docket, and the petition of Chin You asking to be named as such was before his honor. Chin Willie acted as interpreter and Chin You was named as administrator, and his bond fixed at $4,000. The estate of the deceased Chinman consists of $1,000 cash and $1,000 interest in a Chinese mercantile house. His wife, Wo Song, lives in China, and she will receive the bulk of the estate.

Another probate matter of interest was the matter of the appointment of an administrator in the estate of Gust Demetropoulos, who died recently, leaving an estate consisting of $500 in cash. George Hasomerous, otherwise known as George Demetropoulos, was named as administrator, his bond being fixed at $1,000. George Georgias acted as interpreter in this case.

STILL BUYING REALTY.
Kelsey & Gillespie report four realty sales this week, on State street, aggregating $15,000, an interesting feature being that the purchasers were all Salt Lake people. It is claimed now that practically all of the cheap property on State street has all been gobbled up.

PREST. SMITH IN LOS ANGELES.
Word comes from Los Angeles that President Joseph Smith and party have arrived safely there, and would remain for a short visit. It is expected that they will arrive home Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

CARD OF THANKS.
The members of the family of the late Selena Cromar desire to express their gratitude to all who assisted them in the trouble that has come upon them in the illness and death of the wife and mother. They are particularly grateful to the bishop and the choir of the Twentieth ward, who assisted so willingly in the funeral services.

CONVENTION TRAVEL.
Easterers Who Were in Denver Are Now Seeing Magnificent West.

Idaho delegates reached this city today en route to their homes from the Denver convention. The Idahoans occupied car Fleetwood. A party of easterners who were delegates to the Democratic convention will reach this city tomorrow morning. These travelers decided to see the west as long as they had come as far as Denver. New Jersey delegates will arrive tomorrow morning, also, on their way to Yellowstone park. They will spend the day in this city before leaving for the national park. The New Jersey delegates are traveling in a special train, consisting of a baggage car, diner and four standard sleepers. Two sleepers full of tourists on their eastward journey, and the other two, owned by Ed Hunt, special Rio Grande agent at Butte, arrived this morning with a private car of tourists. The Rio Grande and Oregon Short Line transferred the bulk of this business at Ogden and this city.

The table having a bowl of them for a centerpiece, with vases set about the mantle and sideboard. The hostess was assisted by Miss Libbie Wells.

GERMAN GYMNASTS.

Forty Thousand to Take Part in Contests at Frankfort-on-the-Main.

Frankfort, on the Main, July 11.—Four hundred German-American gymnasts accompanied by a large number of relatives and friends, arrived here today to take part in the international gymnastic tournament and festivities that open here today and last until July 22.

No less than 40,000 gymnasts are to take part in the contests, for which a large number of prizes have been offered. The preliminary festivities and the gala banquet are to be held today. Tomorrow there will be a procession through the city. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week there will be a series of gymnastic exhibitions, while the tournament proper will be held July 20, 21 and 22. At the conclusion of the tournament, there will be a number of celebrations and excursions to points of interest.

There was an accident to an electric car here today in which Joseph Weis of Chicago, one of the visitors in connection with the gymnastic tournament, sustained serious injuries on the head. Several other passengers, all local residents, were slightly hurt.

Real Estate Day Prices.—Sacy, Perkes of the Salt Lake Real Estate association will begin this afternoon, distributing prizes in connection with the recent annual outing of the association.

Annual Camp Thursday.—The Daughters of the Mormon battalion will hold their annual encampment Thursday, July 23, at 3 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Laura Cutler, 2900 south Fifth East. Take Waterloo car.

SUN MOTOR POWER.

The most promising check on coal consumption is the substitution of other power. Naturalists tell us that coal is a reservoir of solar energy stored up in ages past. The sun motor still runs. Its rays render the globe habitable and must be made to produce power through solar engines or may be concentrated in furnaces. The sun helps to raise the tides, which some day will be harnessed, and, still more practically, it raises vapor from the sea to fall as rain.

BRONZE LAFAYETTE FOR THE LOUVRE.

The noble equestrian statue of Lafayette shown in the picture is to take the place of the one presented to France by the children of the United States, which was to have been set up in the square of the Louvre in 1900, but was not satisfactory to the sculptor, Paul W. Bartlett, who has made the new work shown herewith.

at 2:30 and get off at Third avenue, Waterloo.

Wyoming for Taft.—President J. E. Cosgriff of the Commercial National bank returned this morning from Wyoming. He says that Wyoming is sure to go Republican next November, and that prominent Democrats of that state have expressed themselves as afraid of Bryan.

Mayor from Badger State.—Mayor David Haswell of Appleton, Wis., after a party of four, and at the Wilson, after attendance on the Democratic convention at Denver. They are getting a much-needed rest and change after the fierce heat and excitement incident to the convention.

Loses His Fingers.—Reinhold Schmitz, a carpenter in the employ of the Sierra Nevada Lumber company, and who lost part of his hand at one of the saws, is reported to be doing nicely at the L. D. S. hospital. The first and second fingers were amputated, and other portions of the hand were much lacerated. The injured man lives at 734 Olive street.

Anderson Infant Dies.—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Anderson, 233 south Sixth East, will sympathize with them in the loss of their first child. The mother has had a very close call and is still in danger, but everything in jail and attention is being done for her and strong hopes are entertained for her ultimate recovery.

Conjoint Ward Outing.—Six wards of Granite stake, namely, Big Cottonwood, Miller, Mill Creek, Winder, East Mill Creek, and Wilford, had a conjoint outing at Wandamere yesterday. Between 5,000 and 6,000 persons were in attendance, and an interesting program was carried out during the afternoon and evening. The exercises consisted of horse racing, bicycling, basketball, basket ball, etc., and in the evening vocal and dancing contests. Male quartets from Wilford, Miller, Winder and Big Cottonwood competed, with the best ones winning first and second prizes, respectively.

Horses Head for Home.—A day or two ago, two valuable bay horses disappeared from a pasture southwest of the city, and for a time it was not known whether they had strayed or had been stolen. This morning a telephone message came from Fairfield that the animals were at that place. They were purchased in Cedar valley three years ago by the Church, and since that time had been stabled in the titling yard barn and used as carriage horses. The first time the animals found themselves free in the open they were taken to the yard of their former owner.

FIRE DEPARTMENT HURRIED.

The fire department was called out at 1:30 this afternoon, on a hurry-up call to Twelfth East and Second South streets. From the amount of noise made over the phone, it would seem as though that entire section of the city was in a state of commotion. The department responded to the call with every available bit of apparatus, while word was left at the police station to be ready to call on edge G. V. Powers to a fire on reaching the scene, the firemen were much disgusted to find only 50 feet square of dry grass fire, with a miscellaneous assortment of "kiddie" dogs and chickens scattered about, and the "raging conflagration" was extinguished without calling on Ogden and Provo for assistance.

COMPLAINT AGAINST PRISONER.

Man Already in Jail is Now Charged With Two More Offenses.

Two complaints were filed in Judge Diehl's court this afternoon. One contains two counts against a Thomas Roberts, now serving time in the state penitentiary. The complaint filed against the subject is for robbing a store, and uttering a forged instrument. It is asserted Roberts signed the name of G. V. Powers to a check, which he presented and cashed at the Diehl-Franklin drug store. Roberts was sent to the penitentiary some time ago for some crime committed in Provo. The crime charged in the new complaint is stated to have been committed May 20. A complaint was also filed against Arthur Hubbard, charging grand larceny and alleging that Hubbard stole $50 suit case belonging to Gideon McConall.

WHY SOME STAMMER.

Professor B. L. Payer says that stammering is very often the result of imitation, sometimes intentional, sometimes unconscious, and the affliction is much more general than might be supposed. In one comparatively small district there are thirty-five stammerers, and every one of them is able to demonstrate to his own satisfaction not only that he does not stammer very badly, but that some other person he knows stammers a great deal worse than himself.

CARDSTON, CANADA

DOMINION-CARDSTON DAYS.

Fair at Calgary—Interesting Canadian Colony News.

Special Correspondence.

Cardston, Alberta, Canada, July 2.—Yesterday was "Dominion Day"—today is "Cardston Day." Both have been fittingly observed; each, with the usual entertainment of early salutes, national colors raised, assembly where patriotic speeches, music and toasts and sentimental songs indulged, continuing through the afternoon with baseball, foot races, jumping and tug-of-war, also horse racing. Not an accident marred the two days, and to add to the pleasures, ideal weather prevailed.

Much of interest has happened in this week during the past month. M. Woolf, has resigned from the position of town constable, dog catcher and pound keeper, to assume the responsibilities of stake clerk. Samuel Jeppson now wears the star of the local peace officer. Since the last flood repair work has kept the bridge and road gang busy, so that travel and traffic has been resumed all excepting the railway. Work on the St. Marys railway bridge is rather slow, so that passengers, mail and freight are transferred by team from the east side of the river.

The Dominion fair is being held at Calgary this year, so that a great many of Cardston's citizens will have to leave tomorrow and Friday to swell the number of Americans doing honors there on the Fourth. A sleeper was chartered for the crowd, but bookings were so numerous that twice as many drove to Macleod and took chances on the regular coaches. The Cardston exhibit is certainly a most commendable one, and under the supervision of the local board of trade will be ably displayed.

Much of the winter wheat is headed out and spring grain is doing well throughout the whole district. Too much wet weather proved rather detrimental to the potato crop on low lands, but this is set-off by the increased hay crop.

Elders Archie Nielson and Brigham F. Lamb have recently returned from missions, both looking well and expecting themselves as having had a most enjoyable time while absent.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henderson, July 2, a girl.

The local Agricultural Society is making an extra effort to be permanently located and housed, so, to this end the officers are looking for a suitable piece of ground upon which to make the home. Extra endeavors are also being made to make the fair for 1908 the best yet held.

Work on the stake tabernacle is progressing nicely, considering the wet weather encountered. The basement is now being completed and makes a good showing up on the hill.

CARD-BROWN NUPTIALS.

Hugh B. Brown and wife, and Miss Zina Card, came in today, accompanied by Mrs. Zina Y. Card, and all were receiving the glad hand of friends and well wishers. Bishop J. A. Hamner, now of Logan, Utah, is also a visitor again.

President E. J. Wood and company are going Saturday to hold Sunday school conferences in the northern part of the stake and incidentally take in the fair at Calgary.
