Our Country Contemporaries.

Ogden Junction, Oct. 5—

We are happy to announce that under the skillful treatment and patient attendance of Dr. P. L. Anderson, Mr. Thomas Duce and his mother, who were so dreadfully wounded at the depot, are rapidly recovering. Mrs. Duce is able to walk around and converse, and her son can move his left arm, while hopes are entertained of a perfect cure of the right arm. This patient has endured his numerous wounds with astonishing fortitude and exemplary patience, and both have been highly fortunate in having a comfortable home and the best of attendance at the residence of their old friend, Mr. Chas. Welch.

Beaver Enterprise, Oct. 3—

We learn from a gentleman just in from Deseret, on the Sevier River, that M. M. Bishop was stabbed by a young man by the name of Beauregard on last Thursday evening. The stabbing was done with the blade of a pocket knife, and entered the breast over the lungs. Bishop's recovery was thought doubtful. Both parties formerly resided at Fillmore.

Charley Slaughter, from Rockville, Kane Co., has been selling apples and sweet potatoes to the Beaverites, grown on the Rio Virgin. The apples are as fine as we have ever seen in the Territory.

There are three day schools in operation now in this city and each appears to be in a prosperous condition.

Mr. Kenry Blackner brought to our office this p. m. three of the largest beets we have ever seen. The largest weighed 14 pounds and the other two 13 pounds each. They are the common red beet and unless we mistake their qualities are good for table use. We shall give them a trial at least.

The jury impanelled in the Wood case are as follows—Wm. Meeks, Wm. Burnison, Benj. Arthur, Jas. A. Montague, Jas. Barrett, George Hicks, Stephen S. Barton, Peter Gulo, Omner Thurley, Isaac Grundy, Watkin Rees, Edgar Clark.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Preaching, and Preparing to Emigrate.

ANOKA CITY, Minn., September 27th, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

The day before yesterday I took farewell of the Saints in the city of Princeton, after having released Elder Wm. H. Cowles and Teacher Charles M. Nokes from duty to emigrate to Utah. I ordained Bro. Joshua Judkins to the office of Elder and to preside over the branch of Farmersville, and Bro. Newell Judkins to the office of Teacher, to assist him, the branch consisting of twenty-four members. Brunswick and Isanti branches number twenty souls.

To-day, about 9 o'clock a.m., we had a meeting with Elder Erick Engren and partook of the Lord's Supper, and all bore strong and faithful testimonies to the work of God.

On Monday morning I went to the city of Minneapolis and met Brother Olson and family, who were waiting for me and ready to go to Zion. But we intend to wait for Brother Cowles. Elder Olson has made some appointments here. We will have meeting this evening. This is a large manufacturing city and lumber establishment, with its 35,000 inhabitants, and I do not know how many churches and towers towards heaven, but I shall be glad to get out of here and get to my mountain home, to the Saints of God, and help to build his kingdom, because I know that it will stand for ever and spread over the whole earth, according to the prediction of the Prophet Daniel, 2 chap., 44th verse.

The families that I have baptized of late are people that are respected and very intelligent, and the people here are at a loss what to say or think about the Swedish missionary. But I can say that God has blessed my labor and feeble effort in spreading the truth. But I find the words of the Saviour true, that "strait is the gate and narrow is the way that leadeth unto life eternal, and few there be that find it."

I enjoy good health. I have not had one hour of sickness while here on my mission, and I feel in my heart to thank God, my heavenly father, therefor. I have been traveling all the time.

Your brother in the gospel of Christ,

B. P. WULFFENSTEIN.

A Deranged Woman Chops Off Her Hand.

Yesterday morning Dr. P. L. Anderson was summoned in haste to Morgan City. On his arrival by train, accompanied by Dr. E. G. Williams, he found a singular and terrible case. An old lady, seventy-six years of age, wife of Mr. Alexander Robinson, of North Morgan, had been for some time in a deranged state of mind, and that morning had frightfully mutilated her left arm.

In conversing with Dr. Anderson she said she got out of bed at 4 o'clock that morning, being impressed to go to one of her nieces and tear her eyes out. On the way something told her she had better injure herself than another person, so she returned, and finding an old dull axe near the house, she put her arm on a block of wood, giving herself "six licks" and chopping off her hand just above the wrist! She picked up her hand and carried it to the house, laying it on the door step. She then went into the house and woke her husband, telling him what she had done and that he had better get up and put her to bed.

Blood was scattered all about the premises, presenting a fearful and sickening sight. Dr. Anderson had great difficulty in getting Mrs. Robinson under the influence of chloroform, as she understood what was intended, and fought against it desperately. The Doctor, however, succeeded in administering the chloroform, and amputated the wounded limb four inches below the elbow. Dr. Anderson used great dispatch in the operation, the age and condition of the patient making the case dangerous. In twenty-seven minutes from the administration of the chloroform [the patient was in bed with the operation concluded. Dr. E. G. Williams dressed the arm, after the amputation, with his usual quietness and skill.

The patient's family announced their intention of waiting upon her themselves, so the Doctor is relieved of any further responsibility in the case. With proper attention he believes Mrs. Robinson will recover. A close watch will have to be kept upon the unfortunate woman, or she may, in a paroxysm of insanity, tear off the bandages and bleed to death.—Ogden Junction, Oct. 5.

A man may love domestic quiet and harmony enough to keep his mouth shut while his wife's relations are in the house, but when he sees one of his fine ruffled shirts on his brother-in-law, what wonder if he feels that he must go down in the cellar and shovel coal, or burst?—Brooklyn Argus.

A city young man who read "Now is the time for husking bees," chased a bee fifteen minutes to ascertain what kind of a husk it had on. He ascertained.

"Get out, you ornithorhynchus." The man departed meekly. "Who's that?" inquired a friend of the speaker. "An ornithorhynchus." "How's that?" "Well, Webster defines him as a beast with a bill."

A boy who will yell like a Tartar if a drop of water gets on his shirt band when his neck is washed, can crawl through a sewer after a ball and think nothing of it.

S. F. Gilmore, of Escanaba, Mich., advertises a reward of $200 for his runaway wife, who took with her their little boy. The advertisement concludes—"The reward above named will be paid for the recovery of the boy—and the woman can go to thunder."

We shall make them of four, five and six quires each, holding 2,040, 2,560 and 3,090 names each, respectively, and the price will be for four quires, $12.00, five quires, $13.00, six quires, $15.00. Each book will contain a suitable Index, and be we bound in Cloth and Russia Leather with ornamental lettering pieces for name of the Ward on the side. The book being of a large size, we not think it advisable to make them over six quires.
