AN ACT

Prescribing the manner of Assessing and Collecting Territorial and County Taxes, and for other purposes.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah: That annually at its session in December, each County Court shall appoint an Assessor, who shall also be the Collector, to assess and collect Territorial and County taxes, and who shall give bonds before entering upon the duties of his office, with approved security, payable to the Territory, and County, in at least twice the amount of the taxes to be collected, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, and he shall take and subscribe an oath to the like effect, said bond shall be filed with the Probate Judge, and may be increased whenever the County Court shall deem it necessary; Provided, that the County Clerk shall deem it necessary; Provided further; that for the current year Assessors and Collectors may be appointed at any regular or special term of the County Court, and until they are so appointed and qualified, existing Assessors and Collectors are continued in office.

SEC. 2. An annual assessment shall be made on all taxable property in the several counties of the Territory, between the first day of January and the first Monday in June: Provided. that the Assessor and Collector shall assess and collect a tax upon a l taxable property brought into this Territory for sale, or offered for sale in the Territory, after the assessment list is completed, at the rates of the regular assessment for the current year. Property shall be assessed at a fair cash value.

SEC. 3. A territorial tax of one half of one per cent, on the assessed value of all taxable property in the Territory shall be collected annually, and a County tax, at a rate prescribed by the County Court, not to exceed one half of one per cent. on the assessed value of all taxable property in the county, may be collected annually in each county.

SEC. 4. As soon as the Assessor and Collector shall have filed his bonds, the County Clerk in each county shall furnish the Assessor and Collector with a suitable book, conveniently ruled throughout, and headed as follows;-
