

ALLEGED CONTEMPT OF COURT

St. V. Leclair Before Judge Marshall on a Citation Order.

Was Restrained by a Temporary Injunction. He is Said to Have Violated It—Dismissal of a Pending Case.

Judge Marshall has been engaged today taking testimony in the suit of the United States against St. V. Leclair, originally a proceeding instituted to compel the defendant from doing work on an asphalt claim in Washoe on the government reservation, a temporary injunction having been issued on the 25th of July, 1907, restraining the parties from further prosecuting the work until the trial hearing had been held. On the 4th inst. Assistant United States Attorney W. E. Matthews filed an affidavit setting forth that the defendant and others, notwithstanding the order of the court, had entered upon the land and had taken the same and claims there, and had threatened to hold the same away from their own use by force of arms.

The hearing today was on an order to show cause why St. V. Leclair should not be punished for contempt.

United States District Attorney Judd and his assistants, W. E. Matthews, and J. W. Leclair, appeared for the government and Judge Henderson and Attorney George Buchanan represented the defendant.

The hearing had not concluded at press time.

A Contingency Effort.

In the case of J. H. De La Mar against J. W. Palmer, William K. Palmer and W. K. Palmer, a settlement was effected in the United States district court today, the terms of which will be embodied in a decree to be hereafter filed. Action in the case was brought by the plaintiff to quiet title to the surrounding area of Hard Rock, which is situated in the 30th and 31st ranges of the Humboldt district. It is understood that the plaintiff and defendant have been amicably divided between the contesting parties.

Suit for a Trust Not Deficient.

The case of J. H. Miller vs. Peter Rasmussen et al. was taken up before Judge Cherry and a jury late yesterday afternoon and resumed again today. At press time the court was instructing the jury. Plaintiff brought suit to recover $1,000, alleged to be due as a deficiency from the sale of certain property under a trust deed. Plaintiff's contention was that the defendant, Dunn, assumed the obligation after the sale, but the defendant claims he did not.

Court Findings.

August Stegmeier and Annie Marie Stegmeier filed a suit in the Third district court today, against James Stegmeier and Annie Stegmeier, praying that the defendants be required to execute to plaintiffs a deed for the estate to a strip of land 12 feet wide for a roadway.

In the case of the North American Gas & Fuel company against the Salt Lake & Caden Gas & Fuel company, the court today, after a hearing, found for the plaintiff, giving the defendant summary judgment in the amount of $1,000.

Judge Hille is slightly indisposed and consequently held his court today. He has been held for a number of days and will be no more of court until Monday.

The mandamus suit of Arthur Pratt against City Attorney George Hille has been continued to Saturday, the 25th inst., and the defendant given until the 2nd of March.

In the case of J. M. Thomas vs. John H. Bailey, the court found for the plaintiff in the sum of $20.

Ben Rich Takes Politics.

Notable statement: Ben R. Rich of Bendure, a member of the office of the national executive committee, is in the city. In speaking of the action of the committee at Portland last Monday in suspending Chairman Porter's call, Mr. Rich said he would not figure on the meeting called by Mr. Porter.

A RUSH FOR SEATS.

A Stream of Applicants for Said Party Tickets.

The management of the local opera company was greatly gratified this morning at the heavy rush for seats for the party. It had been feared that the recent frost and snow would prevent a large attendance at the opera. The company was working for another week at the Grand, that the time of amusement would be satisfied, and the company is all the more gratified.
