

Great Salt Lake City Ordinances.

[No. 16.]

An Ordinance authorizing a City Police and defining the Duties of Policemen.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Great Salt Lake City, that there shall be a captain of police, who shall be appointed by the city council, and before entering upon the duties of his office shall take an oath to faithfully discharge the duties thereof.

SEC. 2. The captain of police shall have the direction and control of the police, who shall in any case of breach of ordinance arrest the person or persons, or report the same forthwith to the mayor or any alderman, and shall be under the direction of the mayor in maintaining the peace and good order of the city. He shall report quarterly, or oftener if required, in writing to the city council a true and certified account of the number of arrests and order of crimes that have come within his knowledge, and also the kind and amount of service performed by each policeman.

SEC. 3. The mayor is hereby authorized to raise a city police, and appoint any number of policemen which, in his judgment, the exigency of the times require; assign them their duties, and have power to control and direct the same.

SEC. 4. The mayor and captain of police are authorized and required to make all needful rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the ordinances of the city for the government and control of the police department.

SEC. 5. Every policeman appointed shall take an oath for the faithful performance of his duties as policeman, and shall see that the ordinances of the city are complied with; they shall also strictly watch the conduct of persons of known or suspected bad character, and report such persons to the captain of police whose duty it shall be to report to the mayor without delay.

SEC. 6. Any policeman may arrest and bring offenders before the mayor or any alderman, with or without process, and shall be subject to the orders and directions of the captain of police.

Passed March 9, 1860.

[No. 17.]

An Ordinance in relation to the Assessor and Collector, and Assessing and Collecting Taxes.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Great Salt Lake City, that the assessor and collector shall be appointed by the city council, and before entering upon the duties of his office shall be qualified and give bonds in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties thereof; which bonds shall be approved by and filed with the city recorder.

SEC. 2. The assessor and collector is hereby empowered to administer oaths, in the discharge of his official duties, and may require persons to give a statement of their taxable property under oath.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the assessor and collector to assess all property not exempt by law within the limits of the city at its fair cash value, and make returns to the city council of the same on or before the first of April 1860. And said assessor shall thereafter assess and make returns to the city council between the first of May and the first of July annually; Provided, that on merchandise the time of assessment may be extended to the first of November of each year.

SEC. 4. All goods brought into this city by transient traders shall be assessed and the tax collected when they are exposed for sale; and any person or persons, being dissatisfied with their assessment, if the same has been made after the general assessment list has been returned, may petition the city council to adjust the same.

SEC. 5. In making assessments the assessor shall provide himself with suitable books, properly ruled for such purposes at the expense of the city, and shall make his assessment list in alphabetical order; he also shall pursue that course, which in his judgment, will enable him to complete the assessment in the most uniform manner, and in the shortest time. To aid him therein, he may, when necessary, leave with any person, or at his residence, a copy of the blank form of the assessment list, with the name of the person required to fill the same, and a reasonable date thereon, at or before which it must be returned, and any person furnished with said list, must comply with the requirement.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the assessor and collector to return the assessment list on or before the second Saturday of April 1860, and annually thereafter on the first Saturday in July.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of the city council to sit on the second Saturday of April 1860, and annually thereafter on the first Saturday in July, to hear complaints (if any) and adjust the same, and to determine the assessor and collector's compensation, and also determine the rate per cent. for the current year, which shall not exceed five mills on the dollar to defray the contingent expenses of the city; not to exceed five mills on the dollar to open, improve and keep in repair the streets of the city; not to exceed one and a quarter mills on the dollar to control the waters of said city; and they shall annually apportion and apply said taxes as shall in their judgment be deemed most expedient.

SEC. 8. After the adjournment of the council, the recorder shall write upon the head of the tax list, the rate per cent. for city, road and water purposes for that year; and set each person's amount of city, road and water tax in the proper column opposite his name; he shall also furnish the assessor and collector and the supervisor of the city with a correct copy of the list, with the amount of tax for city, road and water purposes affixed to each name in their respective wards, and file the original list with the office records.

SEC. 9. The assessor and collector shall proceed to collect the amount of tax assessed for city and water purposes, together with all delinquent road taxes put into his hands by the city supervisor, also all dues for licenses put into his hands by the city recorder, and pay the amount collected into the city treasury, quarterly, or oftener if required, and take receipts for all payments, and shall, on or before the first day of December, make a full report to, and settlement of all accounts with the auditor.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the auditor to keep an account with the assessor and collector, debiting him with the amount of tax for city and other purposes and crediting him with the amount of tax paid in and the compensation allowed him for his services.

SEC. 11. The assessor and collector on receiving the tax list for collection shall furnish to each tax payer or leave at his usual place of residence a written notice of the amount of tax due from him, and any person neglecting to pay his tax for twenty days thereafter it shall be deemed a refusal. In case any person refuses to pay his tax when required the assessor and collector is authorized and empowered to take and sell in manner most advantageous for the owner, enough taxable property belonging to the delinquent, to pay his tax, and cost of collection, and if said property is to be sold at public sale, he shall give not less than ten days notice of the time, place and kind of property.

SEC. 12. All taxes and assessments, general or special, levied or assessed by the city council under this ordinance shall be a lien upon the real estate upon which the same may be imposed, voted or assessed, for two years from and after the corrected assessment roll shall have been confirmed; and on personal estate from and after the delivery of the tax list for the collection thereof, and no sale or transfer shall affect the lien.

SEC. 13. The assessor and collector is required and empowered to collect taxes at the rate of the previous year from any person he presumes will remove from the city before the regular time for collection, and to assess any person or property, omitted during the time for assessments, and must report his doings under this section, in the same manner as though done within the regular time.

[No. 18.]

An Ordinance in relation to Common Schools in Great Salt Lake City.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Great Salt Lake City, that said city be, and is hereby divided into school districts, corresponding in number and boundary with the several bishops' wards.

SEC. 2. The bishops of the several school districts are hereby authorized to call a meeting of the members of their respective districts, at which meeting there shall be elected three trustees for each district, whose term of office shall be during the pleasure of the people; said trustees may appoint their own clerk; and they are hereby authorized and required to call meetings of all legal voters and tax payers in their districts, for the purpose of allowing the voters to determine the nature and extent of the improvements for school purposes, and the amount of tax to be assessed and collected, which shall be governed by the votes of the majority; and either of said trustees are empowered to call a meeting for the purpose of filling any vacancy that may occur in their number by removal or resignation.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the trustees to employ teachers and superintend the schools in their respective districts; and they shall take and subscribe an oath for the faithful performance of their duty, to be filed in the office of the city recorder.

SEC. 4. The trustees of the several districts shall make an annual report to the city council, of the average number of scholars who have attended school during the past year, the amount of improvements, buildings and repairs for said schools, and the tax collected and expended thereon; and in case either of said trustees fail to perform their official duties, the tax payers of said district may enter a complaint to the city council against said trustees.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, that there shall be a board of inspectors appointed by the city council for the several districts of the city, consisting of three competent persons, whose duty it shall be to hear and determine the qualifications of school teachers. All applicants of a good moral character, that are considered competent, shall receive a certificate to that effect, signed by either member of the board.

[No. 22.]

An Ordinance regulating the Manufacture and Sale of Spirituous and Fermented Liquors.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Great Salt Lake City, that any person or persons manufacturing, selling or vending spirituous or fermented liquors within the limits of said city, shall be required to obtain a quarterly license, subject to renewal monthly, for which he shall pay into the city treasury, in advance, a sum of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred and fifty dollars per month.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons so licensed who shall be found selling or otherwise disposing of spirituous or fermented liquors upon the Sabbath day, shall be liable to forfeit his license and pay a fine into the city treasury not to exceed one hundred dollars.

SEC. 3. Any person, within the limits of this city, who shall be found selling or giving spirituous or malt liquors to any Indian, shall be liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not to exceed thirty days, or both fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 4. All persons so licensed shall institute such regulations in their houses as shall restrain drunkenness, riotous or disorderly conduct, and shall keep a cleanly, well regulated and respectable establishment, which shall not be open for the sale of liquors between the hours of ten o'clock at night and four o'clock in the morning; and any person so licensed, who shall permit drunkenness, riotous or disorderly conduct on his premises, shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars for each offence.

SEC. 5. Licenses granted to merchants for the sale of spirituous liquors shall not authorize the sale thereof in less quantity than one gallon, except such as are imported in bottles; and in no case to be drunk upon the premises. Apothecaries having license to sell spirituous liquors may sell in any quantity for medicinal purposes.

SEC. 6. Any person neglecting or refusing to comply with the requirements of this ordinance, for the violation of which the penalty is not otherwise provided, shall be liable to pay a fine in any sum not less than ten, nor exceeding one hundred dollars.

Passed March 12, 1860.

A. O. SMOOT, Mayor.
ROBERT CAMPBELL, Recorder.

[No. 23.]

An Ordinance in relation to the Inspection and Sale of Liquors.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Great Salt Lake City, that all persons importing or vending spirituous liquors within the limits of this city are hereby required to have them inspected by the city inspector of liquors, previous to said liquors being offered for sale.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of said inspector of liquors to inspect all liquors that may be offered for sale, according to the proof standard of Syke's hydrometer, and mark upon the barrel or vessel, containing said liquors, the name and strength of such liquors, and the date of the inspection with his signature. Any person or persons who shall offer for sale liquors under fifteen below proof, shall be liable to forfeit the same to the city, unless sold as below the marked standard proof set forth in this section, and at such reduced price as the reduced strength shall warrant.

SEC. 3. The city inspector of liquors shall be required to gauge all casks containing liquors when called upon so to do.

SEC. 4. That the inspector shall be entitled to the following fees, viz.:

For a single inspection of any cask or vessel of liquor	$1.00
For over one cask and not exceeding ten, each	50
For all over ten casks in the same lot	25
For gauging a single cask	100
For gauging a lot of five casks or less over one, each	50
For all over five casks in the same lot	25

SEC. 5. All liquors offered for sale within this city shall be liable to inspection at any time; Provided, the owner thereof shall not be liable to pay for but one inspection of the same lot of liquors. Any person who shall alter, or change, or deface the inspector's marks made on any barrel, cask or other vessel containing liquors so inspected and offered for sale, shall be liable for each offence to a fine in any sum not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, at the discretion of the court having jurisdiction.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the city inspector of liquors to report annually, the quantity, kinds and strength of liquors inspected by him, and the persons offering said liquors for sale during the year.

SEC. 7. It shall further be the duty of the inspector to report forthwith to the mayor or any alderman all liquors which he may find adulterated or changed from the proof marked on said cask or vessel.

SEC. 8. The said inspector shall before entering upon the duties of his office take an oath and give bonds in the penal sum of $500, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, which said bonds shall be approved by and filed with the city recorder.

SEC. 9. Any person neglecting or refusing to comply with any portion of this ordinance shall be liable to a fine of not less than five, nor more than one hundred dollars for each offence.

Passed March 12, 1860.

A. O. SMOOT, Mayor.
ROBERT CAMPBELL, Recorder.

[No. 24.]

An Ordinance relating to Licenses.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Great Salt Lake City, that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to establish or keep within the limits of said city any store, shop, market or stand for the purpose of buying, selling or exchanging merchandise, goods, drugs or provisions, nor to engage in the business of brokerage, pawn or otherwise; of peddling or hawking goods of any description, fruit or provisions; nor to keep any tavern, grocery, dram or tipping shop, boarding or eating house, ordinary, coffee house, restaurant, or any other place of public entertainment; nor conduct or manage any theatre, or other exhibition, show or amusement, without first obtaining from the city council a license therefor.

SEC. 2. No license granted by said council shall be for a longer term than one year; nor shall any such license be assignable, transferable, or authorize any person or persons to do business or act under it but the person or persons named therein; nor at more than one place. The city council may upon granting such license determine the time for which it shall be given and the amount to be paid thereon, and may require bonds for the due observance of the ordinances and regulations of the city.

SEC. 3. The city recorder shall make out and sign all licenses granted by the city council, and all grants and licenses emanating from said council shall receive the seal of the corporation, for which the city recorder shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar each, and the person or persons to whom such licenses may be granted shall, upon receiving the same, pay the amount required therefor into the hands of said recorder.

SEC. 4. Any person who shall violate, neglect or refuse to conform to, and observe any or either of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable and subject to pay a fine of not less than two, nor more than one hundred dollars for each offence.

SEC. 5. Nothing in this ordinance shall be so construed as to interfere with licenses already granted, or prohibit farmers from selling their own produce within said city.

Passed March 12, 1860.
