OBITUARY.

Dennison Lot Harris, son of Emer Harris and Deborah Lot, born at Windom, Luzerne County, Penn., January 17, 1825, died at his residence in Monroe, Sevier Co., Utah, June 6, 1885, aged 60 years, 4 months and 20 days, of pneumonia, passing away peacefully in the presence of his family.

He gathered with his father to Kirtland in 1831, joined the Church in his early youth and suffered in the mobbings and persecutions in Missouri.

When in his 19th year he and Robert Scott passed through a very trying ordeal at the conspiracy of Nauvoo, a full account of which is found in the April number of Vol. 5 of the Contributor.

Even though young, he was an intimate friend of the Prophet Joseph, and took an active part as scout and express rider during the mobbings and drivings of the Saints at Nauvoo. He left Nauvoo three days before the final battle and journeyed several hundred miles westward, preparing the way for the final exodus of the Saints, and returned to Nauvoo to assist his father to move, and thence went to Missouri, where he remained till 1852, at which time he migrated to Utah, and located in Springville.

In the year 1854 he and other nine brethren were called upon to visit the Navajo Indians, which mission was one of extreme peril, and in which the power of the Lord was constantly manifest.

He served in the Echo Cañon campaign in 1857-8, and also went back with provisions to meet the hand-cart companies at three different times.

After residing in various settlements he was called from Willard City, Box Elder County, in the year 1862, to live in Dixie, where he remained over five years, until broken down in health. He then removed to Paragonah, where he resided until 1871, at which time he removed to Monroe, Sevier County. Here he was set apart to the office of Bishop, July 17, 1877, under the hands of Apostle Erastus Snow, which position he honorably and faithfully filled until his demise.

The funeral services were held in the New Meeting House, which was draped in mourning for the occasion. About one thousand people assembled to pay their respects to the departed.

The speakers, Wm. H. Seegmiller, of the State Presidency; Geo. W. Bean, J. Sylvester, Jas. Butler, F. A. Perkins, Abm. Washburn, Jas. Farmer, A. Larsen, C. P. Christensen and Thos. Cooper, all bore testimony to his excellent qualities, his true integrity, his excellence of character, his brotherly love, his unwavering faith, his readiness at all times to give counsel, his many fatherly traits of character, and the honorable and praiseworthy family left to perpetuate his name.

Twenty-three vehicles followed his remains to his grave. His wives, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and numerous other relatives and friends deeply mourn his departure, yet hope to meet him in Celestial glory in the world to come.

WM. A. WARNOCK.

SUMMONS.

In the Probate Court in and for Salt Lake County, Utah Territory.

Nora J. Cave, Plaintiff, vs. Frederick Cave, Defendant.

The People of the Territory of Utah send Greeting:

To Frederick Cave, Defendant.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named plaintiff in the Probate Court, of the County of Salt Lake, Territory of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of summons-if served within this county; or, if served out of this county, but in this district, within twenty days; otherwise within forty days.

The said action is brought to obtain a decree from this court dissolving the marriage contract existing between said plaintiff and you, on the ground of willful neglect of defendant to provide plaintiff, his wife, and children the common necessities of life for more than one year last past, and for the care, custody and control of their minor children. And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to this court for the relief prayed for and cost of suit.

Witness, the Hon. Elias A. Smith, Judge, and the seal of the Probate Court of Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah, this 12th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

JOHN C. CUTLER, SEAL Clerk.
