

on the question of insanity. A large part of the evidence will be in the shape of the depositions of persons who have known Guiteau. Scoville states, that he will have the outside assistance of some of the best legal talent in the country, and is eager for the opening of the prosecution. Col. Corkhill said to-night, Scoville wanted Guiteau arraigned to-morrow, but he refused the request.

DES MOINES, 13.—The State Register has full returns from sixty-nine of the ninety-nine counties of the State which give Sherman, republican, for Governor, over the democrats, a net majority of 34,500. Partial returns from the remaining counties indicate that his total majority will be between 48,000 and 50,000 over the democrats. The democrats concede 40,000. The Register's returns on the legislature give the republicans forty-four of the fifty Senators and seventy-eight of the 100 representatives. The republicans gain a Senator in each of the counties of Dubuque, Wapello, Lee and Keokuk, and lose one Representative in Scott, two in Des Moines, two in Clinton, one in Harrison and one in Chickasaw, and a gain of one in Wipatu, one in Appanoost, one in Lee and one in Keokuk. In Pottawattamie county the republicans elect one Representative and one (Claton) is in doubt.

The greenback vote in the State has fallen off fifty per cent. since last year.

SAN FRANCISCO, 13.—At 3.20 this afternoon, a fire broke out in Up-town's blacksmith shop, on Spear between Mission and Howard Streets, and almost instantly communicating with the California Planing Mill, corner of Howard. This building, covering 50 Vera lots and filled with most combustible material, was in a few moments a mass of fire. A half gale was blowing from the northwest and the flames soon leaped across Spear Street and attacked Wigmor's lumber yard, spreading to a saloon on the corner and thence down Howard Street, nearly to Stewart, consuming a number of small establishments, including Green's rigging lot, Chase & Wright's ship carpenter shop and Richard's coal yard, Does & Weston's lumber yard, on the opposite side of Howard Street, were several times on fire, but extinguished with slight damage. The Union box factory, north of where the fire started, suffered some loss of lumber lying outside. Loss on California mill owned by W. J. Adams, about $60,000. Wigmor's loss is about the same; insured for $26,000. Other losses will probably bring the aggregate up to $150,000.

Another dispatch says: The Spear Street fire is still burning, but the flames are confined to the limits previously given. It is now stated that the loss on the California mill will reach at least $100,000. After the fire was partly subdued, two bodies, charred beyond recognition, were found in the rear of the building in which the fire started. It is more than probable that they were workmen in the California mill. About 90 men were employed in the mill, and so rapid was the spread of the flames that many escaped with difficulty.

The canning establishment of Code & Elfelt, fronting on Main Street, was somewhat damaged in the rear and it is probable that fuller information will sum up the loss to nearly $250,000 with but light insurance.

It is the opinion of old residents on the Arizona frontier that the hostiles will now scatter some making their way back to the agency, others settling in Mexico, whence they will seek to raid cattle ranches on this side of the line. They express the belief that the Indian scouts have been untrustworthy throughout the recent campaign, giving information to the hostiles and putting the troops on false trails.

A number of Tucson citizens, principally business men, held a meeting last night and endorsed the action of General Wilcox and the conduct of the troops, holding that no previous outbreak had been suppressed with so little loss of life and property.

Leopold Zamora, Mexican Superintendent of Public works, has telegraphed to the Mexican government strongly recommending the construction of the Guaymas railroad via Magdalena to Santa Cruz River, to connect a that point with the Arizona Southern from Tucson.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—Charles H. Landerberger's mill, owned by Joseph Harney, 1711 Randolph street, was burned to-night. The fire broke out about 9:45. The neighbors rushed to the building and saw the operatives at the windows on the third and fourth floors. They called to the girls not to jump, as a ladder would be brought, but several of the girls sprang from the windows. The shrieks of the people in the building where escape was cut off were heartrending. Most of them jumped to the sidewalks, and a few escaped by the elevator rope. It is believed that one-half of those injured will die. At least twenty persons were injured. One girl is reported killed outright by striking on the steps. Some of the operatives, it is thought are buried in the ruins. The fire, it is supposed, originated from sparks from the electric light firing a lot of material on the second floor.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—At the evening session of the Distillers' Convention the following officers were elected: H. Shuffelt, President; J. Sinnott, Vice President; D. G. Rush, Secretary; E. Stephens, Treasurer.

Resolution were adopted that Congress be asked to reduce the tax on domestic spirits to fifty cents per proof gallon from Oct. 1st, 1882; to reduce the duty on imported spirits to $1.50 per proof gallon provided the French government puts the United States on a footing with the most favored nations in regard to the duty imposed on American spirits imported into France, and an indefinite extending of the bonding period for both domestic and imported spirits, and that a tax be paid on the quantities withdrawn from the bond, subject to such limitations as may be agreed upon after consultation with Secretary of the Treasury.

NEW YORK, 13.—The Herald's Warsaw, N. Y., special says: Volney Warren was informed to-night by a special messenger that Jonathan White, of California, his bachelor great uncle, had died intestate, leaving an estate valued at $700,000, of which his share would be one-sixth, and that he should take the usual legal action to secure said share. There are 24 heirs. Warren's avocation has been that of farming on shares and horse trading. His deceased uncle was 59 years old and amassed his fortune washing gold dust.

The Herald's Fort Keogh (Montana) correspondent says: New and valuable silver mines have been discovered on the head of Clark's Fork, a tributary of the Yellowstone river. The mines are located near the National Park, on the Crow Indian reservation. There is little doubt but that another great silver bonanza has been struck.

ALBANY, 13.—The Democratic State Committee organized, with Manning, of Albany, as chairman. Ex-Mayor Cooper, of New York, was chosen chairman of the executive committee. The headquarters of the committee for the campaign will Albany.

ALBANY, 13.—The State anti-monopoly committee took action to-day, looking to the return to the legislature of only such candidates as favor the triumph of their principles.

The Tammany delegates to the State convention have issued an address to the democrats of the State, declaring that in their exclusion a great wrong had been done.

LOUISVILLE, 13.—Detective Bauer, of the United States detective service, arrived in the city with Wm. L. Tagler, of Humphreys County, Tenn., Newton H. McRea, of Benton, and J. D. Laffel, of Humphreys County, charged with counterfeiting coins. Bauer and associates have been long at work on the case.

COLUMBUS, 13.—Returns to-night indicate the election of 20 republicans and 13 democratic senators. Two districts, included in the above, are still in doubt, one being claimed by the republicans and the other conceded to the democrats.

It is thought the republicans will have from 30 to 35 majority in the House. Should official figures verify the above, the republicans will have a larger majority in both branches of the General Assembly than they had in the last body.

Foster believes that his majority will reach 20,000. It is believed that Hall, republican, is elected senator from the Miami Dark district, which will give the republicans a majority in the Senate.

CHARLESTON, D. C., 13.—Jack Williams, a negro convicted at Orangeburg, South Carolina, on Saturday, for an outrage upon a white girl aged 10, was taken from jail, about 2 this morning and hanged.

WASHINGTON, 14.—The Executive Committee having in charge the erection of a National and International Garfield Memorial Hospital in Washington, met this evening, General Sherman presiding, all members present. Secretary Blaine submitted the following appeal, and it was unanimously adopted:

The citizens of Washington and officials having residence here have united in a movement to do marked and enduring honor to the name of the late President, whose great life was sadly and so tragically ended. His reputation as a statesman, legislator and executive was acquired in the Capitol. Beyond his claims to admiration and gratitude, he was beloved by all classes of citizens in a degree that rarely falls to the lot of any public man. Reflecting his own wishes so far as they may be inferred from his career and his character, thus designated, is that of a national hospital, to be located in the District of Columbia, to be known forever by his name. It will be a place for the relief of human suffering, from the cup of which he drank the bitterest dregs and in which the offering of human charity it will fitly represent the nature and exalted aims of the hero and martyr. The hospital is designed to be as wide in its scope of beneficence as was the great mind of Garfield.

This institution will be open to those needing its aid and ministrations without regard to class, creed or color. To be a sufferer in need of help will be necessary for a person required to enter into its doors and secure its aid. Such it is founded in the cause of charity and bearing the name of "Garfield," appeals to the generosity of everyone, and to every one an appeal is made. Contributions small and great are solicited, and may be safely remitted to J. S. Fillan, Treasurer of the United States, who has consented to act as treasurer of the fund. Let the response be great and universal.

The republican senators questioned in regard to the future action of David Davis, profess to have no knowledge of how he will vote on secretary and sergeant-at-arms. If any such knowledge exists, it is confined to those who were the very earliest in bringing about the election. The republican senators, without exception, repudiate the assertion that there was any bargain as to the future and say that ousting Bayard was done to remove, as much as possible, the danger of Arthur's being a partisan advantage to any one. It is thought that a move will be made to-morrow to elect a secretary.

The democrats have not had any intentions of contending committees with Davis. The republicans can take the entire organization of the Senate and some are in favor of electing republicans to fill all the offices. One source of trouble is the unwillingness of Davis to vote for either Gorham or Riddleberger, republican nominees for secretary and sergeant-at-arms. Davis has said, in the last few days, he would not vote for either of these men. The republicans do not know how to get rid of Gorham and Riddleberger. If they could, and select candidates preferable to Davis, it is believed he would vote for the entire republican organization.

If the amount of 3 1/2's received for payment does not reach $5,000,000 by the hour of closing the Treasury Department on Monday, bonds sufficient to make up the deficiency will be accepted for redemption in order for subsequent receipt.

The Department of State is informed that the expected deficit of the wheat crop in France will be 5,000,000 bushels, which must be supplied mainly from the United States. The crop of the neighboring countries is far from what was anticipated. The wheat crop of Algeria is in a deplorable condition.

NEW YORK, 14.—As the Herder with the Yorktown German guests steamed up the bay, a salute was fired from the Kear-arge and from the forts in the harbor. The freedom of the city was tendered to the visitors.

The distinguished German guests were entertained to-night at a banquet by representatives of the government charged with their reception. Subsequently at the Everett House, German societies gave the guests a reception. Carl Schurz and other representative American citizens made addresses. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the party proceeded to the grand stand on the Plaza to review the procession, which was crowded with some 20,000 people, who cheered the visitors as they appeared. Addresses were delivered by Mayor Grace and Daniel Sickles, and the band played martial and national anthems, after which the guests were driven to the Pennsylvania depot and took the train for Washington.

John Kelly at a meeting at Tammany hall, to-night, declared that although they were rejected and to some extent humiliated, they were determined to bow to the decision of the convention and would give the State ticket their entire support.

The Irving Hall democracy demonstrated the rejection of their delegates by the State Convention as a spirit dictated of injustice and fraud. Tammany announced the arrest of Parnell.

A cable special from Dublin says: Parnell was arrested here to-day at Morrison's Hotel, previous to starting for the Kildare convention. Inspector Wallin, called this morning and sent up word to Parnell, who was still in bed, that he would be glad to see him. The hotel porter returned word that he would be happy to see the inspector as soon as he was dressed. He soon after sent for Malone, who, with Detective Sheridan, went up stairs. Parnell met him pleasantly, and asked: "Do you intend to arrest me?" "Yes," replied Malone, handing him the warrant, still wet with Forster's signature, for the chief justice had just returned from London by the morning mail at 8 o'clock. Parnell then glanced over the warrant and said, "all right." He put on his hat and walked down stairs with the two policemen. A cab was waiting, and the three entered. "Kilmainham prison," cried Malone to the driver, and they drove off. There were four other policemen in citizen's clothes in another carriage. On arriving at Kilmainham, Parnell was at once assigned to a cell. There was no demonstration, as no one knew of the arrest except the parties concerned.

BRADFORD, Pa., 14.—A magazine containing 300 pounds of nitro-glycerine, belonging to the Roberts' Torpedo Company, exploded to-night with terrible force, in the western part of the city. Two men were seen going towards it shortly before, and it is thought they were tampering with the lock when the explosion occurred. A careful search to-night failed to disclose anything of the men or the iron safe.

CLEVELAND, 14.—The Garfield monument committee, in reply to inquiries, says: The estimated cost of the proposed monument at Lakeview Cemetery will not be less than $200,000. The committee believe from information received, that the amount can be raised in three weeks. Cleveland is expected to give $50,000. The city will be thoroughly canvassed, and an early and generous response is expected. The Garfield monumental committee presented a letter from Governor Crittenden, of Missouri, accepting the trust as general manager of the monument in Missouri. The monumental fund is now $9,142.

SAN FRANCISCO, 14.—A special to the Tucson Citizen from San Carlos County to-day, says there were 3,049 or five more Indians than last week, showing that there have been no desertions for the war path.

The telegraph operator at Lordsburg, New Mexico, this afternoon, says: A man named Batchelder, just in from Gila, reports having a fight with Indians in Stein Peak range, about 12 miles north of the railroad. One man was killed and four missing. They were looking for stolen stock when fired upon, and Batchelder came into Shakespear for assistance.

NEW ORLEANS, 14.—In a shooting affray between Chief of Detectives Thomas Devereux and Detective Mike Hennessey, both men were badly wounded. Devereux is reported dead. It is believed Hennessey cannot recover.

FOREIGN.

DUBLIN, 12.—A conference of the Irish liberals is arranging to be held here for the purpose of considering the best means of supporting the government in carrying out the land act and obtaining obedience to law. In view of Gladstone's appeal for support the loyal Irishmen of the land league of the County of Meath resolved not to permit hunting this season. It will be remembered that the Empress of Austria has intended to hunt in the county this winter.

LONDON, 11.—Foxhall will have to carry 126 pounds in the race for the Cambridgeshire stakes. The jockey, McDonald, who rode Foxhall yesterday received £2,000 for winning the race.

TUNIS, 12.—Two more railway stations have been burned. The letters of independent correspondents confirm the statement that what has really delayed the advance on Kairwan is the fact of an arrangement by which Ali Bey's troops were to protect the railway and preserve order in the north, while the French chastized the rebels in the southern part.

PARIS, 12.—Gambetta returned to this city and went at once to his country seat. Special dispatches report the belief he visited Bismarck while in Germany.

LISBON, 12.—The British steamer Corsica, from London to Bombay, foundered off Cape Roca. Part of the crew were drowned.

LONDON, 13.—The Times says: It is understood that the cabinet separated yesterday without coming to any decision in regard to the course to be pursued in Ireland, but that the cabinet will meet again soon and a decision cannot be long postponed. There are, no doubt, two parties in the cabinet, as there were a year ago, but the ministers who still hesitate to take a decided course may be invited seriously to reflect that the impatience of the country grows daily at the continued special authority in Ireland flouted and law defied.

DUBLIN, 13.—The Marquis of Waterford, in resigning the mastership of the Curraghmoor hounds, said he did so because the league had been organized to prevent hunting throughout Ireland. When he was out hunting last Thursday the chapel bells rang, the people gathered and stoned him and his friends. They pelted the dogs and stabbed several of them with pitchforks, and yelled till they urged the party to go home. Curraghmoor's are the finest pack of hounds in Ireland. The Empress of Austria was to have hunted with them this season. Between five and seven thousand pounds will be lost to the neighborhood by the breaking up of the pack.

In Kildare the league has given notice that if either the Marquis of Droghda, Earl of Mayo, Lord Clancarty, Mr. John Latauche or Mr. William Blacker appear in the Huntington Field hunt they will be stopped. The above-named gentlemen are the principal land owners in the county, and have constantly resided on their estates.

Parnell was arrested on two warrants signed by Forster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, charging him with inciting the people, intimidating others from paying their just rent, and with intimidating tenants from taking the benefit of the land act. Parnell was taken to Killmair jail.

BERLIN, 13.—Germany and Austria have agreed to fresh proposals made by Russia in regard to the extradition of political criminals.

ROME, 13.—It is stated on good authority that negotiations have been resumed for an interview between King Humbert and Emperor Francis Joseph.

The insurgents attacked a strong French force near Sersa. The French suffered some loss. Despite the large French force near Sersa the insurgents captured many cattle close to town and pillaged several adjacent villages.

Ali Bey was again attacked on the evening of the 10th inst. The enemy was repulsed with heavy loss on both sides.

It is rumored that Count Walyiff, resident commissioner minister, has been suspended for alleged financial irregularities.

DUBLIN, 13.—Parnell was arrested in bed this morning and immediately locked in Kilmainham jail. Ireland is in a ferment. Dublin is in a state of terrible excitement. The city is an armed camp, showing that this has been premeditated and prepared for action. No event in the history of Ireland has so tried Dublin, and the only parallel is Paris' destruction of the Bastille.

Noon.—The condition of things at this hour is awful. The wave of indignation gathers force as the moments fly and there is no telling when it may break or what the consequences. The Land League executive is at this moment setting with John Dillon in the chair, the worst is being prepared for. It is rumored that government will take military possession of the Land League headquarters and proceed to the utmost extremity by brute force to repress the organization. Calm, but deliberate and decisive action can be looked for from the men at the head. If the men in America will stand firmly by us there need be no fears of the ultimate result.

(Signed) JOSEPH P. QUINN, Secretary Land League
