AUGUST 21, 1874.

WASHINGON NOTES.

From the Washington Star, August 7—

The New York Herald is not alone in its anxiety about a third term for General Grant. Two southern gentlemen now in this city, who resided in different States, and of different political associations, both of whom are well known socially and politically, are of the opinion that, after the next election of names, all to be taken together, to wit:—That Grant will be a candidate for the Presidency in 1876; and Gen. Grant will be the nominated candidate for the Presidency in 1876; and that if a candidate Gen. Grant will be elected President in 1876.

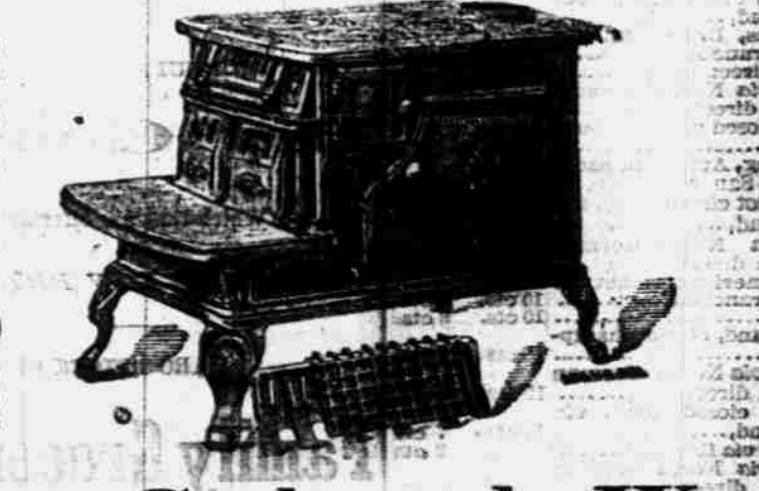

Lieutenant Colonel Davidson, 10th cavalry, has forwarded to the general of the army the report of a talk with Asahel and Asaing, of the Penne-tsch-ka band of Comanches, which is interesting as showing the cause of the present hostility of the Comanches and other tribes. After some conversation, in which they inquired as to how they were to be treated, Colonel Davidson asked the Indians what the Comanches had to complain of? What were the causes of this general hostility on the part of the Comanches? They replied that the Comanches had nothing to complain of on the part of the government agents, or troops, or whites, but that some two months ago a prophet arose among them who taught that they had been betrayed by the Great Spirit, who said that the Comanches, Whitehairs and other Indians who were adopting the mode of life of the whites were going down hill fast in means and population, and the Comanches would do the same if they followed the same road, and warned them that their only safety was to go to war and kill off all the white people they could. This, these two chiefs said, chimed in with the feelings and wishes of the evil-disposed of the nation, and the present war is the result.

CONGRESSIONAL LAND GRANTS.—General Williams decides firmly that the operations of conditions subsequent in Congressional grants of public lands does not depend upon the rules of the common law applicable to such conditions, but upon the intention of Congress, as gathered from the language employed in the grants. Securing that the amount of lands made by Congress to the State of Wisconsin by act June, 1856, to aid in construction of certain railroads, in which it was provided "that if said roads are not completed within ten years no further sales shall be made, and the lands be sold to the highest bidder in the United States," is determined as to the lands unsold at the time by the failure to complete the roads, as specified in the act, and that no Congressional action or judicial proceedings are necessary, but that such unsold lands will be united to the public domain by the publication of an order by the Secretary of the Interior requiring them to set-tement and market.

Hard Times in New York.

A WIDOW'S STORY.

A gentleman, a member of the firm of Wilcox & Gibbs, met a lady volunteer visitor to the hospital room, who told him of her misfortunes. She stowed upon a Coal Cooking Stove than to say that every housekeeper who used it was pleased with its economy and reliability in all its operations.
