DESERETEVENING NEWS GEORGE Q. CANNON. EDITOR AND PUBLISHER, . November 5, 1868 Thursday,

THE COMING GENERAL ELEC-TION IN GREAT BRITAIN.

THE Presidential election is now over. It has been anticipated by the whole nation with intense interest. Since the foundation of the Republic the excitement and interest in relation to any public event never ran higher. But it is over, and so far as heard from, peace has been general. There has never been an occurrence of a similar nature, when peace and good order were more general. This is owing in a great part to the prompt and vigorous measures adopted by the conservators of the public peace in every direction, but it speaks well for the people generally.

An event of almost as much interest and importance is close at hand among our trans-Atlantic cousins. Our telegrams of this morning announce the official programme that has been decid- Hartford.—The full vote in Connectied upon in relation to the coming dissolution of Parliament and General Election. The present Parliament is to be dissolved on the 11th inst., and in five days after the elections are to commence.

Great excitement may be looked for in the com ing contest in Great Britsin. It is probable that quiet and good order will not be so general there during its progress as they have been here. Great issues are at stake. The Liberals and Tories will marshal all their forces for the field. The dis-establishment of the Protestant Church in Ireland, which the Liberals seem determined to effect, is the great problem to be solved in the coming election. There is scarcely a doubt that the new House of Commons will have a large Liberal majority. This will be followed by the resignation of the present Tory ministry, and the al-most certain inauguration of Gladatone as Premier. Then good bys to Episco-palianism in Ireland, at least in its pre-sent odious and obnoxious form. The will be followed by the resignation of Roman Catholic portion of the people of Ireland will be relieved from the injustice of being compelled to contribute to the support of a priesthood and form of worship in which they do not believe, and which they hate mest intensely. This state of things effected in Ireland. and similar results may be looked for in England. The people of the latter country, the majority of whom are Dissenters, like the imposition no better than the people of the sister isle, and once the inter are free from it, the former will not long submit to it. This movement for the disendowment of the Irish Church is certainly drifting to that fearful bugbear of the Episcopal Hierarchy, the separation of Church and State. The Tories, and the enormously overpaid prelates of the land, are painfully alive to this fact, and hence, during the coming General Election we may expect to hear of the most exciting times, probably ever witnessed during an event of a similar nature for many years, or perhaps ever witnessed in Great Britain. The triumph of the Liberal party in this contest, for which every possible effort will be made, will almost give the death blow to Conservatism in that nation, and will open wide the floodgates to Liberalism. Many have earnestly labored for years for the accomplishment of this point; but it is very doubtful whether such a consummation would result in any permanent advantage to the people of England. It may greatly increase the people's power. But though Conservatism may have deprived the middle and laboring classes of many seeming advantages, it has been a great source of benefit to the country. It has given solidity and permanency to many of the nation's most valuable institutions; and once swept away, and all power in the hands of the people, they will very likely find that law and order and that stability in all their institutions, for which the Eaglish nation has long been celebrated, will begin to decline, for the people of that empire are no more able, nor better qualified, for self government than the people generally of other nations.

that Grant's majority in Indiana is not less than 10,000, and will perhaps reach 12,000. The Republican majority in Iowa is estimated at 50,000. The negro suffrage amendment was carried by 25,000. The Missouri returns are incomplete, but Grant probably carries the State by about 12,000. Wisconsin gives 18,000 majority for Grant. The 8,000 majority for Grant. The Illinois goes 40,000 to 50,000 Republican. The Congressional delegation is the Benn, Randblican ballar defected of Reput, Republican, being defeated in the 13th district. In Florida the legislature chose the electors, and the vote stood 40 Republicans to 9 Demo-cratic. South Carolina is undoubtedly Republican. In New Jersey great frauds have been perpetrated in some places, and the Republicans will contest the election. In Tennesses, Left which a election. In Tennemee, Left which, a Democrat, will probably be elected to Congress from the Memphis district; the others are all Republican. Grant carries the State by a reduced majority,

New York .- The Post charges enermous frauds upon the Tammany lead-ers, and estimates that twenty-five cut is, for Grant 49,728, for Seymour States.

New York. - Senator Morgan and Representative Schenck publish a card, stating that in their opinion no public exigency requires the attendance of a quorum of the members of Congress on the 10th inst.

Savannah. — The city is perfectly quiet. Two policemen were shot yes-terday by negroes; one is dead and the other dying. The negroes on the Ogee-chee road are reported to be arming and gathering in large numbers with the design of entering the city under the lead of Bradley, an armed patrol on duty, to-night. The Democratic majority in this city is over 4,000. Memphis.—Little has been received from Arkansas about the election, but as far as heard from no disturbance oc-

New York, 3.-The Democrat's Madrid special says news from Alicanti, Carthagena, Barcelona, Seville, and Cadis, announce that most of the shore and manufactories in those cities have been closed, and the working men deprived of their labor, are becoming restless and boisterous, and the fear of a general riot throughout the country to the Prov causes great unca reals, opened for the working men, has not been entirely subscribed. The social question assumes here the same aspect as in Paris in '48,-socialists' clubs are forming all over.

Paris.—The Democrat's Paris special says that Rataszi, formerly minister of foreign affairs at Florence, is actually at Paris; his mission, although secret, is said to relate to the evacuation of Rome by the French troops. If he is successful, he is to be placed again at the head of the Italian Cabinet. The Democrat's special says the sacred college of cardinals, presided over by the Pope, met for the purpose of ad-vising as to the best means of increasing the Papal army, should the French, as is now feared, evacuate the Roman

Havana.—The whole island is in an excited state; business is prostrated on account of the popular distrust and alarm. The Captain General, Lersun-di, is strangely reticent; a departation of the leading citizens, who called upon him, were insulted by an officer of his household, and the leaders ordered to Spain. The insurgents ore over 6,000 strong. The troops number 10,000, but strong. The troops number 10,000, but they are acknowledged to be insufficient to suppress the rebellion.

London.-The Post announces the following programme as Quasi Official:-The dissolution of Parliament will take place on the eleventh instant. All union elections are to commence on the 16th, the contested elections in the Collom J H boroughs on the 19th, also in the counties at the latter date. The new parlia-ment will be summoned to meet on the 9th of December, when the Queen's speech will be delivered, and the policy of the Ministry on the question at issue be announced. John Evelyn Dennison will be re-elected speaker. It is believed that the House will be ready to proceed to business by the 14th of December. The opposition will probably be more as a test on the question of amendment than anything else. There will be no Day J Day J when Driskel M 2 Carried Dunkan B House will debate until the 18th, when about 4500 majority for Randolph and it is supposed the motion will be carried by a large majority, when the House will be adjourned until the following Earl J H Monday.
