

A. E. WELBY COMES BACK TO R. G. W.

Succeeds Joseph H. Young as General Supt., With Headquarters in Salt Lake.

VINDICATION FOR OLD-TIMER.

Chosen to Once More Take the Helm
Of Operation—President Jeffery's
Good Selection.

It was announced from Denver last evening, that Joseph H. Young's successor as General Superintendent of the Rio Grande Western (D. & R. G. west from Grand Junction) would be Arthur Earl Welby, who resigned three years ago this same position, and for a year subsequent was general manager of the Cerro de Pasco road in Peru. The announcement is received in all quarters here with marked expressions of approval, and Mr. Welby will return to be congratulated by everybody having the slightest acquaintance with him. He is at present with his family at his Willow ranch in southern California, but is expected in this city at an early date to resume active charge of his former superintendency.

Mr. Welby was first appointed superintendent of the Rio Grande Western in 1880, succeeding Mr. Hancock in control of the road, and in 1892 was made general superintendent, remaining in control until his resignation 10 years later. Mr. Welby is 50 years old, and began his railroad career as a rodman on the Great Western railroad of Canada. He was subsequently associated with the chief engineer of the Canada Southern in the freight offices of the Grand Trunk, and later was chief clerk in the office of the general manager of the D. & R. G. Mr. Welby enjoys the entire confidence of President Jeffery and all of the officials of the road. Mr. Young is preparing to remove his family to Denver which will be his headquarters as general superintendent of the Colorado & Southern.

CHIN WING GOES FREE.

American-Born Oriental Proves Right
To Remain in Land of Freedom.

Commissioner Twomey yesterday released Chin Wing, the Chinaman who has been held for several weeks pending the securing of evidence to prove him a native born American Chinaman. Chin established his case to the satisfaction of even the prosecuting attorney and inspector, by securing depositions, taken before the United States commissioner in San Francisco, setting forth the time and place of his birth. The facts agreed with Chin's story in accounting for the certificate of birth dated in September, 1904, which caused his arrest. Chin Yak Ken, a clansman of Chin Wing's father, swore that as a fellow clansman Chin's father came to this country in 1878, settling forth the time and place of his birth. A Full Dollar's Worth Free Can any Ailing one Refuse?

I will gladly give any sick one a full dollar's worth of my remedy to test. I ask no return, no promise. There is nothing to pay, either now or later. The dollar bottle is free.

I want no references—no security. The poor have the same opportunity as the rich. To one and all I say "Merely write and ask." I will send you an order on your druggist. He will give you free, the full dollar's worth.

This offer is only for strangers to my remedy. To those who have not heard, or heard but not tried it.

My offer is as broad as humanity itself. For sickness knows no distinction in its ravages. And the restless patient on a downy couch is no more welcome than the wasting sufferer who frets through the lagging hours in a dismal hotel.

I want strangers EVERY where to test my remedy.

There is no mystery—no miracle. I can explain my treatment to you as easily as Inside Nerves!

Only one out of every 98 has perfect health. Of the 97 sick ones, some are bed-ridden, some are half sick, and some are only dull and listless. But most of the sickness comes from a common cause. The nerves are weak. Not the nerves you ordinarily think about—not the nerves that govern your movements and your thoughts.

But the nerves that, unguessed and unknown, night and day, keep your heart in motion—control your digestive apparatus—regulate your liver—operate your kidneys.

These are the nerves that wear out and break down.

It does no good to treat the ailing organ—the irregular heart—the disordered liver—the rebellious stomach—the deranged kidneys—they are not to blame. But go back to the nerves that control them. They are not to blame. But go back to the nerves that control them. They are not to blame. But go back to the nerves that control them.

There is nothing new about this—nothing any physician would dispute. But it remained for Dr. Shoop to apply this knowledge to put it to practical use. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the result of a quarter century of endeavor along this very line.

It does not dose the organ or disorder the balance. It does go at once to the nerve—the inner nerve—the power nerve—and builds it up, and strengthens it and makes it well.

For Stomach Troubles

The stomach is controlled by a delicate nerve called the solar plexus. Prize fighters know that a blow over the stomach—a solar plexus blow—means a sure knock-out. For this nerve is ten times as sensitive as the pupil of your eye. Yet the solar plexus is only one of the centers of the great inner nerve—the power nerve. It is one of the master nerves. The stomach is its slave. Practically all nerve trouble—solar plexus trouble—Dr. Shoop's Restorative strengthens the inner nerve—the inner nerve—the power nerve—and the stomach trouble disappears.

For Kidney Troubles

The kidneys are the blood filters. They are operated solely by the inner nerve. The branch which operates them and regulates them is called the renal plexus. When the renal plexus is weak or irregular, the kidneys are out of order. The poisons they should throw off are not thrown off. No kidney treatment can clean them out or cure them and one stage leads into another until after a while the kidneys themselves begin to break down and dissolve. There is only one way to reach kidney trouble—that is through the inner nerve—the inner nerve—the power nerve. Dr. Shoop's Restorative alone strengthens and restores.

For Heart Trouble

Your heart beats more than ten thousand times a day. And every heart beat is an impulse of the inner nerve branch called the cardiac plexus. The heart is a muscle, but it is the nerve that makes the muscle do the work. An irregular or weak heart is, almost in every instance, the direct result of a weak or irregular nerve—inner nerve. To cure heart trouble, restore the nerve to normal. Dr. Shoop's Restorative will restore the cardiac plexus, just as it restores the solar plexus. For all are parts of the great inner nerve eye, and the power nerves—the master nerves.

For Heart Trouble

Mild cases, are often cured with one or two bottles. For sale at forty thousand drug stores.
