Three vagrants in the persons of Lee Hall, E. D. Bassett and Peter Weber were yesterday brought to the county jail from Bingham Junction.

Due to the fact that President Hewitt has not yet made his appointments, there will be no council committee meetings tomorrow night.

The business of the Salt Lake post-office during the holiday season just closed is placed at 10 per cent greater than that of the season one year ago.

An apportionment of state school funds will be made by state auditor Tingey within the next few days, as the schools appear to be greatly in need of money.

Dr. F. E. Straup of Bingham is at present in the city suffering from an infected thumb. It is thought, however, that with proper attention amputation will not be necessary.

E. Lichtenstein has turned over his jewelry business in this city to his sons Marc and Nat, and will retire from active commercial life, after 14 years experience in Salt Lake.

Two new cases of diphtheria have been reported to the board of health, those afflicted being Mabel Rheingren, aged 6, 1001 South Eighth West street, and Oscar Hoglund, aged 22, 208 west Fourth North street.

Emma Ray of 223 F street and Gertrude Harsley, a near neighbor, have been missing from their homes for several days past and their parents are greatly worried as to their whereabouts. The girls are aged 16 and 17 years respectively.

Police Sergeant Roberts last night picked up at one of the entrances to the Tabernacle a pair of opera glasses and an artillery badge, which had been badly trampled in the mud. The owner may have them by applying at the police station.

Marshall Mauss of Murray yesterday visited the Bionceville rooming house and arrested Claude Leonard of Murray and Ruby Howe of this city, both 20 years of age. They will have a hearing before Justice Holm tomorrow morning.

Some enterprising people with an eye to business are said to be buying eastern eggs at Ogden and selling the same in this city at Utah prices. They are the better able to do this as eastern eggs are unusually good this season.

State Engineer Doremus has returned from the headquarters of the Weber, where he met prominent agriculturists and discussed methods of water measurement, with them. His explanations were satisfactory and there is an amiable understanding now all around.

The Jalisco, Mex., Times announced the death of Mrs. A. W. Geist, widow, with her husband, resided in Salt Lake

15 years ago. Mrs. Geist died of apoplexy at Guadalajara, the capital of the state. Mr. Geist was formerly manager of the "Flag" smelter at Santa Rita.

Deputy Sheriff William Edwards was yesterday to Miss Nellie E. McDonald, the ceremony being performed in the district court room. Deputy county clerk David Smith officiating. The happy couple are both residents of this city and have a host of friends who will join in extending congratulations.

Col. F. M. Mills, formerly of Springfield, Ill., and now a resident of this city, listened to Patti for the first time 51 years ago, in the opera house at New Orleans. The diva was then 16 years old, and advertised as a musical prodigy. She was accompanied by Ole Bull, the famous Norwegian violinist, and the combination made quite an impression on young Mills.

The Salt Lake Ministerial association listened to a paper yesterday by Rev. B. K. Kliney, on "The Pastor As a Teacher of Christian Stewardship." The essayist took occasion to object to "church fairs, fairs and festivals" as means to raise money for the support of the church, and stood for systematic giving in proportion to one's means.

County Treasurer Carlin announces these changes in his official staff: Z. H. Jacobs, chief deputy, in place of J. M. Swenson was advanced to a deputyship to assist Mr. Jacobs.

The attaches of the city auditor's office yesterday presented Auditor Reiser with a handsome silk umbrella as a token of their appreciation of the many courtesies extended them during his four years' term of office. Mr. Reiser responded by feelingly thanking them, which he thanked his associates for the appreciation expressed and the assistance rendered him in attending to the duties of the office.

The Logan Mercantile company has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The company will carry on a general wholesale and retail liquor and merchandise business at Logan, Cache county. The capital stock of the company is placed at $10,000, divided into 1,000 shares of the face value of $10 each. The officers are: W. H. Homer, president; W. H. Hurst, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Eliza Koopman of Grand Rapids, 25, has written Chief of Police Sullivan requesting that she be permitted to adopt the little son of Frank Rose, the wife murderer. She states that a brother of hers by the name of Frank Rose joined the army three years ago and has not since been heard from, and she thinks probably the prisoner must be the man referred to. It is doubtful if her communication will be given serious consideration.

The goal of conscience drove Cornelius J. Sullivan to surrender himself yesterday to the San Francisco police, to whom he stated that he was wanted in Chicago for the murder of a fellow workman. Sullivan was recognized at the jail by a trustee with whom he had worked in a Utah hayfield last summer. Sullivan told the trustee that he didn't care if they did take him back to Chicago. In fact, he said he would just as soon be hanged as not.

Herman Newman, a Finlander, was examined as to his sanity yesterday afternoon by County Clerk James and Drs. Mayo and Odell. It was found that the man was suffering from an attack of delirium tremens brought on by the excessive use of alcohol, he having drunk two quarts of the liquor on Christmas day. It was decided, therefore, to return him to Sandy and have him confined in the county jail for 30 days, which time he will be able to sober up.

AFFAIRS OF THE COUNTY.

The county commissioners have granted the Utah Independent Telephone company a franchise to construct its telephone lines throughout the county. The bond to be furnished by the company is in the sum of $10,000. The franchise must be accepted within 60 days and work must be commenced within six months from the acceptance. The franchise requires at least five miles of wire to be strung during the first year.

Another petition for the incorporation of Bingham has been received by the county commissioners. The proposed town will be one and a half miles long and 30 rods wide. The petition was laid over for one week to give the commissioners an opportunity to ascertain whether or not a majority of the taxpayers signed the petition.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints. It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that should not be neglected by any parents in the Granite state, as an instructor of Prof. Chamberlain's ability is not often available.

THE CITY'S HEALTH.

Official Report Shows Gradual Decline in Contagious Diseases.

The report of the board of health for the week ending Jan. 2, shows a gradual decline in the number of cases of contagious diseases in the city compared with the preceding week. Two cases of scarlet fever were reported during the week and none having been reported, left one case in quarantine. Ten cases of diphtheria remained in quarantine from the preceding week, 7 cases recovered, 4 new ones reported and 1 case died, leaving 6 cases in the city. Three cases of smallpox were reported during the week, all three cases having come here after exposure at other places. Two cases of typhoid fever and 4 cases of chickenpox were also reported.

The births reported during the week were 105, and the deaths 10, leaving a net gain of 95 for the week before. The deaths reported during the week, being an increase of 15 over the preceding week, were 12 males and 16 females, making the total deaths for the month 85, all of which were white. The death rate for the month shows an increase of 23 as compared with November, while the birth rate increased 32. According to sex, the decedents were 21 males and 37 females, 10 of foreign birth, 26 natives of Utah, and 13 born in other parts of the United States.

Deaths among children under five years of age numbered 22, as compared with 6 for the month of November, while the deaths among persons over 25 years of age increased 8 as compared with the month before. Nine deaths resulted from pneumonia, 3 were caused by typhoid fever, 3 by scarlet fever, 2 cases of whooping cough, both of which died. Thirty-one houses were fumigated by the department during the month, 8 having been infected with scarlet fever, 15 with diphtheria and 5 with smallpox, the whole having a total of 150 rooms.

Sanitary inspections of premises numbered 2490 were made during the month, 21 complaints were received, 4500 pounds of food were condemned, 25 samples of milk were tested, of which number 5 were found deficient according to the standard required by ordinance.
