Young Man's Body Cut in Two at Echo Last Night.

(Special to the "News.") Ogden, Utah, Nov. 21 .- Word reached Ogden this morning to the effect that a Orden this morning to the effect that a young man, aged about is years, met with a faital accident at Echo late yesterday afternoon. The boy, it appears, had se-cured work on the railroad through an employment agency here, and left on the sastbound train for Croyden, where he was to go to work. Instead of alighting at Croyden, as he should have done, he went on to Echo, where he jumped from the train, and in doing so was thrown un-der the wheels, his body being cut in two. Who the young man is cannot be learned, although a pocketbook in his possession body is being held at Echo pending in-

(Special to the "News.") Boise, Ida., Nov. 24 .- H. E. Helnick of Payette was arrested last night at that place charged with having at-tempted to wreck the O. S. L. train near Parma, a small station southeast of Payette, about 10 days ago. Helnick is a laborer. He is now held in the Can-yon county jail at Caldwell. Section men discovered a pile of cross ties, stones and railroad iron on the track a very short time before the fost ava very short time before the fast ex-oress westbound was due. The section nen cleared the track and reported and nothing was known to the public until the arrest of Helnick last night revealed the attempted wrecking. The clue was obtained by an envelope ad-dressed to Helnick, in which the peretrators of the attempt had penciled a dare-devil message of defiance to cer-tain Short Line officials.
