POLICE SEEK ASSAILANT.

The police are still looking for a foreigner named Alexander Pserogeines on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder upon Pete Fotes, a fellow countryman who was stabbed twice last night in the left shoulder. The mur-derous assault occurred at the Bryon saloon on west Second South street of which Fotes is the proprietor. The weapon used by Pserogeines was a knife about seven inches long and when he slashed at Fotes the latter was cut in two places on the shoulder. He was taken to the emergency hospital where the wounds were dressed after which the man went to his home It seems that Pserogenies demanded some money from Fotes last evening and because he declined to give the man anything, the assault was com-mitted. It is said there has been bad blood between the two for a long time and that Pserogenies had made threats to kill Fotes. After the stab-bing the man escaped and has not been located yet. The wounds received by Fotes are not dangerous.

BOTH MEN FINED. In Judge Diehl's court this morning

Pady Ryan, a railroad brakeman, who has been arrested numerous times for various misdemeanors, and J. H. for various misdemeanors, and J. H. Conrad, were arraizned on the charge of disturbing the peace. It seems that last night the pair engaged in an al-tercation which led to a fight in which Ryan got the worst of it. Both were arrested for disturbing the peace and both pleaded guilty. They claimed, however, that they were "just chewing the rag." They were fined $10 each.

A HAPPY BROKER.

There was a feature of this morning's business at the stock exchange not down in the regular order of things, but very interesting to the brokers, for all that. Announcement of the arrival of twin daughters at the home of Broker Charles W. Pratt was not made by Cal ler Beveredge, but the fact became known on the floor at an early stage of the regular session, and the happy father concealed his embarrassment behind a couple of boxes of good cigara, and at least a half dozen boxes of choice candy, which were passed about the exchange by way of acknowledgment of the many congratulations showered upon him.
