Farmer Will Control the Situation-Has Been Getting Rich and Will be Richee.

San Francisco, March 26,-Cancelle fug his arrangements for a more extended stay in California, Edward H. Harriman left Paso Hobies before day light this morning, established tempo rary headquarters in his special train at Burlingame, twenty miles away, and came to San Francisco with the unex pected announcement that he would lepart for New York tomorrow evenng or Sunday. His sudden change of plan he attributed to a desire to spe a few days with his sons before they return to school, and he conveyed the impression that he was anxious to re-sume the duties laid down two months some the duties laid down two monthago.

Mr. Harriman's brief sojourn at Paso Robles was in itself a contradiction of his reported illness. He brushed solicitious inquire relating to his health aside and burried away to join his party after a brief expression of his views upon general matters and a lindly but unqualified retusal to discuss any subject connected with the timer workings of the railroad world Since vesterday Mr. Harriman has been almost constantly in the company of Louis Hill, president of the Great Northern, whose private car was attached to the Harriman special this morning and who accompanied the Harriman party to this city later in the day. Mr. Hill was uncommunitative when asked why he had curtained his visit to Paso Robles, explaning that he had come north in order to discurs matters of general interest with Mr. Harriman. The two railway presidents probably will remain in this close companionship until Mr. Harriman's departure for the east.

"I am just drifting along as I have been doing for the last two months, and I have allowed nothing to engage one attention except the boose ends I have picked up here and there," said Mr. Harriman, "and I really cannot recall a single one of these minor matters that would be of even local interest. I did not know as much of pending affairs as I am given credit for, and I do not know of the reported connections with the New York frentral officer—not nearly as much as has been published."

A large crowd, handled by a squad of railroad police, was gathered at the Fluid and Townsend street station when the special, after a run of 30 microses, rolled in just behind a slow passenger train. Despite the efforts of the men in uniform, Mr. Harriman and the members of his party were swallowed up by the throng, and before the waiting automobiles were reached for three cameras. Laughing heartly at the efforts of the photographers to slear treaspassers out of focus, Mr. Harriman grasped the arms of his laughter and Mrs. Goelet and was mapped in this pose. While the other members of the party started immediately for the Fairmont hotel, where

The Harmony Of Home

From the Table of Dyspepsia.

"My stay here will be so brief that it can hardly be termed a visit. I think I am entitled to a few days more of recreation, and have decided to spend them with my beys at Burlingame."

"What is your opinion of the industrial outlook in this country?" he was asked. "What will be the condition of the farmer and the small business man next fall?"

"The farmer will be in control of the situation." said Mr. Harriman. "He has been getting rich and he will be richer. He will furnish a great deal of capital for all legitimate uses, and our prosperity depends upon the purposes for which this money is used. If it goes into legitimate development and the ordinary channels of business, this country will be better off. But if it is
