It is not surprising that the people are so much interested in the health of the nation. It is not surprising that the people are so much interested in the health of the nation. It is not surprising that the people are so much interested in the health of the nation.

the cause of the trouble was the arduous treatment of the red man. As a result, the people are so much interested in the health of the nation. It is not surprising that the people are so much interested in the health of the nation. It is not surprising that the people are so much interested in the health of the nation. It is not surprising that the people are so much interested in the health of the nation.
