CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 3.—Burnside, from the committee on military affairs, reported a bill in relation to the enlistment of colored men in the army. Placed on the calendar.

The chair appointed Windom, Dorsey and Beck members of the conference committee on the bill for temporary clerks in the Treasury Department.

Sargent in regard to the railroad funding bill, said that in 1871 the question arose whether the interest is payable now and whether the whole transportation money should be held in the Treasury to meet this interest, and after the discussion in the Senate an amendment was proposed to allow the questions to be carried to the court of claims. This amendment was favored by Edmunds, who would be glad to have the Supreme Court decide these questions, for if they decide in favor of the companies there was an end to the question. The Supreme Court had decided the question that the transportation must be paid. Yet it was proposed to go on with these additional requirements until there would be nothing left. He read extracts to show that it was then considered that such decision of the Supreme Court would be final.

Edmunds said he thought now as he thought then, as to the law, and he felt that if the gentleman from California would argue the case of the people, the Supreme Court might reverse its decision, as it had in the legal tender and some other cases.

Matthews was recognized as entitled to the floor to-morrow, and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Cravens and Henry favored retaining Polk.

Frye opposed it.

After quite a long debate, Eden closed the discussion for the day, by saying it would not be just to Polk to discharge him from the office and put a brand of disgrace upon his brow, simply because he had employed an extra force. If the democratic party could not live and do justice to Polk, it ought to die, and if the republican members could not do justice to him they ought to resign. There was no partisan advantage to be gained on either side. He gave notice that he would offer a substitute, censuring the doorkeeper, recommitting the whole subject and instructing the committee on civil service reform to report the number and pay of employees to be kept in the doorkeeper's department and whether the employment of laborers should not be committed to the charge of a superintendent or janitor.

Reagan, from the committee on appropriations, reported the river and harbor appropriation bill. Ordered printed and recommitted.

Adjourned.

EASTERN.

A Prize Fight.

NEW YORK, 3.—The World says Oelrichs, of the steamship company firm, and Charles A. Robbins, wholesale druggist, recently had a prize fight here. The latter was vanquished in two rounds. Only two or three friends were present, and they tried to keep the matter private.

Exhibits for the Paris Exposition.

The steamship Canada, of the French Line, which left for Havre, yesterday, carried out 800 tons of exhibits for the Paris Exposition. These have been sent on from all parts of the country, some of them coming from Oregon.

[Tax on Non-Residents' Property.

HARRISBURG, Pa., 3.—In the Dauphin County Court, Judge Pearson decided in favor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the case against the Insurance Company of North America, which resisted the payment of about $6,000 tax on premiums paid on policies by non-residents of the State.

Booth's Speech on the Funding Bill.

WASHINGTON, 3.—Booth's speech to-day, on the Pacific Railroad sinking fund bill, was listened to by the Senate with close attention, and was greatly admired for its clearness of style and graceful felicity of expression. Its arguments were, however, to some extent, deprived of the freshness by preceding repeaters on the same side of the question, and very largely by his own speech delivered two years ago. He also repeated from this speech his epigrammatic remark, that to carry to its logical conclusion what he asserted was the theory of the railroad committee, the bill should be presented not only to the President of the United States, but to the presidents of the Pacific Railroad Companies for their joint approval and signature.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, 3.—In the wool market there is very little change; manufacturers purchase sparingly to supply the present wants; prices low and quite unsatisfactory. Sales of Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces at 40 @ 42, including all grades. New York, Wisconsin and Michigan fleeces at 37 @ 39, and coarse fleeces at 30 @ 36. Combing and delaine fleeces are quiet at 42@ @ 45 for coarse, and 47@ for good average lots. Super and X pulled wools are in fair demand at 40 @ 45, the latter for choice eastern super. California is in fair demand at 13 @ 25 for Fall, and 20 @ 27 for Spring.

Death Warrants Signed.

NEW ORLEANS, 3.—Governor Nichols has signed the death warrants of Wesley Turner, who killed Frederick Erhardt; Jackson Edwards, for the murder of James Edwards; and Alex. Brown, who killed Wm. Dudley. The condemned are all negroes, and committed their crimes in the parish of St. Mary. They will be hanged on the same gallows, at Franklin, on Monday, the 22nd inst.

Drowned.

DETROIT, 3.—Information has reached here this evening of the drowning of Henry Crouch, his wife and three children, in a pond near Ada, Michigan, caused by the capsizing of a boat.

Destructive Fire.

ST. PAUL, 3.—The large barns and granaries on the Dunlap farm, one of the immense prairie farms on the line of the Northern Pacific, near Mapleton, D. T., were burned this morning. Sixteen head of stock, 1,000 bushels of seed grain, and a large quantity of valuable machinery were lost.

WESTERN.

Whiskey the Cause.

SAN FRANCISCO, 3.—A Victoria dispatch says: The gunboat Rocket has returned from the scene of the Indian disturbance with 12 prisoners. The disorder arose from whiskey, which is systematically supplied to the British Indians at Port Townsend on the American side.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

A Protest Against Government's Attitude.

LONDON, 3.—A deputation of the national liberal federation, to protest against the attitude of the government, express disapproval of the calling out of the reserves, and to proclaim the desire of the liberal party to save Great Britain from the shame and misery of an unjust war, were met at the Westminster Palace Hotel this afternoon by Lords Granville and Hartington. The deputation numbered about 500, representatives from all parts of the kingdom. Joseph Chamberlain, member of the House of Commons from Birmingham, presided.

Lord Granville, in addressing the deputation, said he required no stimulus to adopt a course likely to prevent the country from being dragged into a war, which neither its honorable engagements nor national interests demanded, but it would be deceiving themselves and Russia to conclude that the opposition could prevent the government from going to war if the government was bent on a warlike policy.

Lord Hartington said the present duty of the opposition was to interpose, by every means in its power, obstacles to any rash and ill-considered action of the government, the result of which might be war.

Eastern News Notes.

A dispatch from Constantinople says the Russians have occupied the parts of Macedonia included in New Bulgaria.

The Russian military authorities and transport officials to-day held a council upon measures for the ultimate evacuation of Turkey.

A portion of the Servian army is advancing from Negotin to garrison Widdin, which the Russians are evacuating. It is stated that the Servians will also occupy Belgradschika and probably the line from there to Plevna.

The Agence Russe says: If Lord Salisbury's note is to declare a congress, its end is attained, but if it is intended to open a discussion, a discussion by written communications may last a year, particularly as the note contains criticisms but no proposals.

As the British government confines itself to a purely negative criticism, it may possibly be asked to suggest some solution of its own. It is argued that if the English cabinet really desires to avoid war, some pacific solution may be found. The public regard Salisbury's circular, however, as new proof that England has decided upon war, while in the official world it is said that although not pleasant reading for those who desire peace, it has the advantage of intelligibility.

The circular has created enthusiasm at Athens.

The American man-of-war ordered to Volo is the Marion. Such aid as she can render the suffering Greeks, however, is quite inadequate and perhaps too late. The French and Austrian consuls at Volo have telegraphed for men-of-war, as the Turks are quite demoralized and have threatened a French officer. An English man-of-war is expected. The Italian government has ordered Italian vessels to receive refugees.

A Vienna correspondent hears that Count Andrassy, recognizing the difficulty of the assembling of the congress, is preparing a common action with England. The consequence of General Ignatieff's report at St. Petersburg on the result of his mission, however, yet remains to be seen.

Official returns show that last week the Russians had 53,000 sick in Europe.

A correspondent at Vienna hears from an official source that M. Tisza, premier of the Hungarian ministry, has informed the Emperor and Count Andrassy that he could not answer for the consequence in Hungary if Austria took a decision hostile to or independent of England.

The Present Position Assists and England United.

The Times, editorially, says: The main fact in the present posture of affairs is that Austria and England are one in their view of the treaty of San Stefano, and of the only means by which, without war, it can be brought into harmony with the just claims of the other powers.

Public opinion in Europe is with them, and if they act together with firmness and loyalty, Russia may be induced to withdraw her position, which would then be obviously untenable.

Engaging Interpreters.

The English consul at Salonica is engaging interpreters knowing the Greek, Turkish, and English languages, at a salary of $150 per month, commencing immediately.

Particulars of the Assassination of the Earl of Leitrim and his Attendants.

DUBLIN, 3.—The Earl of Leitrim left his residence, at Milford, shortly before 5 o'clock, yesterday morning, accompanied by his clerk, and was driving on an outside car to Derry to meet his solicitor. He always carried arms. It is supposed the assassins concealed themselves behind a low embankment between the road and plantation, and that having first shot the Earl of Leitrim they shot the clerk and driver so that there might be no witnesses. His lordship's valet was driving about a mile behind, and on coming up found his master and the clerk lying dead on the road. Life was still in the driver. The assassins, meanwhile, escaped in a boat across Mulroy Bay. The valet drove back to Milford and aroused the police, who, on coming to the place, found the driver still alive, but unconscious. He died shortly afterwards. There is no doubt the murder was agrarian. The relations between the Earl of Leitrim and his tenants were unfriendly. His Lordship was kind and liberal to the poor, but was very particular and exacting in his dealings with his tenantry, visiting with unsparing severity the slightest infraction of the rules of the estate. The Ribbon Society has a strong hold upon the county, owing, in a great measure, to his harshness. He had an iron will which disregarded alike appeals or menaces, and he possessed extraordinary courage and perseverance in pursuit of his purposes.

The London Times, in an editorial on the assassination, says: It is no exaggeration to say that the news of the murder of the Earl of Leitrim, which caused a profound sensation in the House of Commons, yesterday, when confirmed by the Irish Secretary, has struck this country with as much pain and amazement as an unprovoked declaration of war.

FRANCE.

Important Bills.

PARIS, 3.—The three measures introduced by the government—the colportage bill, the press amnesty bill, and the state of seige bill, have all become law. The first prevents the recurrence of the most arbitrary proceedings of the De Broglie cabinet. The second cancels its 3,000 press prosecutions, though extended by the Senate to about a dozen earlier or later offenders, including Paul de Cassagnac. The third is directed against an abuse of power which, though not resorted to by the Duke de Broglie, was notoriously advocated by some of his colleagues.

High Water.

There are inundations in the department of the Indre et Loire and Seine, and other rivers are also very high. Snow is falling in the east, and frost has done some damage in the south.

WALLACHIA.

Russia and Roumania.

BUCHAREST, 3. — The Russian army corps stationed in Bulgaria have been ordered to return to Roumania and take up positions between Gieurgevo and Bucharest. It is feared the Russians may impose a state of siege throughout Roumania.

At a secret sitting of the Chambers, to-day, MM. Ghika and Stouritza reported the result of their recent mission to London and Vienna respectively. The former said the English cabinet had encouraged Roumania to hold out in regard to Bessarabia, the latter said Austria laid stress upon the necessity of the Bessarabian question being settled by the decision of Europe.

WEST INDIES.

The Insurgent Surrender.

HAVANA, 3.—It is officially reported that 2,600 insurgents surrendered in the jurisdiction of Manzillo during March; of these 1,250 were men. The arms of all kinds given up amounted to 2,030 pieces.

HIGHEST HONORS

AT THE

UNITED STATES

Centennial

World Exhibition,

1876.

MASON & HAMLIN

CABINET

ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK"

IN THE

"SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of that class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THEIR GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Melodeons shows instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, scope of expression, promptness and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action, of large and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and

FIRST MEDALS

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA 1873; SANTIAGO, 1875

PHILADELPHIA, 1876;

and have thus been awarded highest honors at Every World's Exposition!

at which they have been exhibited; being the Only American Organs which have ever obtained Any Award at any competition with best European makers, or in any European World's Exposition!
