

OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

Treasor of Mrs. Teller—Second District Court.

Special Correspondence.

OGDEN, Feb. 18.—Hon. Joseph R. Peery delivered a lecture on Richfield before the literary society of the Weber Stake academy last night. There was a good audience present to listen to the young orator's presentation of his attractive theme, and his handling of the subject showed him to be an intelligent student, well versed in what was ready in literary treatises.

The public schools of the city will close at 2 o'clock on Monday, May 24, instead of 3:30 as heretofore.

At the meeting of the board of education yesterday it was voted to increase the amount of money showing an average daily attendance of $325.

Yesterday it rained and snowed, and the melting of the snow and frozen ground went on rapidly, making street travel especially disagreeable.

FUNERAL OF MRS. THREE.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth A. Three, who was unfortunately killed in a fall and died on Saturday morning, will be held tomorrow in the Third Ward meeting house, Ogden, at 1 p.m.

Her remains will be viewed at the residence on Twenty-first street, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. tomorrow.

At 10 a.m. A. J. Teller & Son, one of Ogden's old-time citizens, will conduct the funeral with a severe attack of rheumatism. He is seriously ill, but expects to live.

A funeral service will be held at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Ogden Women's Christian Temperance union.

The Union Light and Power company will hold a memorial service at Washington avenue, owned by Fred J. Kloss & Co., yesterday in memory of their deceased employee, Smith, who died in the city yesterday, in company with Chief Clerk McMillan for a more rapid stage mail service between Denver and Cheyenne, Colo.

COUDER DIXON COURT.

The following business was transacted in the Second District court yesterday:

Matthew White of the Union Pacific Railroad company, damages suit for loss of a part of the property of the railroad company by reason of alleged encroachment on the part of the railroad company. Jury awarded $1,000.

James Hope vs. D. H. Gill, decree of execution entered, as provided for, by default.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

DRUG EXHIBITION, S. L. T.

The Drug Show, 14th and 15th, a special exhibition on Ogden on Monday, February 18th, with the Trip to Africa Company.

Leaving at 5 p.m., returning at 10 p.m. and staying over night with all extra care. Fare for the round trip $30.

LOGAN.

New York Journal searching for Data on Fisheries.

Special Correspondence.

Louis, Feb. 18.—The Logan Herald, which has been greatly improved, elected a board of directors yesterday afternoon, consisting of the following persons: Samuel Rockley, president; George A. Anderson, vice president; Jas. H. Perkins of Hyde Park, G. C. McDonald of Logan and Carl Nyman of Greenville, directors.

The new board of directors of Lake is continuing its work. Mrs. J. H. Anderson of this city.

The Connecticut hotel in this city, which has been closed since the fire in Mr. G. C. H. Anderson's hands, has changed management again. Mr. Rogers having taken the control of the house over to John H. Anderson.

The hotel will not pay the lease when retumed.

John H. E. Menken, the instructor in elocution and physical culture, will give an entertainment at the college Tuesday evening. An interesting program.

The State board of equalization came today and held a conference with the board of county commissioners.

At the meeting of the A. C. family of confidence on the death of President W. W. Fletcher, last evening, and copies of the testament to the widow and wife were present. A deep silence followed while the will was read to secure the establishment of a sugar factory. Manager Curtis of Lord was immediately detained from Boston by Mr. Menken, Mr. Austin, Mr. Austin, and locksmiths, and Mr. Austin, superintendent of the Lord plant, and Mr. Austin, Mr. Austin, and locksmiths, and Mr. Austin, superintendent of the Lord plant, and each made interesting addresses, chiefly upon the subject of cost cutting, and the necessary preliminaries to the construction of the factory.

The project of this municipality are freely discussed, and the people are shown willing to contribute liberally to a public enterprise. They want a railroad from here, C. L. Eddie, engineer, G. N. Parsons has taken the initial step in this direction, by making out a plan of the probable cost of its construction.

wish from Francis Jensen, who is at the time still unmounted to only four inches there. It moved rapidly and after a few shots is still badly wounded.

The teachers of the Wasatch Academy tendered a very welcome reception to the students of the Winter Stake academy last night. There was a good audience present to listen to the young orator's presentation of his attractive theme, and his handling of the subject showed him to be an intelligent student, well versed in what was ready in literary treatises.

The public schools of the city will close at 2 o'clock on Monday, May 24, instead of 3:30 as heretofore.

At the meeting of the board of education yesterday it was voted to increase the amount of money showing an average daily attendance of $325.

Yesterday it rained and snowed, and the melting of the snow and frozen ground went on rapidly, making street travel especially disagreeable.

FUNERAL OF MRS. THREE.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth A. Three, who was unfortunately killed in a fall and died on Saturday morning, will be held tomorrow in the Third Ward meeting house, Ogden, at 1 p.m.

Her remains will be viewed at the residence on Twenty-first street, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. tomorrow.

At 10 a.m. A. J. Teller & Son, one of Ogden's old-time citizens, will conduct the funeral with a severe attack of rheumatism. He is seriously ill, but expects to live.

A funeral service will be held at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Ogden Women's Christian Temperance union.

The Union Light and Power company will hold a memorial service at Washington avenue, owned by Fred J. Kloss & Co., yesterday in memory of their deceased employee, Smith, who died in the city yesterday, in company with Chief Clerk McMillan for a more rapid stage mail service between Denver and Cheyenne, Colo.

COUDER DIXON COURT.

The following business was transacted in the Second District court yesterday:

Matthew White of the Union Pacific Railroad company, damages suit for loss of a part of the property of the railroad company by reason of alleged encroachment on the part of the railroad company. Jury awarded $1,000.

James Hope vs. D. H. Gill, decree of execution entered, as provided for, by default.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

DRUG EXHIBITION, S. L. T.

The Drug Show, 14th and 15th, a special exhibition on Ogden on Monday, February 18th, with the Trip to Africa Company.

Leaving at 5 p.m., returning at 10 p.m. and staying over night with all extra care. Fare for the round trip $30.

LOGAN.

New York Journal searching for Data on Fisheries.

Special Correspondence.

Louis, Feb. 18.—The Logan Herald, which has been greatly improved, elected a board of directors yesterday afternoon, consisting of the following persons: Samuel Rockley, president; George A. Anderson, vice president; Jas. H. Perkins of Hyde Park, G. C. McDonald of Logan and Carl Nyman of Greenville, directors.

The new board of directors of Lake is continuing its work. Mrs. J. H. Anderson of this city.

The Connecticut hotel in this city, which has been closed since the fire in Mr. G. C. H. Anderson's hands, has changed management again. Mr. Rogers having taken the control of the house over to John H. Anderson.

The hotel will not pay the lease when retumed.

John H. E. Menken, the instructor in elocution and physical culture, will give an entertainment at the college Tuesday evening. An interesting program.

The State board of equalization came today and held a conference with the board of county commissioners.

At the meeting of the A. C. family of confidence on the death of President W. W. Fletcher, last evening, and copies of the testament to the widow and wife were present. A deep silence followed while the will was read to secure the establishment of a sugar factory. Manager Curtis of Lord was immediately detained from Boston by Mr. Menken, Mr. Austin, Mr. Austin, and locksmiths, and Mr. Austin, superintendent of the Lord plant, and each made interesting addresses, chiefly upon the subject of cost cutting, and the necessary preliminaries to the construction of the factory.

The project of this municipality are freely discussed, and the people are shown willing to contribute liberally to a public enterprise. They want a railroad from here, C. L. Eddie, engineer, G. N. Parsons has taken the initial step in this direction, by making out a plan of the probable cost of its construction.

At 10 a.m. A. J. Teller & Son, one of Ogden's old-time citizens, will conduct the funeral with a severe attack of rheumatism. He is seriously ill, but expects to live.

A funeral service will be held at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Ogden Women's Christian Temperance union.

The Union Light and Power company will hold a memorial service at Washington avenue, owned by Fred J. Kloss & Co., yesterday in memory of their deceased employee, Smith, who died in the city yesterday, in company with Chief Clerk McMillan for a more rapid stage mail service between Denver and Cheyenne, Colo.

COUDER DIXON COURT.

The following business was transacted in the Second District court yesterday:

Matthew White of the Union Pacific Railroad company, damages suit for loss of a part of the property of the railroad company by reason of alleged encroachment on the part of the railroad company. Jury awarded $1,000.

James Hope vs. D. H. Gill, decree of execution entered, as provided for, by default.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

DRUG EXHIBITION, S. L. T.

The Drug Show, 14th and 15th, a special exhibition on Ogden on Monday, February 18th, with the Trip to Africa Company.

Leaving at 5 p.m., returning at 10 p.m. and staying over night with all extra care. Fare for the round trip $30.

LOGAN.

New York Journal searching for Data on Fisheries.

Special Correspondence.

Louis, Feb. 18.—The Logan Herald, which has been greatly improved, elected a board of directors yesterday afternoon, consisting of the following persons: Samuel Rockley, president; George A. Anderson, vice president; Jas. H. Perkins of Hyde Park, G. C. McDonald of Logan and Carl Nyman of Greenville, directors.

The new board of directors of Lake is continuing its work. Mrs. J. H. Anderson of this city.

The Connecticut hotel in this city, which has been closed since the fire in Mr. G. C. H. Anderson's hands, has changed management again. Mr. Rogers having taken the control of the house over to John H. Anderson.

The hotel will not pay the lease when retumed.

John H. E. Menken, the instructor in elocution and physical culture, will give an entertainment at the college Tuesday evening. An interesting program.

The State board of equalization came today and held a conference with the board of county commissioners.

At the meeting of the A. C. family of confidence on the death of President W. W. Fletcher, last evening, and copies of the testament to the widow and wife were present. A deep silence followed while the will was read to secure the establishment of a sugar factory. Manager Curtis of Lord was immediately detained from Boston by Mr. Menken, Mr. Austin, Mr. Austin, and locksmiths, and Mr. Austin, superintendent of the Lord plant, and each made interesting addresses, chiefly upon the subject of cost cutting, and the necessary preliminaries to the construction of the factory.

The project of this municipality are freely discussed, and the people are shown willing to contribute liberally to a public enterprise. They want a railroad from here, C. L. Eddie, engineer, G. N. Parsons has taken the initial step in this direction, by making out a plan of the probable cost of its construction.

At 10 a.m. A. J. Teller & Son, one of Ogden's old-time citizens, will conduct the funeral with a severe attack of rheumatism. He is seriously ill, but expects to live.

A funeral service will be held at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Ogden Women's Christian Temperance union.

The Union Light and Power company will hold a memorial service at Washington avenue, owned by Fred J. Kloss & Co., yesterday in memory of their deceased employee, Smith, who died in the city yesterday, in company with Chief Clerk McMillan for a more rapid stage mail service between Denver and Cheyenne, Colo.

COUDER DIXON COURT.

The following business was transacted in the Second District court yesterday:

Matthew White of the Union Pacific Railroad company, damages suit for loss of a part of the property of the railroad company by reason of alleged encroachment on the part of the railroad company. Jury awarded $1,000.

James Hope vs. D. H. Gill, decree of execution entered, as provided for, by default.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

DRUG EXHIBITION, S. L. T.

The Drug Show, 14th and 15th, a special exhibition on Ogden on Monday, February 18th, with the Trip to Africa Company.

Leaving at 5 p.m., returning at 10 p.m. and staying over night with all extra care. Fare for the round trip $30.

LOGAN.

New York Journal searching for Data on Fisheries.

Special Correspondence.

Louis, Feb. 18.—The Logan Herald, which has been greatly improved, elected a board of directors yesterday afternoon, consisting of the following persons: Samuel Rockley, president; George A. Anderson, vice president; Jas. H. Perkins of Hyde Park, G. C. McDonald of Logan and Carl Nyman of Greenville, directors.

The new board of directors of Lake is continuing its work. Mrs. J. H. Anderson of this city.

The Connecticut hotel in this city, which has been closed since the fire in Mr. G. C. H. Anderson's hands, has changed management again. Mr. Rogers having taken the control of the house over to John H. Anderson.

The hotel will not pay the lease when retumed.

John H. E. Menken, the instructor in elocution and physical culture, will give an entertainment at the college Tuesday evening. An interesting program.

The State board of equalization came today and held a conference with the board of county commissioners.

At the meeting of the A. C. family of confidence on the death of President W. W. Fletcher, last evening, and copies of the testament to the widow and wife were present. A deep silence followed while the will was read to secure the establishment of a sugar factory. Manager Curtis of Lord was immediately detained from Boston by Mr. Menken, Mr. Austin, Mr. Austin, and locksmiths, and Mr. Austin, superintendent of the Lord plant, and each made interesting addresses, chiefly upon the subject of cost cutting, and the necessary preliminaries to the construction of the factory.

The project of this municipality are freely discussed, and the people are shown willing to contribute liberally to a public enterprise. They want a railroad from here, C. L. Eddie, engineer, G. N. Parsons has taken the initial step in this direction, by making out a plan of the probable cost of its construction.

At 10 a.m. A. J. Teller & Son, one of Ogden's old-time citizens, will conduct the funeral with a severe attack of rheumatism. He is seriously ill, but expects to live.

A funeral service will be held at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Ogden Women's Christian Temperance union.

The Union Light and Power company will hold a memorial service at Washington avenue, owned by Fred J. Kloss & Co., yesterday in memory of their deceased employee, Smith, who died in the city yesterday, in company with Chief Clerk McMillan for a more rapid stage mail service between Denver and Cheyenne, Colo.

COUDER DIXON COURT.

The following business was transacted in the Second District court yesterday:

Matthew White of the Union Pacific Railroad company, damages suit for loss of a part of the property of the railroad company by reason of alleged encroachment on the part of the railroad company. Jury awarded $1,000.

James Hope vs. D. H. Gill, decree of execution entered, as provided for, by default.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

DRUG EXHIBITION, S. L. T.

The Drug Show, 14th and 15th, a special exhibition on Ogden on Monday, February 18th, with the Trip to Africa Company.

Leaving at 5 p.m., returning at 10 p.m. and staying over night with all extra care. Fare for the round trip $30.

LOGAN.

New York Journal searching for Data on Fisheries.

Special Correspondence.

Louis, Feb. 18.—The Logan Herald, which has been greatly improved, elected a board of directors yesterday afternoon, consisting of the following persons: Samuel Rockley, president; George A. Anderson, vice president; Jas. H. Perkins of Hyde Park, G. C. McDonald of Logan and Carl Nyman of Greenville, directors.

The new board of directors of Lake is continuing its work. Mrs. J. H. Anderson of this city.

The Connecticut hotel in this city, which has been closed since the fire in Mr. G. C. H. Anderson's hands, has changed management again. Mr. Rogers having taken the control of the house over to John H. Anderson.

The hotel will not pay the lease when retumed.

John H. E. Menken, the instructor in elocution and physical culture, will give an entertainment at the college Tuesday evening. An interesting program.

The State board of equalization came today and held a conference with the board of county commissioners.

At the meeting of the A. C. family of confidence on the death of President W. W. Fletcher, last evening, and copies of the testament to the widow and wife were present. A deep silence followed while the will was read to secure the establishment of a sugar factory. Manager Curtis of Lord was immediately detained from Boston by Mr. Menken, Mr. Austin, Mr. Austin, and locksmiths, and Mr. Austin, superintendent of the Lord plant, and each made interesting addresses, chiefly upon the subject of cost cutting, and the necessary preliminaries to the construction of the factory.

The project of this municipality are freely discussed, and the people are shown willing to contribute liberally to a public enterprise. They want a railroad from here, C. L. Eddie, engineer, G. N. Parsons has taken the initial step in this direction, by making out a plan of the probable cost of its construction.

At 10 a.m. A. J. Teller & Son, one of Ogden's old-time citizens, will conduct the funeral with a severe attack of rheumatism. He is seriously ill, but expects to live.

A funeral service will be held at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Ogden Women's Christian Temperance union.

The Union Light and Power company will hold a memorial service at Washington avenue, owned by Fred J. Kloss & Co., yesterday in memory of their deceased employee, Smith, who died in the city yesterday, in company with Chief Clerk McMillan for a more rapid stage mail service between Denver and Cheyenne, Colo.

COUDER DIXON COURT.

The following business was transacted in the Second District court yesterday:

Matthew White of the Union Pacific Railroad company, damages suit for loss of a part of the property of the railroad company by reason of alleged encroachment on the part of the railroad company. Jury awarded $1,000.

James Hope vs. D. H. Gill, decree of execution entered, as provided for, by default.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

The death notice of Mrs. E. C. Richardson was published.

DRUG EXHIBITION, S. L. T.

The Drug Show, 14th and 15th, a special exhibition on Ogden on Monday, February 18th, with the Trip to Africa Company.

Leaving at 5 p.m., returning at 10 p.m. and staying over night with all extra care. Fare for the round trip $30.

LOGAN.

New York Journal searching for Data on Fisheries.

Special Correspondence.

Louis, Feb. 18.—The Logan Herald, which has been greatly improved, elected a board of directors yesterday afternoon, consisting of the following persons: Samuel Rockley, president; George A. Anderson, vice president; Jas. H. Perkins of Hyde Park, G. C. McDonald of Logan and Carl Nyman of Greenville, directors.

The new board of directors of Lake is continuing its work. Mrs. J. H. Anderson of this city.

The Connecticut hotel in this city, which has been closed since the fire in Mr. G. C. H. Anderson's hands, has changed management again. Mr. Rogers having taken the control of the house over to John H. Anderson.

The hotel will not pay the lease when retumed.

John H. E. Menken, the instructor in elocution and physical culture, will give an entertainment at the college Tuesday evening. An interesting program.

</