LOCAL NEWS.

MISSIONARIES.

Those missionaries expecting to leave this city for Great Britain and Scandinavia, on Saturday April 12th, will not now take their departure until Tuesday April 15th. The time of sailing of the steamship from New York has caused the change as above set forth. JOSEPH F. SMITH.

Fourth Ward Entertainment.—The Fourth Ward Dramatic Association will give their last entertainments for this season in the Ward schoolhouse, to-night and Saturday evening, when, besides an interest olio, they will present "Miralda, or the Justice of Tacon." To commence at 7.30.

The Knights.—The Opera House, next Monday night, will be opened by Mr. and Mrs. George S. Knight who, with a full company, will present "Otto" two night, and a Wednesday matinee, and "Baron Rudolph" on the evening of the 9th. These German character actors come highly heralded.

Free Lecture.—Colonel George M. Ottinger will deliver a lecture this evening in the 18th Ward Chapel, under the auspices of the Mutual Improvement Association. The subject is "Fourteen Months on a Whale-ship," and the lecture will commence at 7:30 o'clock. Public invited. Admission free.

Leavitt's Specialties.—This celebrated combination of stellar talent has engaged and will appear at the Salt Lake Theatre for five nights and a matinee, commencing to-morrow evening. The matinee will be given on Saturday. They are direct from their San Francisco triumph, where press and public are unanimous in their praise.

A Pleasant Occasion.—Yesterday there was an enjoyable little gathering at the house of Sister Angeline McAllister, of the Eighth Ward. The occasion was what is commonly or familiarly known as a house warming. Among the guests were Counselor D. H. Wells, and Bishop E. F. Sheets and Counsellors. The exercises included some excellent singing, by the members of Brother McAllister's family.

Opera House.—Miss A. A. Adams, supported by an efficient company mostly of home talent, will appear at the Opera House in "The Planter's Wife," said to be an excellent play, to-morrow afternoon and evening. On Saturday afternoon and night "His Amber Witch" will be produced. The latter has been played here before, but is now put on as a special Conference attraction. The box office opened this morning for the sale of reserves.

Morgenstjernen. — The April 1st number of this magazine is out. Among its interesting contents is an editorial on Church works and pamphlets published by the Presidency of the Scandinavian mission since 1850. The article shows that the late F. E. Bording, who died Feb. 3d, 1884, during his lifetime printed about 2,250,000 books, pamphlets and periodicals for the Church, in the Danish and Swedish languages. All these publications have been sold or distributed among the inhabitants of Denmark, Sweden and Norway. The approximate cost of the printing has been about $30,000.

Theatre.—The "Octoroon" was presented last night to an audience of fair dimensions, and barring some few hitches of a minor nature passed off successfully, giving general satisfaction. The play is so well known it is almost useless to particularize. Mr. McKenzie's "McCloskey" was excellent as ever, Miss Adams' "Zoe" likewise. Mrs. Cummings, Messrs. Graham, Margetts, Brown, Evans, all appeared to good advantage and the minor characters were suitably represented. Some scenes were never better enacted, others not so well as usual. To-night the combination present "Victorine, or I'll sleep on it," a very charming piece, and one that should draw a full house.

Social Gathering. — Wednesday evening, April 2nd, at 7 o'clock, the officers and active workers, the missionaries and the families of the missionaries abroad, the old and all the poor of the First Ward, altogether about 175, met at the Assembly Rooms, on invitation of Bishop Joseph Warburton. Dancing commenced at seven o'clock, luncheon at nine o'clock. During the evening several pieces were played by the First Ward harmonic band, also an organ solo by Sister Emma Warburton.

Apples and candy were passed around freely. Just before luncheon the Bishop and Counselors went around and shook hands with the guests and bade them welcome. The party was arranged by the Bishop, a good feeling prevailed and all enjoyed themselves. The party broke up before 12 o'clock.

MOB INTERFERENCE.

A LITTLE BREEZE CREATED BY BAPTISMS.

Elder E. H. Nye, presiding in the London Conference of the British Mission, in a letter to the Millennial Star, narrates the following:

"On the 14th ult., quite a little incident occurred with Elder George Atkin in the Lambeth Branch. He had appointed to meet some friends at the house of Brother Harding, for the purpose of attending to the ordinance of baptism. Quite a number of the Saints gathered at the house, and, when all was ready, started for the river Thames, close by. On their way to the river they had to pass through a dirty lane that is inhabited by people of the lowest class. There was quite a crowd of the Saints as they passed along, and it created no small stir among the inhabitants of the lane, many of whom, to gratify their curiosity, followed the Saints down to the river, and stood looking on as preparations were made for the water.

The first to go in was a little boy about ten years of age, and when he reached the water's edge he became frightened and began to cry. Thereupon Brother Atkin took him up in his arms and carried him out into the water. Those looking on, seeing this, ran back and told their neighbors, and in a few minutes a large crowd of twenty-five or thirty men and women came running to the water's edge, and began cursing and calling Brother Atkin all the filthy names so common among their class, threatening to go and duck him, etc. Brother Atkin says he did feel a little frightened, but said nothing. After the little boy was baptized, and during a momentary lull in the storm of vile abuse, a young man was led forth into the water. Immediately a howl broke forth that fairly awakened the echoes up and down the old river banks. No notice, however, was taken of it; the ordinance was performed, but when the young man walked out the rabble surrounded, taunted and ridiculed him.

The next to be baptized was a young lady, and when she came out of the water the crowd surrounded her, making fun of, sneering at and mocking her, and treating her in a most shameful manner. Brother Atkin slipped around the crowd and went over to the house of Brother Harding, where he changed his clothes. The Saints returned and were passing the time pleasantly, singing hymns, when the mob surrounded the house, hooting, yelling and "raising Ned" generally till ten o'clock. Two young ladies, strangers, who happened to be at the house of Brother Harding and witnessed this unchristian-like conduct, were so impressed by it that they are now investigating our doctrines and bid fair ere long to become members of the Church.

BROTHER John B. Malben is up from Manti.

Tullidge's Magazine.—We are in receipt of Tullidge's Quarterly for April, containing 224 pages of excellent reading matter, under the following captions: Daniel H. Wells (with steel plate frontispiece). The Young Sculptor of Utah; Our Utah Poets; Autobiagraphy of Wilford Woodruff, (chapter second); History of Spanish Fork; The Battle of Nauvoo; The Old Year (poetry) by Julia Bowring Maltese; Alderman Raleigh, (with steel plate); Life Endeared by Age, essay; Books; Retrospection (a poem) by H. W. Naisbitt; A Gentile Exodus, by George A. Mecars; Seek and Ye Shall Find, (poetry) by W. S. Godbe; The Phenomena of the Rainbow, by Thomas Job; Oliver Cromwell (his life and character), by Edw. W. Tullidge; Charles I of England, by Edw. W. Tullidge; As Through the Land at Eve We Went, (poetry); The Prototype of Don Quixote, by Leo Haefli; An Historical Tale, by Hannah T. King; The History of Salt Lake City, (with steel plate of Mayor Jedediah M. Grant—Part III) 112 pages. This excellent number well repays perusal, and is a credit to its editor. The magazine is the largest in the United States, and is the repository of much useful information.

Bust of Brigham Young.—We had the pleasure a day or two since of visiting the studio of Mr. Harry Brown on the Island. We found him working on a clay model of the late President Brigham Young. Although the young sculptor had only been laboring on this rather larger than full size bust, for scarcely two weeks, he has succeeded in making a most striking model,—which friends and relations well acquainted with the original, claim as being a most perfect and artistic piece of work, excelling a former model made by a San Francisco professional sculptor, and no one, who has closely examined photographs and engravings of the late president, could fail to recognize this bust, even if intermingled with a thousand others.—Logan Journal.

More Than Doubled.—Last Conference only about seventy people came down from the Bear Lake country, starting from Montpelier. To-day one hundred and sixty arrived from the same point. The reason for this is doubtless largely due to the fact that the fare for the round trip has been reduced from $10 to $8. Hon. Wm. Budge represented to Mr. Borland of the U. P., that a reduction would bring about an increase in the number of passengers, and that gentleman very kindly brought about the desired result by laying the subject before the U. P. officials at Omaha.

A Runaway.—About 2 o'clock to-day, a team with the front half of the running gear of a wagon came dashing from the 21st Ward Square past Mrs. Castleton's store. As it passed around one of the blocks, several persons unsuccessfully attempted to capture it, and it continued its course till hidden from the view of our informant. On his way to town, however, he saw lumber strewn along I street, northward from Second street, and two blocks to the east the hind part of the vehicle was visible.

New Trial Granted.—Judge Hunter this morning decided to grant a new trial in the Biddlecome murder case. The Judge would not consent to review the evidence, but said he granted the new trial solely on the ground of newly discovered evidence.

A CASE of assault and battery is before the Police Court this afternoon.

BRITAMNIA STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Those troubled with rheumatism, who have tried other remedies and still are uncured will certainly obtain relief within three days' and generally within six hours by taking Britannia. This great remedy was discovered by an eminent English physician of great experience, and who has never lost a patient to whom this medicine was administered. Britannia is not a lotion; no external application can permanently cure rheumatism, which is a desease of the blood. Britannia is prepared with the greatest skill, and a teaspoonful being taken in a wineglass of cold water immediately finds its way to the bloood, where it corrects the pain-causing element, removes it immediately by purifying the life-giving fluid, and gradually builds up the entire system. Persons who have used this valuable preparation in Utah, tell us that nothing ever helped them as Britannia has done. Many references in Salt Lake City and elsewhere can be given.

Z. C. M. I. drug department is the agent for Utah. A fresh supply lately arrived. Price as usual $2.50 per bottle. Special rates to the trade.

Advocates of prohibition need have no fears of "Prickly Ash Bitters," as it is a medicine, and by reason of its cathartic properties cannot be used as a beverage. It is manufactured from the purest materials, and acts directly on the liver, kidneys, stomach and bowels. As a blood purifier it has no equal. Is pleasant to the taste, and effective in its action.

Iron Bedsteads.—Something nice and substantial in the way of iron bedsteads, a new thing in Utah perhaps, but quite common in England, has been introduced as a home manufacture by Ephraim J. Beach, late of Birmingham, but now of this city. He is an experienced foundryman and iron worker, has been in this country about seven years, and has entered into the new enterprise with a zeal worthy of substantial recognition.

A NEWS reporter visited his workshop at the Church Foundry, 18th Ward, yesterday, and saw perhaps a dozen bedsteads in course of construction, one quite finished, painted and elegantly ornamented with brass and bronze mountings. They are a substantial manufacture, the entire frame being of cast and wrought iron, with sheet iron slats crossed and forming an excellent spring. His work should be seen and will then be appreciated. He offers his bedstead at the exceedingly moderate price of $15.

A REMEDY FOR LUNG DISEASES

Dr. Robert Newton, late President o the Eclectic Collere of the city of New York, and formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio, used Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam very extensively in his practice, as many of his patients, now living, and restored to health by the use of this invaluable medicine, can amply testify. He always said that so good a remedy ought to be prescribed freely by every physician as a sovereign remedy in all cases of lung disease. It cures Consumption, and has no equal for all pectoral complaints.
