GARRISON.

The Lamentable Killing of Frederick Goudy by a Correspondent.

Editor Deseret News:

Garrison, April 2.—Your correspondent has made a slight error in his report of the accident by which Frederick Goudy lost his life. It appeared in the "News" of March 31. The affair was wholly accidental and there was no crowd of young people scuffling in the room. There was no one in the room but Miss Mattie Heckerthorn and, as near as I can learn, the acts of the affair, it was purely an accident. Frederick Goudy was very much esteemed by ever member of my family, and sympathy goes out with his grief-stricken parents, his brother and sister and friends.

Yours respectfully,
E. HECKERTHORN.

GRANTSVILLE.

A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Turned Over With a Load of Hay—Weather-Crop Prospects.

Grantsville, March 30.—A very serious accident took place last Friday on the highway between this place and Stockton, in which Mr. J. A. Fawson dislocated his elbow and killed a horse. It appears that he was taking a load of hay over to Stockton with two span of horses, and in going down the stretchers and the horses got tangled up and over went the load of hay down the embankment, turning over twice before stopping, the driver being on the load. The wagon fell on one of the horses, breaking his neck. J. E. Millward of this place, being on his way to Stockton happened on the scene soon after the occurrence and took Mr. Fawson to Stockton, where he received medical assistance. Dr. Davis promptly set the broken arm, and the young man as comfortable as possible. He was taken home the following day by Mr. Millward and restored to his family in Grantsville, everybody thinks it miraculous that he escaped with his life after such an episode. This is not the first accident that has happened in that particular place and the attention of the county commissioners should be called to that direction.

Whoopingcough has been the prevalent disease among the young babies here since the first of the year. Several have succumbed to this dreadful malady, but it is being reduced to a minimum.

We are having genuine March weather, with intermittent rain, snow and sunshine. Our farmers have been hindered by the storms. We have had considerable snow and rain this winter, the mountains are heavily laden with snow and a better prospect for crops has never been seen for many years.
