Visit With Head of the Church. New York, Dec. 19.—Harry Pulliam, president of the National league, who re-turned Sunday from a trip to Europe, in speaking of his trip last night, said: "I came the nearest I ever have in my life to forgetting baseball while I was away. I had an audiene with the pope, visited the battlefield of Waterloo and saw the tomb of Julieta Verona." Mr. Pulliam did not talk baseball poli-tics, but he said the great American game at length has become a fixed pro-fessional pastime in England. The annual meeting of the National league begins at the Hotel Victoria to-morrow. President Pulliam, his freinds declared, would be re-elected.
