THE OLD RELIABLE

FORT WAYNE AND PENNSYLVANIA R R LINE

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep, hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharge. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils, so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following their use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

Boston, Feb. 23 1875. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

SUFFOLK, ss. Feb. 23, 1875.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

SETH J. THOMAS, Justice of the Peace.

Each package contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, - - March 17, 1879.

Correspondence.

SHADY GROVE, Hickman County, Tenn., March 7th, 1879.

Editors Deseret News:

By suggestion of President Morgan, of the Southern Mission, Bro. Daniel Stuart and myself left here on horseback, (the animals being kindly furnished by Bro. Robert R. Church) on the 13th of December, for a pioneer missionary tour into East Tennessee, traveling as did the disciples of our Savior, entirely without purse or scrip. We penetrated as far east as Knoxville, within about 20 miles of the North Carolina line. And although we traveled without money, as the gospel requires, we made and found friends to feed, shelter and lodge us, etc. This is a hilly, rolling country, well timbered, with some fine little valleys and open lands; soil in many places good and productive; in other parts the soil is thin and produces but little. The country is dotted with villages and farm houses. The people, generally speaking, are in fair circumstances; but there are also thousands of families that are very poor, who find it difficult to obtain the common necessaries of life. Fully one third of the people are outside the pales of any church.

The winter being unusually severe for this section of the country, the thermometer falling several times below zero, we were only able to hold a few public meetings, 13 in all, during an absence of 80 days. At our public gatherings we had an average attendance of about 77 strangers, We had good meetings and attentive hearers. We also taught the truth by the fire side to at least 150 families, many of whom would keep us up till a late hour at night, answering questions and explaining to them the principles of eternal truth. We have been instruments in the hands of God of breaking down much prejudice, and here and there we found a person or family who were favorably and deeply impressed with the truth; and quite a number of persons who promised to send for copies of the Book of Mormon and Voice of Warning and continue their investigations. We had with us a few of C. R Savage's fine views of Salt Lake City, the Great Salt Lake, our mountain scenery, etc, which we showed to many families. They were viewed with interest by all classes of people.

As usual we found priests and editors, with but few exceptions, hostile and bitter in their denunciations against us; but the masses of the people were willing to hear, and some anxious to investigate the subject of the gospel. Near the Clinch River, on this side of Knoxville, we found a worthy family of six souls by the name of Harris, who had been prepared by dreams for our coming, who received us kindly and believed our testimonies in regard to the great latter-day work. They have not yet been baptized, but will be, the first favorable opportunity. They are of Welsh descent and a family of standing and character. They have already sold out their farm, and are winding up their business preparatory to emigration. Mr. H accompanied us three miles on our return, and, when taking leave of us, he was affected to tears.

To-day we mail to 15 families, (friends) copies of the NEWS, and several copies of the "Mormon" women's pamphlets on Plural Marriage. I want us here to say that there are thousands of people in this country who are now exulting over the late decision of the Supreme Court in regard to plural marriage. We have said to gentlemen, while conversing up this subject, that the decision of the "court of last resort," was an absurd and wicked one. If Congress or the Supreme Court has a right to legislate against our doctrine of plural marriage, which is a Bible doctrine, or proscribe us in its practice, why have they not the right to pass a law compelling the Catholic priest to marry? Why not legislate against our mode of baptism, etc. Their object is to break us up as a people; but as sure as there is a God in heaven, the blow aimed at us will fall upon their own heads, unless they repent, and they will be broken to pieces like a potter's vessel. And all men, whether high or low, who violate the sacred constitution and their oath of office will be covered with shame and obloquy.

While absent we traveled about 600 miles, and enjoyed the spirit of our mission, and return feeling well satisfied with our winters work. We have sown the seeds of truth in the hearts of many, and believe that the fruits of our labors will be like bread cast upon the waters to be seen after many days. We returned on the 3rd inst., and were welcomed back by Elder Joseph Argyle and the Saints of this Conference.

Your Brethren in the gospel,

P. P. PRATT,
D. STUART.

A Beautiful Story.

Coleridge relates a story to this effect: Alexander, during his march into Africa, came to a people dwelling in peaceful huts, who knew neither war nor conquest. Gold being offered him, he refused it, saying that his sole object was to learn the manners and customs of the inhabitants. "Stay with us," said the chief, "as long as it pleaseth thee."

During this interview with the African chief, two of his subjects brought a case before him for judgment. The dispute was this: The one had bought a piece of ground which, after the purchase, was found to contain a treasure, for which he felt himself bound to pay. The other refused to accept anything, stating that he had sold the ground with what it might be found to contain, apparent or concealed:

Said the chief, looking at the one: "You have a son," and to the other, "You have a daughter; let them be married, and the treasure given them as a dowry."

Alexander was astonished.

"And what," said the chief, "would have been the decision in your country?"

"We should have dismissed the parties and seized the treasure for the king's use."

"And does the sun shine in your country?" said the chief; "does the rain fall there? Are there any cattle there which feed upon herbs and green grass?"

"Certainly," said Alexander.

"Ah!" said the chief, "it is for the sake of those innocent cattle that the Great Being permits the sun to shine, the rain to fall, and the grass to grow in your country."

HOW MEN GET AHEAD.—A son of Maine, who went west in early youth, and has there obtained wealth and honorable position, returned last summer to visit his old home. At the village store he saw an old man whom he had known in his younger days. He accosted him, but was not recognized. "So you don't remember me," he said; "I'm John R——." "You!" exclaimed the old man; "you don't mean to tell me that you are John R——?" "I certainly am," said the visitor, shaking him by the hand, "and I'm very glad to see you again." "Well," persisted the old man, "I never did. To think that this is you. They tell me you've grown awful rich, John." John admitted that he had "saved something." "And they say you're president of a railroad, and get a big salary." Again John had to admit that rumor spoke truth. I'm glad on it, John! I'm glad on it, my boy! It beats all, what circumstances and cheek will do for a man."—Boston Transcript.
