HOW CHRISTMAS WAS PASSED.

Nearly Every One.

Few Seemed to Care to Wander From Their Firesides - Bauquets at the Public Institutions.

Christmas day, 1901, passed as did the last two or three of its predecessors, without the jingle of sleigh bells, but that did not debar merriment and cheer to enter nearly every heart in the city. Those who had, added to their store of good things, and to those who had not the good things were provided. The benevolent institutions that are active in the city have reduced their work to such a practical system that every hungry and scantily clad urchin is made to realize what the juvenile conception of Christmas is. Their happiness therefore was only equaled by the inward joy that was in the hearts of their benefactors and the result was that the entire city was wreathed in a happy smile, which chased away the blues and the dyspepsia, for the time

One of the conspicuous features of the day was the disposition on the part their own hearthstones. Some of younger inhabitants gathered together their skates and sallied forth to cut stars in the ice, but the older ones remained at home. Some of them, however, repaired to their respective where customary services churches. were held.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL.

At St. Mary's cathedral mass was celebrated in the morning at 7 o'clock, S o'clock, 9 o'clock, and at 11 o'clock potifical high mass was said by Bishop Scanlan. At this service a special feature was the singing and a Christmas sermon preached by Father Morrisey, whose theme was the "Humility and Poverty of Christ. The 9 o'clock service was for children and the little ones who comprise the St. Cecella choir, rendered sacred music. The forenoon services were closed with a papal benediction by

In the afternon amusement was pro-vided for the children. Christmas trees and after the little ones had danced to their hearts' content, Santa Claus put in his appearance and passed a bag of candy to each child.

A delightful Christmas eve was given by Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Tidyman at their home, for the benefit of the sectarian Sunday school teachers present and by the help of a Chalatma tree, together with Santa Claus, and his brother, who distr buted presents to the children, a most happy time was spent.

STATE PRISON. The only think unsual at the state orison yesterday was the dinner and that, in the language of one of the wellfed prisoners, was a "Hm-crack." There were no services or exercises of any kind but as fine a dinner as the state could provided was spread out before her erring children.

POSTMASTER THOMAS HERE

Sen. Kearns and Representative Sutherland Both Endorsed Him.

NO FRICTION BETWEEN THEM

Eastern People Beginning to Realize That Something Must be Done to Relieve Western Aridly.

Postmaster A. L. Thomas returned yesterday from Washington and the East in time to eat a big fat turkey with his family. He said there were no difficulties attending his renomination as postmaster of Salt Lake City for a second term of four years as he had the endorsement of both Senator Kearns and Congressman Sutherland. These endorsements were entirely voluntary, and Mr. Sutherland stated that many Salt Lake business men had written to them urging the reappointment on account of the efficiency of the postoffice administration in this city. the senator and congressman were working hard in the interest of the state, and that the results of their labors would be evidenced before long. Action by the Senate on the renomination will be taken immediately after the holiday recess. Mr. Thomas was greatly pleased to receive telegraphic congratulations from the employes of the Salt Lake office while in the Eas on his reappointment, and has posted written acknowledgment of thanks in the distributing rom in the postoffice. The postmaster says the department at Washington has determined to increase the postal facilities in this city and vicinity, particularly in the enlargement of the business district delivery, and making it more fre quent. The mounted service will probbe increased and more modern conveniences will be placed in the local office. Governor Thomas failed to note any of the reported friction between Senator Kearns and Congressman Suther-As to the federal building the plan is to have the postoffice on ground floor, with the United States court and offices of the marshal, district attorney, register and receiver of the land office and surveyor general on the floors above. Mr. Thomas brings the welcome assurance that eastern people are beginning to realize that something must be done to relieve western aridity, and legislation on this subject may be looked for confidently from Congress. The President is very much in favor of it. Governor Thomas says it is difficult to tell what will be the result of the agitation on leasing vation. He is glad to get back to Salt

WILL CLAWSON'S WORK. San Francisco Papers Speak Glowingly of It.

A bundle of San Francisco papers just at hand contain flattering mention of the works of Will Clawson, the artist, which are on exhibition in San Francisco at the annual display of the Bohemlan club. The Examiner says:

There is a stunning portrait of Ruth Kirkpatrick, done in the richest, warmest tones by J. W. Clawson, and another by the same artist of little Alice Tevis, daughter of the late Hugh Tevis. An exquisite full-length panel portrait of Miss Annie Apperson, done in low, cool tones, adorns the south wall, and one in totally different Rembrandt style of President Wheeler of the state university is shown opposite.

The following is from the Call:

J. W. Clawson, the portrait artist, is back from Del Monte and is hard at work in his studio. This year Mr. Clawwho is always lucky in securing beautiful subjects to inspire his artistic soul, is more to be envied than ever, for even that statuesque beauty Miss Joan Hadenfeldt, whose portrait was the sensation of last year's club exhi bition, will have a rival in Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick, a Salt Lake belle who has journeyed to our coast for the winter months Not only has Miss Kirkpatrick a complexion of pure transparent olive, that will spur any artist on to his highest efforts, but she has an easy pose and a characteristic tilt of the chin which is admirable. Mr. Clawson, contrary to his usual habit, is painting the costume in a riot of color, a royal purple gown, over which is worn an elaborate broidered kimono of red, trimmed with a cape and border of the soft-toned fur of the golden fox

The effect with her dark beauty is enchanting.

PRESENTS FOR BOSSES. Laborers on "News" Building Distrib: nte Christmas Gifts.

What proved to be a very pleasant affair and a surprise to those honored occurred at the Deseret News building Christmas eve. The entire working force had contributed a considerable sum and early in the evening gathered in the building and made gifts to the following bosses: W. S. Burton, an elegant leather couch; Robert Roden, a combination book case, with writing desk, and a fine set of drawing toous; J. W. A. Timms, a set of drawing tools and Miss Eva Burton, secretary to W. S. Burton, was given $10. Some $13 being left it was divided between the two oldest men working on the building. Henry Lewis and W. R. Adkins. D. T. Thomas made the presentation speech in behalf of the men, and W. C. Brown spoke in behalf of the recipients. remarks made by both speakers ex hibited a feeling of regard and cordiality, which exist between the men and their bosses and the happy affair terminted in mutual expressions of good cheer and congratuations. The mittee on arrangements were, D. 'Thomas, W. L. Butler and O. Nilson.
