Taking Down a Lawyer.

A story is told of a very eminent lawyer in New York receiving a severe reprimand from a shrewd witness on the stand, whom he was trying to browbeat. It was an important issue, and, in order to save his cause from defeat, it was necessary that Mr. A—— should impeach the witness. He endeavored to do it on the ground of age. The following dialogue ensued:

Lawyer—How old are you?

Witness—Seventy-two years.

Lawyer—Your memory, of course, is not so brilliant and vivid as it was twenty years ago, is it?

Witness—I don't know but it is.

Lawyer—State some circumstances which occurred, say twelve years ago, and we shall be able to see how well you can remember.

Witness—I appeal to your honor if I am to be interrogated in this manner—it is insolent.

Judge—Yes, sir; state it.

Witness—Well, sir, if you compel me to do it, I will. About twelve years ago, you studied in Judge B——'s office, did you not?

Lawyer—Yes.

Witness—Well, sir, I remember your father coming into my office and saying to me, "Mr. D., my son is to be examined to-morrow, and I wish you would lend me fifteen dollars to buy him a suit of clothes. 'I remember, also, sir, that from that day to this he has never paid me that sum. That, sir, I remember as though it had been but yesterday."

Lawyer (considerably abashed)—That will do, sir.

Witness—I presume it will.

SMALL SAVINGS.—The true secret of frugality is to lay up small savings. Begin with three cents, now, this very day, and every day contrive to save a three cent piece. At the end of the year you will have $10.95. This sum would buy some good tools, or a neat piece of household furniture, or useful article of dress.
