Payson Reader. At the last general meeting of the Payson Reading Club, held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Wainwright, on Monday evening, December 1st, the following program was presented: "The Payson Reader," by W. H. Wainwright, who read a paper on the history of the town of Payson, and the progress of the town since its founding. The paper was well received, and the club was very much interested in the history of the town.

Light National. The home of O. M. Anderson, at Payson, was burned Friday night at about 10 o'clock. The fire started in the kitchen, and spread rapidly, burning the house and the contents. The loss was estimated at $10,000. The fire was caused by a gas stove, which was not properly adjusted.

Brigham City. Saturday about 4 a. m. and early Tuesday morning there were two distinct earthquakes. The first was felt by people living in the city, and the second was felt by people living in the country. The earthquakes were caused by the movement of the earth's crust.
