POLICE NEWS.

F. E. Milbitz, who operates a rooming house at 202 West Third South sireet. is in trouble. Apparently his boarders The shares were placed at the par val-ue of $1 per share. The amount of capi-tal stock will depend, of course, upon the generosity with which the people are of the Box and Cox order and when half of them sleep, the others are at play. As a consequence there is discord in the boarding house. Mr. Milbitz gave two of the worst offenders ten days' notice a couple of days ago, and now he says the gentlemen come home with the milkman and execute a step dance and sing ribald songs in their room until the other boarders arise in the majority of their wrath and say unkind things. Mr. Milbitz told Protector Dailt this morning that this ment associations, to take stock in this company, and thus assist a worthy home industry and lay the foundation Prosecutor Deihl this morning that this can be made a success, and will eventu-ally prove very profitable to the people of this section. We desire the people to take this stock and reap the full bene-fit. There is a profit of at least 600 per thing had to stop; the young police court clerk concurred in the sentiment and proceeded to draw up a warrant for the arrest of the jovial boarders with musical tastes. The proprietor at this juncture insinuated that it would be infra dig, for him to swear out a complaint charging his guests with disturbing the peace and went away in a high dudgeon.

MISS MAESER'S FUNERAL.

Closing of the Last Chapter in the Career of the Young Woman.

The body that once held the pure and gentle spirit of Anna C. Mueser was tenderly laid away yesterday afternoon, with most impressive ceremony.

Miss Maeser, as has already been stated, was the daughter of Professor Karl G. Maeser, and the betrothed of the late Dr. Harry A. Young, who was endowed with some of heavens choic-est gifts, and the only child of her mother, who showered upon her the fullness of her maternal affections. To or the loss is unspeakable.

The funeral services were held in the Nineteenth ward meeting house, and were the most touching that have been where the most country that have been held there for a long time. Every mind was dwelling upon the pathetic life story of the deceased, and the tears that were kept back by strong effort, suffused every eye when that story was elequently alluded to by the speakers. The services were conducted by Bishop Isaac Barton, the music being furnished by the Nineteenth ward choir. Mrs. Lizzle Thomas-Edwards sang, "Angels Ever Bright and Fair," in a sweet and sympathetic manner. The first speaker was Dr. J. E. Tal-mage. He had been acquainted with the deceased many versa and in mage. He had been acquainted with the deceased many years, and in pathetic and eloquent tones portrayed the rate character of the young lady. He referred to Miss Maeser's betrothal to Dr. Harry Young and tenderly called attention to the fate of that in-

MAJOR BRETT COMING HOME

Former Captain of the Twenty-Fourth Incapacitated from Service.

Major James E. Brett reached San Francisco today on the way home from the Philippines, arriving on the transport Belgian King. The major's Salt Lake friends will give him a warm welcome when he reaches here. They will be sorry to learn, however, that he is incapacitated from duty at this time. Just what is the trouble is not known, but it is thought that he has not thoroughly recovered from the wound re-ceived in the battle of El Caney in Cuba where he fought gallantly with his regiment-the invincible Twentyfourth.

When the major left here on the 27th of March last he was only a captain. His promotion came with the organization of the new volunteer regiments and he was appointed to the Fortyand he was appointed to the Forty-eighth, but unfortunately has not been able to do service with it on account of the illness that brings him back to his home and people
