Pacific Railroads to the narrow gauge of the Utah and Northern doubt that it will be done in a Lake Stake of Zion-Angus M. Cannon, David O. Calder and Jo-Railroad.

This is the new name of the road and the title of a new company which has been formed by a coalition between the stockholders of the old company and some of the leading stockholders and Directors of the Union Pacific. The stock will be called in and new certificates issued as paid up shares. U. N. Vouchers will be settled for in stock certificates at the face figures of the vouchers instead of double the amount. The stock, by this arrangement will be unassessable, and will have a substantial value in the market.

The Directors of the Utah and Northern Railroad are? Boyal M. Bassett, Sidney Dillon, Jay Gould, Joseph Richardson, John Sharp, Monroe Saliabury, Benjamin Richardson, Moses Thatcher, W. B. Preston, George W. Thatcher, M. W. Merrill, Lorin Farr, Samuel Smith and Milton D. Hammond. A Director's meeting will be held this evening at Ogden when the officers for the ensuing year will be elected.
