

WAR WITH YAQUI INDIANS ENDED

Three Chiefs and Followers Sign Treaty of Peace With Governor of Sonora, Mexico.

WAS A REMARKABLE SCENE

Mexican Soldiers Embraced the Braves, Celebration of Event Lasting All Night Long.

Nogales, Ariz., Dec. 29.—The long war with Yaqui Indians in Mexico, in which scores have been killed at different times, including many Americans, has been terminated in a treaty of peace agreed upon by three Indian chiefs and 66 of their followers and the governor of the state of Sonora, Mexico.

The scene enacted at the treaty agreement was a remarkable one, concluding with the Mexican soldiers embracing the Yaquis and participating in a celebration lasting all night. The constitution, the official paper of Sonora, gives the particulars of the formal declaration of peace.

The conference took place at Nogales, in the Yaqui country, Dec. 24. At 4 o'clock Monday three Yaqui captains appeared and requested permission to bring 166 of their armed followers to hold a conference with the state representatives. The conference took place in the tent of Commander Luis Barron of the regular army.

Three old Yaquis acted as spokesmen. All those at war taking of sandals and hats and crossing arms over their breasts, appeared before the assembled officials and make their requests.

First was a guarantee of their lives, liberty and a pardon for past offenses, which was granted by the governor on condition of their submission being complete.

Second was a request for a return of their people deported to Yucatan, to which the governor replied that it would depend on the conduct of those now surrendering.

They requested the retention of arms, to which the governor replied that the captains and a certain number of men acting as guards, all to be in service and pay of the state, would be allowed to retain arms.

Several other requests, relating to their religious feasts, etc., were readily granted.

The other chiefs then turned to their followers and, in a loud voice, asked them if they agreed to all the terms, to which all as one voice replied, "Egul, Egul," meaning "Yes."

The old chiefs then thanked Commander Barron and Captain Cota for their intervention, and acclaimed thanks to God, and the virgin saints, saying:

"We ask no more, thank God, than that on Christmas eve, peace has been declared."

A number of Mexican soldiers rushed forward and embraced the Yaqui warriors, and a general jollification was soon in progress. As previously arranged, formal peace will be ratified Jan. 4.

REWARD OF KINDNESS.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—West Freeman of this city has fallen heir to more than $3,000 as a reward for a kindness done an aged woman seven years ago.

While in London in 1901 Freeman saw a woman knocked down by a cab. He went to her assistance and carried her to his room. He received a portion of her estate by will.

CLAUS SPRECKELS' WILL.

Filed for Probate, Estate Being Estimated at $50,000,000.

San Francisco, Dec. 29.—The will of the late Claus Spreckels, which was executed in New York, May 11, 1907, was filed today with the county clerk. Under its terms the widow, Anna Christina Spreckels, is given a life interest in the estate, which, after her death, is to be divided between her three children, Claus A. Spreckels, Rudolph Spreckels and Mrs. John Ferris of Kingswood, England, formerly Miss

The Stomach Does Not Cause Dyspepsia

Neither Will It Cure It Because The Lack of Gastric Juices Prohibit Relief.

The stomach is a strong, powerful organ, which is composed of muscles of great strength. It is filled during digestion with gastric juices which, when the stomach is emptying and compressing the food, dissolve it and separate the nourishment from the waste matter. If, however, these gastric juices are lacking, the stomach is not capable of digesting its food because it has not the tools with which to work successfully.

The gastric juices when in a perfect state do away with all foul odors, fermentation and decay, reduce the food to a disintegrated mass and the stomach then presses it into the intestines where another form of digestion takes place. Then the intestines take from this mass of food all that is nourishing and give it to the blood. The waste matter is thrown out of the system.

If instead of nourishment the intestines receive impure deposits combined with a poisonous and imperfect gastric juice, it can be readily seen that they must turn out such imperfect nourishment into the blood. The blood then being unable to give each part of the body that which it requires, becomes impoverished and disease is spread broadcast.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets corrects such a condition at once. If the gastric juices are lacking and imperfect these tablets do their work just the same. They build up the elements in the juice which are lacking and remove those elements which cause disturbance.

Meat, grains, fluids, vegetables and delicacies, in fact each portion of a large meal have been placed in a glass vial and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have digested them to a perfect fluid just as a healthy stomach would do.

A large complex, hearty meal holds no terrors for a dyspeptic if Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used. Abnormal eating, late dinners, rich foods cause ill effects to the stomach, but when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used one may eat when and what one will without danger of dyspepsia or discomfort.

Forty thousand physicians endorse and prescribe Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and every druggist carries them in stock. Write for a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Emma Spreckels. The testament recites that the other two sons, John D. and Adolph, have been liberally provided for during the life of the testator. The value of the estate is not given, but it has been estimated as high as $50,000,000.

Claus A. and Rudolph Spreckels are appointed executors of the estate, without bonds.

Mrs. Anna Spreckels, who is now 78 years old, will receive the net income of the properties while she lives, after which the three legatees will share alike, except for the provision that Mrs. Ferris' portion is to revert to the estate in case she dies without children before the death of her mother.

In the event of Claus A. or Rudolph Spreckels dying before their mother the share of the deceased is to be equally divided among the surviving children. Claus A. and Rudolph Spreckels are appointed executors of the will without bonds and trustees with absolute power to make such disposition of the properties as they see fit without being liable for any losses that may be sustained.

The witnesses to the will are William Cook, a prominent lawyer of New York; Thomas B. Jones and Richard T. Thompson, the latter two of Brooklyn. The will was filed for probate by Rudolph Spreckels and Charles A. Wheeler, his attorney, together with a petition for probate.

MURDERED HIS WIFE.

Carl Breitlag Said She Bothered Him Too Much.

New York, Dec. 29.—Suspicion aroused by the fact that Carl Breitlag, a laborer of South Brooklyn, had had the floor of his house cellar concreted three weeks ago caused the police today to make a visit to the residence, and in the corner of the cellar two feet under the concrete, disinterred Mrs. Breitlag's body. Breitlag, who had made strenuous objections to the announced intention of the police to dig the cellar bottom, was present when the job was begun. Finding them in earnest about the task, he pointed to a corner of the cellar and said to them, according to their story:

"You'll find her anyway; she's over there."

Mrs. Breitlag's body was found in the spot indicated and Breitlag was placed under arrest, charged with murdering the woman. The police say he told them he choked her to death on the day her disappearance was reported, Dec. 6.

"She bothered me too much," he is reported to have stated as the reason for the crime.

Itch! Itch! Itch—Scratch! Scratch! The more you scratch the worse the itch. Try Doan's Ointment. It cures piles, eczema, any skin itching. All druggists sell it.

HARD COLDS. People whose blood is pure are not nearly so likely to take hard colds as are others.

Physiology goes into the reason. Blood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure, causing healthy action of the mucous membrane and giving strength and tone to all the organs and functions.

The great medicine recovers the system after a cold, as no other does.

MARITAL TROUBLES OF CAPT. PETER C. HAINS, JR.

Plushing, Dec. 29.—The marital troubles of Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., and his story of the estrangement with his wife, Claudia Hains, came out in the trial of Thornton J. Hains today, when Samuel C. Reid, a government building inspector at North Chicago, related conversations he had last June with Capt. Hains, in which he knew the causes that led to the separation of the captain and his wife. The testimony of what Capt. Hains said was permitted by Justice Crane at having a bearing on the mental condition of the army officer at that time.

Mr. Reid stated that Capt. Hains told him that his wife had confessed that she loved Amos Crane. Hains evinced signs of great mental distress in the narration of his troubles, the witness said.

Mr. Reid is said by counsel for the defense to be a brother of Princess Rasputin of Rome, and comes from Kentucky. He is a grandson of S. C. Reid, who commanded the privateer Gen. Armstrong in the battle at Paval, Arizona, during the war of 1812.

Just before the morning session was called Mrs. William E. Annis and Mrs. Charles Birchfield took seats within the rail. Mr. McIntyre objected to the presence of the state's witnesses and Justice Crane said that while he did not see the necessity of it, he would enforce the rule, and exclude the witnesses from both sides, but would not exclude Gen. Hains, who was aiding the counsel in the case.

NUMBER "445."

Put on Door Post, Throws People of Englewood, Ill., Into a Panic.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—The appearance of the mystic number "445" on the front door post coincident with the opening of the houses so decorated has thrown the residents of Englewood into a panic. More than 20 apartments have been visited in the last two weeks and at each the number has been found just about the door bell. In one house $1,100 was stolen and several notes were returned later by mail with the apologies of the burglars.

CHOKED TO DEATH

Is commonly said of babies who have died of the croup. How unnecessary this is. No child ever had croup without having a cold or cough at the start. If you will stop the first symptom of the cough with Ballard's Cough Syrup there is no danger whatever of croup. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, 112 and 114 South Main Street.

CANADIANS ARE FAST ACCUMULATING MONEY

Washington, Dec. 30.—Canadians are accumulating money faster than the banks and business men can dispose of it in profitable investments, declares Consul Seyfort, commenting on a remarkable condition in Canada's financial affairs as reflected in the October bank statement issued from Ottawa. Bank deposits in Canada during October increased $11,362,879, while the business of the country absorbed in current and call loans only $3,522,014.

The several million dollars increase in bank deposits is due to the fact that the people of the rural districts have plenty of money. A favorable condition is also the early movement of the crops for which the farmers were paid promptly.

JOHN V. FARWELL MAY GO INTO CABINET

Chicago, Dec. 30.—The Record-Herald today prints the following news article under an Augusta, Ga., date:

The newest name suggested for a member of Mr. Taft's cabinet is John V. Farwell of Chicago, a former mer Yale man, and one of the best known business men of the western metropolis. It is likely that Farwell will be asked to take the portfolio of secretary of the interior. Mr. Ballinger of Washington has been mentioned for the place, and it was considered possible for a time that James R. Garfield would continue at his post. It is certain now, however, that Mr. Garfield will be made an ambassador, probably at Rome. It is believed now that Mr. Ballinger has been eliminated.

FOR AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.
