All of these elders stated that as a result of their labors, warm friends have been made of bitter enemies. Es-pecially in the towns where they have labored for any length of time, are their friends numerous. At Huron two have applied for baptism, and they have many other sincere investigators. DESERET EVENING NEWS SATURDAY DECEMBER 25 1900 to have been written two days pre-vious to his death. In all our visions in which we in-dulged of gathering to Zion, however distant in the future the prospect of realization might have appeared, the thought of meeting Brother Musser in the fields invariably formed a promi-nent feature thereof. For we in the Karachi branch, as well as this coun-try at large, owe much to Brother Musser. No sooner was the Karachi branch established, more than six years ago, than he opened correspondence with it, for he had already established a link of association with this country, by service rendered to it in the capacity of a missionary more than 50 years previously. The correspondence thus commenced he sustained with unflag-ging interest literally up to his death-bed, as will be noticed from the above; and keeping us as it did in touch with Zion, it was a source of inestimable pleasure, instruction and service to us. And in various other ways he did us many favors, not the least of, which was his spontaneous invitation to us to send him the names and partleulars of our dead, so that with the help of his family, he might have the temple ordinances necessary for their salva-tion performed; and not only was this service rendered to our own kith and kin, but he further destred us to fur-nish him with similar data in respect of good, noble and illustrious persons, more or less well known in Tndia, whether they were Europeans, Eurasi-ans, or Indians, as he wished to open the prison doors for as many as possians, or Indians, as he wished to open the prison doors for as many as possi-ble of such persons connected with ble of such persons connected with India. Thus did Brother Musser prove him-self possessed in an extraordinary de-gree of the spirit of a savior on Mount Zion; and the obligation the Karachi branch in particular, and India in general, is under to him in this respect will doubtless not be fully realized until we meet in the next estate and are able to appreciate the true essentiality and signification of such ordinances. But all the same, we do know that by Elder Musser's death we have lost a great friend and benefactor, and we desire to have conveyed to the members of his family, and especially to those who co-operated with him in the temple ordi-nances performed on our behalf, a deep sense of our appreciation for all that he, with their aid, has done for us, and a strong feeling of our sympathy in the great loss they have suffered in his death. It may be somewhat con-very wide circle over which Brother Musser's influence for good has extend-ed They would assuredly love to think of their dear husband, father, relative, as do we of our friend and brother, not India.

as one whose life and labors had come to a termination, but as one who is con-summating and perfecting that life and those labors in another sphere. We trust you will convey our mes-sage to the members of Brother Mus-ser's family, and assure them of the loving regard and esteem in which the members of the Karachi branch will ever hold Brother Musser and all those connected with him. May God bless them, will always be the prayer of the members. HENRY J. LILLEY, President Karachi Branch.

some present, nearly all of whom hold some position in the stake or various wards. The speakers at the Saturday after-noon session were President L. A. Snow, of the stake presidency, Elders Grant and McMurrin. The subjects treated were proper amusements, what the Church does in the way of provid-ing schools, and the necessity of the people keeping out of debt. This session of the conference was en-livened by the singing of the "Corianton Male Quartet," that company being in this city appearing at the Opera House. Sunday morning dawned rather win-try, which accounted for the lighter attendance at the morning session, which usually finds the tabernacle fill-ed to the doors. An excellent program was rendered under the direction of the Sunday schools after which Elders Grant and McMurrin addressed the children. Elder Grant also favored the meeting with a solo. The attendance at the Sunday after-noon meeting was not as large as it usually is, due no doubt to the stormy weather. The session, however, was a most enjovable one. After the authori-ties had been presented and sustained, with a number of changes in the stake organizations, Elders McMurrin and Grant addressed the meeting on the subject of the mission and calling of Joseph Smith, and bore powerful testi-monies to the divinity of his mission. Sunday evening, the Mutual Improve-ment associations had charge of the meeting, which was given over to mak-ing brief reports of the work, a short musical program and excellent ad-dresses by the visitors. The quarterly conference of the Davis stake of Zion was held at Kaysville on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 18 and 19, President Joseph H. Grant presiding. The conference was favored with the presence of Elder Jonathan G. Kim-ball on Saturday and Elder Orson F. Whitney on Sunday. The time on Sat-urday was devoted to instructions to the priesthood, a meeting of the high priests of the stake in the morning and a general priesthood meeting in the afternoon being held. Both were well attended, 350 being present at the afternoon meeting. On Sunday Presi-dent Joseph H. Grant gave a compreattended, 350 being present at the afternoon meeting. QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

OF BOXELDER STAKE

The quarterly conference of the Bear Lake stake was held at Paris, Ida., on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 4 and 5. In consequence of cold weather and rough roads from recent storms, the at-tendance was not as good as usual, but it was an excellent conference from first to last. The remarks made by all the speakers were given under the in-fuence of the spirit of the Lord. Elders George F. Richards of the council of twelve and Charles H. Hart of the first council of seventies were present and spoke at all the meetings. The Boxelder quarterly held in the stake tabernacle at Brigham City Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 4 and 5, was one of the best conferences ever held in this stake. The visitors were Elders Heber J. Grant of the council of apostles, and Joseph W. McMurrm of the first council of seventies. On Saturday morning, all the stake and ward officers met in a conjoint meeting, it being the day for the regu-lar monthly officers' meeting, and ex-cellent instructions were given by the visiting brethren. There were 570 per-sons present, nearly all of whom hold some position in the stake or various wards.

President Joseph R. Shepherd gave a very good report of the condition of the stake and gave some wise and seasonable counsel to the saints, and so did also his counselors, William L. Rich and Wilford W. Richards. Elders Thomas R. Wilkes who filled a mission in South Africa and Morgan J. Rich who labored in England and a short time in the Eastern States, gave very interesting reports of their labors in their respective missionary fields. Principal Ernest Branwell gave a flattering report of the Fielding academy, both in regard to attendance and the work done in the school. The general Church and stake au-thorities were presented by President Shepherd on Sunday afternoon, the vote to sustain them being unanimous. Delightful music was rendered by the choir under the leadership of Elder Lorenzo T. Shepherd. A Religion class meeting was held on

SAINT JOSEPH STAKE CONFERENCE

The quarterly conference of the St. Joseph stake was held at Thatcher, Ariz. Dec. 4 and 5, 1999. All of the meetings were well attended by both members of the church and visitors. There were present of the general au-thorities and visitors from Utah, Eld-ers John Henry Smith, Rudger Clawson and Rulon S. Wells, also Sister Susa Y. Gates and Sister Romney. The stake presidency, high council, and other of-ficers were present. Reports given indicated a prosperous condition everywhere, with very little sickness or troubles. Nearly all of the speaking was done by the visitors, to-gether with reports of recently returned missionaries. The quarterly conference of the St.

Doctrinal subjects were dwelt upon but little; instead the speakers bore testimony, related faith-promoting in-cidents and experiences, or exhorted the saints to live lives of purity and honor in the kingdom of God. Special meetings were held in the Primary association, seventy's quorum and genealogical association. They were looked after by Sister Romney, Elder Rulon S. Wells and Sister Gates re-spectively. A meeting of the Mutual Improve-ment associations was held Sunday eve-ning, at which Elder LeRoi C. Snow was in attendance, together with the other visitors from Utah. JOS. H. LARSON, now beyond the danger point. He can now walk about the room and will soon be able to leave the hospital. Elder Prince reports the mission work at Little Rock as being in a prosperous condition. Many are interested and are investigating the gospel. The heavy fall of snow and zero weather which greeted the elders here was a very radi-cal change from that in Arkansas, where they left the roses in full bloom. Reports from the elders throughout the fleld are in general good, but the real winter that has covered the north-ern part of the mission has naturally enough retarded vigorous country work. Elders Orme and Gallagher of Match-itoches, La. were granted the use of the Christlan church where they were greeted by an audience of very inter-casted listeners. Somewhat similar re-port comes from Elders Andrus and Simpkins laboring about Corsicanna, Texas. At Webb City the elders are profit-ing from the preaching of Billy Sun-day, the revivalist. His attack on Mormonism has only aided in excit-ing in the minds of the people a desire to know more of the teachings of this peculiar people.
