LOCAL BRIEFS

Edward Ray, charged with making ar issault on Max Blank, with intent to kill, has been held over to the district court by Justice Clark under a bond of $250.

The First Unitarian society will hold special meeting tomorrow evening at a pecial meeting tomorrow evening at a pecience, 125 East Temple street. All memors are urged to be present, as business of importance will be transacted.

The lack of drinking cups at the fountains in Liberty park is said by Manager Zimmerman to be due to boys stealing them. He suggests that it would be well for the city council to buy extra strong ones and fasten them with long, heavy chains which the young hoodlums cannot break.

John C. Hayt of Park City, who has been ill for several months from muscular rheumatism, is now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newitt on east South Temple street, in quite a serious condition, the gentleman having suffered a relapse. Mr. Hayt is a brother of F. W. Hayt of Park City, and Mrs. Richard A. Keyes of Salt Lake.

Two intoxicated soldiers started a quartel on a Second South street ear last night at Eighth East. At that point they got off the ear to fight it out. Several soldiers and a large number of civilians got off the car, formed a ring, and let the two belligerents go at it. One of the bystanders called up the police, but the crowd had dispersed and the soldiers were on a carbail way to the post before the officers got to the scene of the fight.

PAVING DELAY. Summer is Speeding on, but No Action Has Been Taken.

The city council committees on streets and finance took no definite action on the South Temple street paving proposition last night and the whole matter went over for one week. There is some dispute as to which plan has the largest following among the residents and property owners. It is contended that Col. Wall's plan has 85 per cent of the property owners in its favor, while the opposition contends that only two people on the street are in favor

METAL WORKERS QUIT. Leave the Trades Council and Wil Adjust Their Own Grievruces.

The metal workers quit the Trades Council last evening, and hereafter will adjust their own grievances without going to the council for counsel. The bosses agree to employ only union men, pay union wages, and give union hours. The contract remains in force until Sept. 1, 1904. So after a vacation lasting since July 5, the men return to work. The agreement is as follows: Sait Lake City, Utah, July 16, 1993.— This agreement made and entered into between the Amalgamated Sheet Metal between the Amalgamated Silver Workers' International Alliance, local union No. 121, of Salt Lake City, and the Sheet Metal Workers' Employers the 15th of July, of Sait Lake City on the 15th of July,

We, the sheet metal worker em-ployers of Salt Lake City, hered, agree employ members of the said alliance exclusively, including helpers and apprentices, when such members can be obtained, and to uphold the present scale of wages and hours, namely, eight hours per day, seven hours on Saturday, and to pay 50 cents per hour, and to work in harmony with said association as far as possible, and to decider no lockout against the above air to recognize the above alliance and to ance during the term of the contract The officers and members of the bove local union No. 121, also hereby agree to work for the present scale of wages and hours as before mentioned during the term of this agreement, and to at once withdraw from the Building Trades Council and to work for said sheet metal worker employers on any job belonging to the trade, of whatsojob belonging to the trace, of whatever ever kind, regardless of any other con-tractor, or employe of other contractor, and to submit all grievances to their employers for adjustment before leav-lng their work, and will make no new demands or declare any strike during the term of the contract.

This agreement to take effect at once and continue in force until Sept. 1, 1904.

STRAWBERRY RESERVOIR. Question of Constructing One on Uintah Reservation, Considered.

The proposition of constructing a storage reservoir on the Uintah reservation in the Strawberry valley for reclaiming a tract of land approximating 50,000 acres, was considered at length yesterday by the state board of land commissioners. The subject is rather a complex one and there are many features to be considered. The Legislature last winter appropriated $3,000 for making preliminary surveys and securing data as to the feasibility of the reclaiming of arid landa. The act also provides that only one-half of the amount appropriated could be used on any one proposition. It is necessary that the board determine where the expenditures shall be made. There is also a probability that the national govern-ment may take up the same scheme in connection with the Utah lake proposiconnection with the Utah hake proposi-tion. A further complication lies in the fact that the reservation will not be opened until October next, so that until that occurs and the settlers' locations are made, and the Indian allotments have been selected, the state authorities would be working on decidedly uncertain grounds.

The question was deferred until the meeting a month hence, when informa-tion throwing further light on the subject may have been secured. What to do Until the Doctor Arrives. If it is a case of colic or cholera morbus give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and you will have no need of a doctor. For sale by all druggists.

PROMPTNESS URGED. Postmaster Thomas Asks Merchants to Mail Letters on Time.

Postmaster Thomas has issued a circircular advising local merchants to be more prompt in mailing their letters. The document says:

"At the present time a large proportion of the mail from business houses is not mailed until late in the evening, and very often just befor the time of dispatching the out-going mails. The result is that important letters, business circulars and publications are not dispatched by the first mail, as they should be. If the mail is deposited in the office or in the street letter boxes mor frequently during the day it will give the clerks ample time for handling and dispatch. "The speedy dispatch of mail is a maiter of great moment. In aid of this the postoffice should have the co-operation of the business public, who are pecially interested in a rapid mail ser

DEATH SEEMED TO AWAIT THEM

Many Lives Were in Jeopardy When Big Endeavor Tent Fell.

UTAH PEOPLE AMONG THEM

For Several Minutes the Scene Was One Of Great Confusion, but Fortunately No Lives Were Lost.

Utah people who attended the Christlan Endeavor convention at Denver are returning, and some of them who were in the great Endeavor tent when it blew down, remark that they do not want to pass through any more such experiences. For five minutes, several hundred of the 6,000 people in that tent expected immediate death as those great poles went flying through the air like death dealing flails, smashing benches, knocking down are lights, and playing havoc generally. The air was so thick with dust that one could hardly see over 50 feet, and the roar of the yelone and the snapping of the flapping canvas, as it bellied and rolled in the winds, filled the crowds beneath with terror. A noted English preacher was on the stand when the blast came. and he fied just in time, as an immens stand. There were some 30 arc lamp in the tent, and they, too, fell in grea orfusion. But for the thoughtfulness of the woman in the hospital tent who phoned the electric light company to shut off the current a number of people would have been badly burned, in not electrocuted. People were too busy dodging poles to think of fainting, but number of men courageously grabbed several of the nig poles, and hung onto them, until the tent fell. The canvas acted like a parachute, and gradually settled down, codering hundreds of people in its folds, and it was some thing of a sight to see men and women emerging from beneath through the rents of the great fabric.

It was a remarkable fact that the women considerately refrained from fainting until after it was all over and then they toppled over in bunches It was also remarkable that no secred to lose his presence of mind. The women did not scream, and everybody appeared to have their wits about them. Lots of hats and purses were lost for the time, but most of these were found later. Quiet was restored in a short time, and the evening serwere held in the different

HOLDUP NUMBER TWO. Another Street Car Crew Robbed or The East Side Last Night.

The holding up of streetcar crews promises to be an industry in Salt Lake. The second affair of this nature occurred at 11:15 last night on the East First South line near Thirteenth East. This makes two holdups inside of a, week in that vicinity. Car No. 72, in charge of Conductor G. McAllister and Motorman C. E. Harris, had reached the east end of the line and was just about to re-turn down town when the holdup took place. Owing to the fact that the mo-terman and conductor had changed places for a few minutes, the robber went after the wrong man, for the proceeds, with the result that his effort netted him $3.90 in coln and a lead dollar, $2.90 being the property of the motorman. He overlooked more than $20 that the conductor who was at the cont end had in an inside pocket. The fellow was decidedly cross over the outcome and said some harsh things ere he faded away in the darkness. The car had stopped at the end of the line at the time indicated and the crew was preparing to return to town, when Harris stepped through the car o fix the trolley, which was off the vire. At this juncture he ran into a man whom at first he took to be an old gentleman with a white beard. roved that the fellow had a white andkerchief over the lower part of his ace. The holdup told Harris to throw up his hands. The motorman at first took the matter as a joke, but when he looked into a big gun he concluded that he had better do as he was bid. It was then that the robber went brough his pockets.

"Is that all you have got?" asked the Harris said with emphasis that it

"Well, what kind of a d-d run are m on, anyhow?" The fellow said a few more things ncomplimentary to the First South operficial search of the real conductor he result was that he secured a Co ents, leaving about $20 behind. He hen sauntered through the car and elsurely dropped from the rear plat-

Owing to the holdup being carried on Owing to the holdup being carried on in the dark the crew of the car was unable to give a description of the fellow. From the way he operated it is believed that the same man turned the trick on the South Temple street car a few nights ago. There is a growing impression that the man who is coming into such prominence on the east side is a soldier from Ft. Douglas. side is a soldier from Ft. Douglas. Dr. Fred W. Meakin has opened his
