MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS

BETTER TONE IN STOCK EXCHANGE

Utah Stocks Gain Several Points, Promising New Strength This Week.

COLORADO MINING ACTIVE.

Beck Tunnel, Columbus and Mountain Lake Make Substantial Climbs-Handsome Totals Recorded.

While the public is still leaving the mining stock game alone it is evident that confidence is being restored and the events of recent date which tended somewhat to put a black eye on trading are fast becoming things of history. The Goldfield trouble is at an end, say dispatches and this removes a cloud from Nevada stocks. Utah eid not suffer greatly from any panics or labor troubles, although there was, of course sympathetic lethargy felt in all exchanges throughout the United States and the local exchange fell under this and the local exchange fell under this influence. The excellent condition of Utah mines is keeping Utah stocks firm and now that the "influence" is losing its hold Utah's are braising up preceptibly. A welcome increase was noticed in today's trading and the handsome total of 17,000 shares with a selling value of $20,398,50, were chalked up for this morning's session. Daily Judge opened the regular call with a sale of 300 for $8.75. This price shows more strength for Daily Judge.

LOCAL STOCKS ADVANCE.

Colorado Mining was an active and erratic selling this morning. It opened on the regular call at $2.35; 200 shares going at this figure. Following sales were, 100 at $2.37½; 400 at $2.40; 100 at $2.42½ and 1,000 at $2.45. On the open board the stock sold for $2.42½, but only 100 shares were released at this price. Beck Tunnel made a gain of 2½ cents; Columbus jumped up 5 cents in two sales; Mountain Lake gained 2 cents and 1,500 Uncle Sam sold at 53. The forenoon sales, closing quotations and totals follow:

Specimens show free gold and miners say the rock resembles Cripple Creek. Ledges are well defined. A number of claims are staked and there ndications of big things.

ELY IS GROWING.

Fourteen Big Buildings Are Now Under Construction.

Special Correspondence.

Ely, April 20.—R. B. Hildebrand, superintendent of the graders and teamsters at Ely City, commenced work yesterday on the excavations for the foundations of 14 new buildings. The completion of the foundation for the big hotel has made a number of men and teams svailable for this new work which will be pressed as rapidly as possible.

Sand is being hauled to the hotel site to be used in mixing mortar for the stone masons who will soon commence work upon the stone walls of the $100,000 structures.

Many new residences are being put up in the townsite and nearly all of them are roomy and architecturally attractive, notably the homes of Chas. S. Chandler and Dr. E. L. R. Wallace. Special Correspondence.

The building operations in the lowrne building operations in the low-er part of town have been so active that already there are evidences of the growth which will in time bind the two parts of the camp together

Compactly.
The additions adjacent to Ely City are sharing in the activity of that part of the camp. Where a few months ago there were wide vacant tracts, there are now clusters of houses, and more dwelling are going

Crowds continue to flock to Ely City to watch the interesting work of city building there.
