and fitty men were arrested.

London, July 28.—The jury in the Jamesou Bouth African case found all the defeudants guilty of violating the foreign sullstment act. Dr. Jameson was sentenced to filteen months imprisonment without labor. Major John Willoughby to ten month-and Major White to seven mouth; Captain Henry F. Coventry, Col. 18. Grey and Col. H. F. White to five months.

Before the lord chief justice, Baron Russell of Killow, Baron Pollock and Mr. Justice Hawking, in the queen's bench division of the high court of justice today, the trial of Dr. Jameson, Major John Willoughby, Col. R. Groy, Col. H. F. White, Major R. White and Capt. Henry F. Coventry, charged with violation of the neutrality laws in invading the territory of the South African republic, was concluded. The arguments having been concluded resterday, the chief justice began summoning up today. Lord Russell's re-marks were distinctly bostile to the delendants. He began by pointing out that none of the facts in the case out that none of the facts in the case against prisoners, had been contested and said there was go doubt in regard to their having taken in or abetted the proceedings at Piteania and Maleking, where the invading forces were mustered preparatory to entering Transvaul. It was entering uniquentant in the opinion of entirely unicoportant in the opinion of Lora Russell, waether a loreign enlistment had been proclaimed at the places named in 1889. There was no doubt the expedition was of a military character and wnether it was aimed to overthrow the Transvasi government or force a change of laws in the republic, it was equally an expedition against a friendly state.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 28.-When the westward bound Empire state ex-Press was about two miles west of Byracuse this afternoon it raced with six athletic young men on a sextuplet. Arrangements for the race were qui tly completed several days ago. At this point was a streich of cinder about four feet wide and a mile and a half long. As soon as the train hove in sight the sextuplet got under way. The compire" was soon abreast and the race for a quarter of a mile was an even thing. At the end of half a mile the sextuplet was four lengths aboad. The sextuplet was then obliged to slow down, owing a to short bridge a quarter of a mile shead. A number o railroad officers and bloycle men witnessed the race and four photograpus of the race were secured.
