ARRESTED ON FORGERY CHARGE.

S. J. Kelley, Saloonkeeper and Sporting Man, Taken in Yesterday Afternoon.

ISSUED CLEARANCE LETTERS

Which Bore the Name of G. H. Olmstead, Superintendent Montana Division of Short Line,

Yesterday afternoon Detective George Chase and Sergeant Hempel served a warrant on S. J. Kelley, proprietor of the Antler saloon, and manager of the Shamrock Athletic club, charging him with forgery. The arrest was the result of a complaint filed against him by Special Agent Arthur Pratt of the Oregon Short Line railway company. The complaint alleges that Kelley forged the name of G. H. Olmstead, superintendent of the Montana division, to a learner of clearance letters, and that he sold the letters for $2.50 each. As soon as the accused was placed under arrest he was released upon furnishing $500 bonds, a number of brothern Elks signing the bond. According to the information given

The Child Culture club held its first meeting Saturday at the home of Mrs. George A. Kerr. Several subjects were discussed, and the meeting on the whole was profitable to the members present. An interesting article on plain sewing was delivered by Mrs. Kerr and the president read a sketch of Ireland from the Stoddard lectures. Miss Kerr delighted those present with her good rendition of piano selections. The rendition of piano selections. WAS A GOOD WOMAN.

Burden of Remarks Made at the Fu neral of Mrs. Margaret Cowan.

Impressive funeral services over the emains of Mrs. Margaret Dalgleish Cowan were held in the Fifth ward meetinghouse yesterday afternoon, Bishop S. M. T. Seddon presiding. The singing was by the ward choir, the opening hymn being, "Sister, thou wast mild and lovely." Prayer was offered by Elder Archibald Freebairn. The choir sang, "When first the glorious light of truth," after which remarks eulogistic of deceased and bearing receulogistic of deceased and bearing record of her many sterling qualities, were made by Elders Thomas Winter, Alex Burt, Richard Brimley, Thomas C. Nuttall, Archibald Freebairn, Hugh Watson, Bishop Seddon and Joseph E. Taylor. Between the speakers the choir sang, "Sweet Rest in Heaven," and as a closing selection, "We Lay Thee Softly Down to Sleep." The benediction was pronounced by Elder Alex Buchanan, Jr., after which a long cortege of sympathizing friends followed the remains to the city cemetery, where the grave was dedicated by Elder Richard Brimley.

ent clearance letters have been received by the company and the authorship of many of them has been laid to Kelley. The complaint specifies that on Sept. 22, Emil Densch presented a let-ter which stated that he had been emoyed as a brakeman on the Montana ivision, that he was in good standing when he quit the company and that his services had been entirely satisfactory. Olmstead's name was signed to the etter. These letters are used to secure ransportation and jobs with the comand in this instance it is alleged Densch secured transportation to olorado over the Rio Grande. It is charged that Kelley sold these letters for $2.50 each. The name of Olm-gread was signed by a rubber stamp. After his arrest officers searched his desk, after securing a search warrant, and they assert that they found a numof letter heads similar to the one which the clearance letter was writand also a number of stamps bearing different names.

Kelley says he will fight the case to the bitter end. He treated the matter lightly, although he said he did not like notoriety of being placed under ar-as he said it was his first experi-of the kind. He has secured Lind-Rogers to defend him and declares will have no trouble in proving that has done nothing wrong. He will be raigned before Judge Diehl.

The case against Kelley did not the up before Judge Diehl this mornng, but the arraignment was set for omorrow morning at 10 o'clock. When sked this morning what there was o the charge, Mr. Kelley said:

There is nothing to it except that nebody wants to make trouble. There is no forgery to it. Railroad men can get those clearance cards printed by thosens of stenographers in town, and it is a thing that is done every day."
