Various Causes.
Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary disposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light and red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action, and removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on bushy, weak, or sickly hair, to which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is especially valued for the soft luster and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil nor color the hair, but keeps it fresh and vigorous.

SPRINGS are obnoxious, particularly on the face of beauty. No complexion, however fair it may be naturally, looks well when disfigured by tan, freckles, pimples, blotches or other blemishes of a like nature. That salutary beautifier and emollient, GLEN'S SULPHUR SOAP, removes all such complexional defects and eradicates all local diseases of the skin with gratifying promptitude. It not only whitens the cuticle but imparts to it a delightful smoothness.

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, May 15, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Bishops' Meeting.—The Bishops, Counselors and Teachers meet tonight in the Council House, at 7 o'clock.

The Execution.—Wallace Wilkerson, the murderer, will be shot at Provo, to-morrow, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. A special report of the execution will appear in the columns of the News to-morrow evening.

Arrival.—By telegram from New York we learn that the Atlantic cable announces the arrival, to-day, at 1 p. m., at Queenstown, of the S. S. Wyoming, with twenty-three of our missionaries on board. Their numerous friends will be glad to learn of their safety.

The "Junction" Man.—Mr. S. A. Kenner, of the Junction came down to the city this morning. He goes to Provo to-morrow to report the Wilkerson execution for his paper. Verily, where excitement is, there will the reporters be gathered together.

Returned.—Elder Brigham Young returned last evening from his southern trip. In company with the other brethren he traveled through Sanpete, Sevier and Millard Counties, attending to business concerning the Mantle Temple, and organizing boards of trade in several places.

Information Wanted.—The Millennial Star of April 28, says: William Jarvis, 80 Kiveton Park, Yorkshire, would like to know the whereabouts of Catherine Smith (maiden name) and Sarah Hadcock, who emigrated to Utah, about the year 1861.

Missionary Labors.—From a letter written by Elder John R. Holt, Painesville, Kentucky, to President John Morgan, we learn that Elder David C. Dunbar left that place for Europe on the 4th inst. Seven new members had been added to the branch recently, which now numbers 19. A new field of labor had just been opened up, with brilliant prospects. A few more faithful Elders were needed in the district.

"June 10th" Notes.—Ogden is to have Sa Ivan's "Trial by Jury" produced there, shortly. [They can have the "Shurtliff Case" on application.]

Yesterday morning's passenger train from the West was four hours late in reaching Ogden. The cause of the delay was that a freight train at Verdi had run over a cow, and thirteen cars and two engines were derailed. No person was badly hurt.

Provo Grist Mill Burned.—The following was received this morning, per Deseret Telegraph Line.

Provo, U. T., May 15, 1879.

Editors Deseret News:
This morning at 4:30 o'clock the great mill of the Provo Manufacturing Company was burned down, also the bin adjoining the mill, containing about 4,000 bushels of wheat, which will mostly be saved. The fire is supposed to have originated in the mill room, through friction in the machinery. Loss $5,000.

Admitted to Bail.—Last evening Messrs. Daniel Seemiller and Howard Spencer, who with others were indicted August 2d, 1877, for complicity in the murder of Dr. J. King Robinson, in 1861, surrendered themselves to the custody of the United States marshal. This morning, at 9 o'clock a. m., they were admitted to bail to the clerk's office of the District Court; the bonds being fixed at $10,000 each, with Messrs. H. B. Clawson, Elias Morris, Samuel Russell, Orson Arnold and Wm. A. Rosenthal as sureties.

"Mother Billings" Dead.—It is with deep regret that we announce the departure, in the 81st year of her age, of Sister Diantha Billings, who died at Provo last evening at 15 minutes to 10 o'clock. Few persons were better known among the Saints or more universally beloved and respected than "Mother Billings." She was the widow of Titus Billings and the sister of veteran Isaac Morley, one of the veterans of the Church who joined it in early days of its Kirtland. Sister Billings herself was one of the first of the Kirtland "Mormons" and it was at her brother's home there that the Campbellite meetings were held, previous to the advent of the true faith which took away so many of its disciples. She was an intimate friend of the Prophet Joseph Smith; passed through the persecutions in Missouri and elsewhere; never wavered in faith, but remained true to the end, and leaving a large family and hosts of friends to mourn her loss, has gone to receive her eternal reward in the heavenly mansions above.

THE EXPRESS ROBBERY.

Proceedings, Wednesday afternoon, May 14, 1879.

HASKELL W. SHURTLIFF.

Took the stand. Am 19 years old. Lived at the Shurtliff ranch in September, 1878. While there heard of the express robbery the day after it took place through the papers. The day of the robbery Mrs. Shurtliff was at home. Can't tell where she was that night. Next morning she went to the Central house early on to meet her, with a gray and brown team. Did not see Mr. S. till I got to Centerville. We went back. Believe she afterward drove to Farmington. Saw her after that in the forenoon. The horses were fresh the morning after the robbery. I could hardly hold them.

WM. ELLIOT.
Am a slaughterman. In September, 1878, was working for Shurtliff. About the time of the robbery, he came to the slaughter house early one morning to get a horse, and afterward went off towards town.

W. L. PICKARD.
Am a wool merchant. Shurtliff was at my wool warehouse between 7 and 8 a. m. on the 15th. He was going over Jordan after sheep. Heard the account of the robbery that morning. Was with Shurtliff in the billiard hall that evening. Dr. White and Judge Morgan came to get Shurtliff to go on Williams' bond. Have never heard Shurtliff's name connected with the robbery. Have talked to him about it. A little while after the robbery Mr. Dooley spoke to me about the amount of evidence they had. I inferred it was against Shurtliff. He never mentioned him. I am on Shurtliff's bond. Have no recollection of seeing Shurtliff on the night of the 14th. A few weeks after Shurtliff asked me if I remembered playing billiards with him. He requested me to remember it. Shurtliff and I are pretty warm friends. I never said Shurtliff had asked me if I remembered playing billiards with him on the night of the robbery.

SAMUEL ELLIOT.

Lived at Kayaville. Know George Mills. He owed me some money for a mare. He told me near the City Hall recently, that he had no money then but would have plenty after this case was over, and he would pay me. He did not say he would send to Frisco for it.

JOS. FRANCIS, JR.

Lived at Centerville. Was with Mr. Flint when he dunned Mills near the City Hall. Mills said he had no money then but would have plenty after this case was over, and he would pay me. He did not say he would send to Frisco for it.

T. H. RATHBUN.

I was in charge of Brown's livery stable, in August and September, 1878. Think Mrs. Shurtliff was there once or twice after her husband's buggy, but don't know that she came during those months. Spent most of my time right there. Usually stayed up until the horses were all in. Have no recollection of Shurtliff's buggy being brought in late at night.

THOMAS J. PARKER.

Was a horse rubber at Brown's livery stables in August and September, 1878. Know Shurtliff's gray horse. Don't recollect any woman ever taking the horse away. If I did, I brought it back at night once, and a Crismon boy another time. Never knew of Williams bringing the horse back at night. Never knew of that horse being brought back as late as 12 o'clock at night. I made the stable my home. Was never out after nine p. m.

W. R. SULLIVAN.

Lived at the Valley House in the fall of 1878. Recollect the express robbery. Jan. 1877, Mr. Dooley offered me $500 to get the bonds. He suspected Billy Williams, Charley Moore, Poland, Hy. Shurtliff, and a man named Hild. Told him I would try. He said the best way was to hold him up (meaning Shurtliff) and make him equal. He said that was the way they did in Montana. Dooley intimated that Charley Brown and I were implicated, but that if I would get the bonds he would give me $500 and no questions asked. Told him I would look up some men for the job. Heard that three men tried to hang Shurtliff up. I saw Williams and told him the matter would be hushed. Saw Shurtliff also about the bonds.

DR. FOWLER.

Testified that he attended Shurtliff's half brother at the farm on the 24th of September, 1878, and eight or ten days previous. He was very sick with typhoid fever.

JUDGE MAGAN.

Was one of the counsel for Williams in 1878. After his conviction we were employed by Wells, Fargo & Co. to prosecute Shurtliff and others. Don't think I ever spoke to the Governor about pardoning Williams, with any view of getting him out of prison. Think I remarked that we might desire it. Williams did not confess to me in full, and I was not at liberty to pardon him, and now I think I told Dooley he had better see Williams some time after this we were employed by Dooley.

The defense offered to introduce the papers in the civil suit growing out of this matter. The prosecution objected. Ruling reserved. Court adjourned till this morning.

PROCEEDINGS THIS MORNING.

MRS. ELLER SHURTLIFF.

Was recalled, and testified in relation to her first meeting with Williams at the farm.

GEO. CRISMON.

Was sworn Reside in Salt Lake City, and have done so for 30 years. Mrs. Shurtliff is my sister. Have known Mr. Dooley some time; was introduced to him in 1877. Had a conversation with Mr. Dooley in Wells, Fargo's Bank. I received a note from Dooley asking me to come, and I went. He introduced me to Mr. Hume, and asked me if I had heard of Shurtliff's connection with this robbery. I told him I had heard of it, but did not believe it. He said Williams' confession implicated my sister, and asked me, in view of the disgrace which would attend a trial, if I would advise them to settle the matter up quietly, and return the money and bonds. I promised if they were in any way connected with the affair to do so. I went to Marshall's office and Mr. Boyle talked to me the same strain. They said I think that letters written by my sister to Williams would prove her complicity in the affair. I did speak to Mr. and Mrs. Shurtliff, but no settlement was reached.

PARLEY WILLIAMS, EQ.

Know the defendant and Mr. Dooley. In connection with my partner, Mr. Young, I own the farm known as the Shurtliff ranch. We had a conversation at our office with Mr. Dooley. He asked if we were about to buy the farm, and stated that Wells, Fargo & Co. had a claim on it. He said a note was due from Shurtliff, and said they were going to loan upon it. He said we were about to buy the farm. He seemed to be very earnest in the pursuit of this object. The valuable name of the defendant was in Mrs. Shurtliff's name, and we got the deed from the railroad company. The purchase price of the farm was $10,000.

Cross-examination.—Mr. Dooley said if the money due was tendered to him he would release them, and he had no difficulty about settling. I believe I left the office before Mr. Dooley said to assist in the defense.

JUDGE BENNETT.

Tendered the money to Dooley at the time for the payment of a note of Shurtliff's, and he refused to accept it. This was the day the note fell due. Nothing was said to my recollection about a receipt. The defense here rested their case.

MR. JACOBS.
The conductor on the passenger train on the U. C. R. R. Do not recollect Mrs. Shurtliff being on the train for two or three days previous to the night of the robbery. She was on board that night. I am not sure, but I think she was.

Cross-examination.—Have no recollection of her being on the train on the night of the 13th. Think I am not sure, but I think she was.

MR. OILES.

Was sworn: Am telegraph operator at Ogden. Do not recollect a telegram being sent from Mrs. Shurtliff on the 13th of September, 1878. Was on the 11th. I have that dispatch in the office. I have a record of dispatches sent. (Produced the record.) That is also put in the record. The dispatch was sent and received on the 11th. My office is on the U. P. and C. P. platform.

Cross-examination. Did not know Mr. Shurtliff at that time. I first recollect seeing the dispatch some two months ago. Mr. Dooley or Mr. Hume requested me to look up. Was not informed that the date would be material in this case. Have no recollection of either of these dispatches at the time they came. I sometimes, in making up the record, find some messages on the one page of the book.

Re-direct. The dispatch dated Sept. 11th, said in substance, the sender (Mrs. Shurtliff), would come that night, and inquired if she should stay at the farm or come to Salt Lake. The answer, dated also the 11th, told her to come to Salt Lake. Have no recollection of any dispatches sent by these parties on the 13th or 14th of September, 1878.

Cross-examination. Keep copies of all dispatches in the office. Have seen Mr. Hume in our office only once. He may have been there when I was not in. My office is three or four miles from the U. C. Depot as the other telegraph office in Ogden, which was then in the Keeney House.

MR. HUME.

Know Mr. Pickard slightly; heard his testimony. Mr. Pickard told me that Shurtliff asked him to remember that they had played billiards together the night of the robbery. Pickard told me that he was about to go to the office for his evening mail when Shurtliff came in and asked him to play and did so before he went to the Post-office. Pickard and I made calculations about the time required to come from the depot to Trowbridge's saloon, and the time required to get to the night of the robbery. Pickard said he had played one game of pool with Shurtliff on that night. I heard the testimony of Mr. Shurtliff. I never heard from him the story and conversation at Bear River about which he testified.

MR. DOOLEY.

Was recalled. Went down with Mr. Hume to Mr. Pickard. Pickard told me that Shurtliff asked him to remember that they had played billiards together on the night of the robbery. Nothing was said about being the night the Williams bond was given. He stated that he was playing billiards that night, (the 14th) after the train arrived. Recross till 1:30 o'clock.

Some Talent.

The 21st Ward Theatrical Association have been requested to give a performance in the Theatre on Saturday evening next, and in compliance thereto have arranged an attractive programme, which merits the patronage and support of the community. The performance will commence with the pleasing comic drama in three acts entitled, "The Pride of the Market," to be followed by a burlesque sketch, and conclude with the laughable farce "The Rough Diamond."

The prices of admission have been reduced to suit the times, and are as follows: Parquette and Parquette Circle, 75 cents, 1st Circle, 50 cents, 2d and 3d Circles, 25 cents. The performance will commence at 8 o'clock. The public are invited to sustain and encourage home enterprise in furnishing our own amusements. Church pay taken from public hands.

Coming Events.

Admirers of the national game of base ball will this season have the best opportunity of seeing good playing that has ever been afforded in Utah.

We are informed that the Laramie club signify their willingness to come now at any time our players are ready to meet them, and the association of this city have designated June 10 and 12, as the days on which these contests shall take place. The Laramie team are said to be fine players. They beat the So. dist. Club there on Saturday last by a score of 19 to 2.

The noted California club of San Francisco, will be here on July 24, 4th, 5th, 7th, and 9th. The next Deseret-Red Stocking game will be on Thursday, the 22d inst., and the following one on Decoration Day.
