centrepieces, and surrounded by a suitable cornice.

The room of the first floor, which is not quite so large, will be used exclusively for school and other secular purposes, and is better adapted for that purpose than most similar buildings in the Territory. The ever necessary black board is extended along the whole length of some of the walls. At present Brother William Willis is teaching in the room, and has a good school, with a large attendance.

The building is very creditable to the Bishop and counsellors and the people of the Ward, it having been elected by voluntary contributions of the residents of that lecality.

DO NOT LET YOUR CHILD DIE.

Shall the bud of infant bloom
Shou he hurried to the tomb?
Mother, you with watchful eye,
Ilo not let your darling die.
Mark the duliness of that eye,
All irregularity:
Mark that paleness white and dee
And the leverish fitful sleep,
See the stomach, full and hard,
And the Bowels still debarred,
Mark the spirit, even low,
All be peaking pain and woe.

SAVE IT-SAVE IT! Why has your darling never smiled,
The Worm is in your precious child,
And gnaws its vital powers away,
Sinks it to death and dire desay.
Hear then the really welcome sound,
Save it! a remedy is found.
PLANT'S never-failing Powder and Syrup
A cure most sure and speedy makes;
Kills the death-worm, and the gloom,
Changes to matchless health and bloom;
it never fails, it never can,
It cures the child, the youth, the man;
It's takes, too, with haste,
Not unpleasant to like laste.
Hundreds who have tried it all attest
It is the cheapest and the best.
Try it—try it—try it—
Every parent now should buy it,
