

At best, their positions therefore are not attractive in proportion to their importance and among the men it is to be expected that only a genuine sense of public spirit and eagerness to do the great work of the work's sake can be obtained and such men cannot be expected if they are to be treated with ingratitude and parsimony, in addition to the certainty that false accusations will continually be brought against them.

WORK ADMIRABLY DONE.

"I repeat that the work on the isthmus has been done and is being done admirably. The organization is good. The mistakes are not numerous and these few have been of no consequence. The zeal, intelligent and efficient service of the isthmian canal commission and its subordinates have been noteworthy. I court the fullest, most exhaustive and most searching investigation of any act of theirs and if any one of them is shown to have done wrong his punishment shall be exemplary. But I ask that they be decently paid and that their hands be upheld as long as they are doing their duty. Under conditions we shall not be able to get men of the right type to do the work and this means that on any other condition we shall insure, if not failure, at least delay, scandal and inefficiency in the task of digging the great canal." (Signed) THEODORE ROOSEVELT. The White House, Jan. 8, 1906.

LEHI PROUD OF THE ACHIEVEMENT

Will Celebrate Securing of the State Farm on Friday Night Next.

STATE OFFICERS INVITED.

President George Austin Attributes Victory to Superiority of Site Offered.

The town of Lehi, Utah, is proud of getting a new state farm in a contest in which Salt Lake and Utah county sites were in competition, and Lehi has consequently decided to jubilate Friday evening in the shape of holding a big dollar dinner. The Lehi open house has been secured for the occasion, the state officers, the county officers, and all members of the state legislature, have been invited as guests. The neighboring town of Provo has agreed to help Lehi celebrate by sending its Commercial club over in a body, just to show that it appreciates the good fortune of its sister city.

The program will begin at the afternoon, when there will be a general assembly of citizens, and speeches from prominent residents. Following that at 6:30 o'clock, the banquet will be held in the opera house, and in the evening the festivities will end with a dance at the city pavilion. Preparations are under way for the accommodation of 200 people at the banquet.

SITE IS ACCESSIBLE.

"We landed the state farm," declared President George Austin of the Lehi Commercial club today, "because we had a better site than any other county could offer. I know of this land when the bill was up in the legislature, and before it was passed. It is located on the main county road, and right on the San Pedro railroad. The state road traffic, too, must pass right in front of it, and the towns of American Fork and Lehi are both near at hand. The sugar factory also, which is the center of the sugar industry, is only a few miles away, and the experience in raising beets will prove of great value to the farmers."

SOILS ARE VARYING.

In regard to the soils and the water supply, President Austin, who was a member of the last legislature, and is field superintendent of the Sugar company, declared that the land has so many advantages as this one could not be found in other counties. He had had it in mind before and when the bill came up, he was convinced that it passed, this would make an admirable site. It is raising ground, with three distinct kinds of soil, in which different kinds of crops can be experimented with.

Near the State road, on which the land fronts, there is a clay loam. The central belt is a gravel loam and above that is a sandy loam. The water supply is in a large number of Utah county citizens who own water rights on the stream and on the springs. The farm is protected from winds, is in a moderate climate, and its results should be typical of what can be done in the central belt of Utah counties, which it was the plan, should be covered by the farm.

SPLENDID WATER SUPPLY.

The water supply comes from a number of springs, and is to be augmented, Mr. Austin declares by water from American Fork canyon, so that in all one second foot will be constantly supplied. The water has been furnished by a pledge of a large number of Utah county citizens who own water rights on the stream and on the springs. The farm is protected from winds, is in a moderate climate, and its results should be typical of what can be done in the central belt of Utah counties, which it was the plan, should be covered by the farm.

TRIBUTE TO LEHI PEOPLE.

"I regard the securing of this farm," concluded Mr. Austin, in discussing it, "as a good tribute to the way Lehi people pull together with their neighbors for the good of the community. This site, and once it was chosen, they worked together to explain its advantages, but not to knock any other county site. They pleaded their case, and the county commissioners bought the house and orchard. These offerings, combined with the variety of soils, brought the farm to the site chosen, over those offered elsewhere."

LAI'D TO REST.

Funeral services over the remains of William G. son of William and Rosa J. Knight Mantle, were held Sunday at noon from the residence of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Knight, 433 Sixth street. The services were largely attended and were presided over by Bishop George Romney. The speakers were Elders Joseph H. Frisby of Provo, David R. Lyon, Henry Love, Robert Higbee and Bishop Romney. The singing was furnished by a select quartet and many convalesces filled with sympathy. The senator also introduced the remains to the city cemetery, where the grave was dedicated by Elder William Knight.

Distress After Eating

Nausea between meals, belching, vomiting, flatulence, fits of nervous headache, pain in the stomach, are all symptoms of dyspepsia, and the longer it is neglected the harder it is to cure it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Radically and permanently cure it—strengthen and tone the stomach and other digestive organs for the natural performance of their functions.

Accept no substitute for Hood's. "I had dyspepsia twenty-five years and took different medicines but got no help until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Have taken four bottles of this medicine and can now eat almost anything, sleep well, have no cramps in my stomach, no burning, no distress," Mrs. William G. Barker, 14 Olney St., Providence, R. I. Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

CRIMINAL CASES SET FOR HEARING

Judge Armstrong Arranges Calendar for January Term, Beginning on the 17th.

PAYNE CHARGE IS REDUCED.

W. W. Baker Pleads Guilty to Burglary and Is Sentenced to Three Years.

A setting of criminal cases for trial during the January term of court was made by Judge Armstrong today. The first trial will be on Jan. 17 and the last on Jan. 19. There are three murder cases on the calendar and the probabilities are that another one will be set and tried before the term expires. The murder cases set are the state against Dr. E. S. Payne, state against Frank Mazza and the state against Frank Womack. The attorney for Jess Thomas, the colored man charged with murder, filed a demurrer to the information which will be argued on Jan. 18. The time for motions to enter his plea was continued until last date. Should the demurrer be overruled the case will then be set for trial for this term. Attorney Samuel King represents Thomas.

PAYNE CHARGE REDUCED.

An amended information was filed by Dist. Atty. Leofourow today in the case against Dr. E. S. Payne in which he is charged with murder in the second degree instead of murder in the first degree, as at first charged. He was arraigned upon the new charge today and pleaded not guilty to the same.

PHILLIPS CASE PASSED.

The case of the state against Will E. Phillips, charged with criminal conspiracy in connection with the bounty frauds, was passed for this setting as Judge Armstrong will not hear the case and it will have to be set and tried by some other judge.

CRIMINAL CONDUCT CHARGED.

Carl B. Marshall was arraigned upon the charge of criminal conduct and pleaded not guilty. The case of the state against Willard Thompson, charged with criminal conduct, was dismissed upon motion of Dist. Atty. Leofourow on account of the insufficiency of the evidence.
