The National Democracy has withdrawn its candidates for local offices in favor of Tammany.

WASHINGTON, 3.—The majority of horses here are now suffering from the disease. Yesterday it made its appearance in the railroad stables. Today no cars are running. Very few hacks or private carriages are on the streets.

The corner stone of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church was laid this afternoon, with imposing ceremonies, Archbishop Bayley conducting them.

KINGSTON, N. Y., 3.—The horse disease is rapidly increasing. Every lively stable is closed. Horses cannot be hired in the place. As yet the horses along the Delaware and Hudson Canal are unaffected.

ROCHESTER, 3.—Horse cars withdrawn today to give protection to horses against the cold rain prevailing. The few hacks needed for hotel guests were the only carriages on the streets. The disease appears slowly but surely passing away.

Dispatches from Maine represent the disease spreading throughout that State.

ST. LOUIS, 3.—Wm. McPherson died last night. He was a resident 33 years, and a wealthy and prominent citizen.

There are traces of the epizootic. Horse owners are prepared for its approach.

PHILADELPHIA, 3.—The horse disease is increasing under the influence of the unfavorable weather. An effort was made today to run dummies on the city tracks, but it was unsuccessful. The engines were constantly jumping the track. Few or no cars are running.

LOUISVILLE, 3.—The large steam cooper shops of Andes, Brankbury & Co., Jeffersonville, Ind., were burned this morning; loss $50,000. Insured $12,000.

BALTIMORE, Md., 3.—Eight hundred horses of the city railway are sick, all but eleven; only a few fatal cases.

ALBANY, N. Y., 3.—The first snow of the season fell this evening and continued nearly an hour. Thermometer degrees above freezing point.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., 3.—A single boy, a noted trotting horse, and four other horses have died of the epidemic within the past twenty-four hours.

Chan Lai Sun, Chinese Imperial Commissioner of education, together with his wife, today joined the South Congregational Church in this city.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 3.—The Acting Secretary of the treasury has directed the Assistant Treasurer at New York to purchase one million in bonds on each Wednesday and sell one million gold each Tuesday during the month of November.

NEW YORK, 2.—The specie report for the week is one million one hundred and seventy-two thousand.

There was a report on the street today that the secretary of the treasury sold yesterday and today five and a half millions in gold, but the report is not credited.

OSWEGO, N. Y., 2.—About three-fourths of the horses are sick. There are as yet no symptoms of improvement. Eight horses died last night.

PHILADELPHIA, 2.—The Philadelphia mint has commenced melting one million one dollar gold pieces, to be converted into larger denominations. Twenty millions of these pieces are to be used.

CONCORD, N. H., 2.—The body of a young girl, about 13, named Day, who had been missing in Northwood since a week last Friday, was found last night. Franklin B. Evans, who was arrested on suspicion, accompanied the sheriff to some woods near by, and pointed out the spot where the body was buried under a stump. The inquest is being held. It is probable that Evans has made a confession. Great excitement prevails in the village.

NEW YORK, 2.—In response to a letter addressed to O'Brien, Lawrence and Havemeyer, the gentlemen all say they are in favor of city improvements, opening the streets, completing the docks, finishing the parks and the like.

The ceremony of unveiling the Scott statue took place in Central Park this afternoon, in the presence of a vast throng of spectators. After the presentation of the address made by Richard Irving, and the acceptance of the statue by comptroller Green, Wm. Cullen Bryant then delivered an oration.

Broadway presented its usual activity today, showing an abatement in the horse distemper. The car lines are fast resuming travel. Encouraging reports continue to be received from the stables, and the total disappearance of the epidemic is looked for soon. The mortality in the horses, however, continues. No cars will be run in Brooklyn tomorrow.

The Express says the arrest of Woodhull and Claflin for circulating obscene literature was to be expected, for nothing more obscure in the way of words and atrocious charges ever obtained currency in any community than the attacks of these women upon distinguished and honored clergymen. The scandalous and libelous article of the twin consists in a gross attack upon Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Theodore Tilton.

The philanthropist Bergh publishes an appeal, asking for a total cessation of equine traffic to-morrow in this city. Woodward Cahoone & Co.'s furnishing store at 1-3 & 5 Co's. manufacturing store in Barclay street, was destroyed by fire this p. m. Losses about $75,000. Insured.

The Coroner's inquest held today on the body of Samuels, whose death was recently alleged to have been the result of ill treatment, showed that the patient had received brutal treatment. The case was adjourned to Thursday.

ST. LOUIS, 2.—The small-pox is disappearing. There have been only sixteen deaths this week.

BALTIMORE, 2.—The horse disease has been seriously felt today that on any previous one. There are few cars or drays on the streets. The horse railroad companies have given notice that no cars will be run to-morrow, for the purpose of giving the horses rest. The disease prevails very mildly. Should the weather be favorable, it will soon disappear. At ten o'clock this morning there was only one hack on Monument Square, the Grand Hack Stand of the city.

NEW YORK, 3.—A great deal of talk was circulated about the evening over the arrest of Woodhull and Claflin. The proceedings against them were first taken by L. G. Chaffin, the well-known broker, who last night applied for warrants for their arrest as a gross, scandalous and malicious article on him. These warrants were accordingly issued, but before they could be executed some one acting in behalf of another libelous party, as it is said, and procuring aid of Comstock, the famous enemy to obscene literature, had warrants issued against the messengers by U. S. Commissioner Cahoone.

The affidavits in the case were made by Albert Anderson, post office clerk, A. M. Woodley, of Brooklyn, and T. W. Bees, clerk in the independent newspaper office, who swore to the sending of the offensive publications through the mail by the accused witnesses.

In the case Wm. Woodley, negro, and C. D. Miller, who mailed the papers, were sent to the House of Detention. The two were taken to the commissioner's office in a carriage and thence to the jail until the morning, when the hearing comes off. They manifested the usual boldness and defiance on the way to prison on the outrage of their arrest and confinement over Sunday.

They insisted upon suitable apartments at Ludlow street jail. This afternoon, upon warrants of Mayor Hall, a seizure was made of the establishment of Woodhull & Claflin, together with the books, furniture, and so much of the edition of the publication as was found. The indignation of the community generally has been aroused at the seizure and the publicity shown by the publication complained of, and presenting the parties for the purposes of pursuing the case vigorously.

Chaffin has also caused the arrest of the so-called Colonel Blood, charged with being an accomplice, also Doryse, the stereotyper, and Smith, printer of the scandalizing paper. The statutory penalty for sending obscene literature through the mails is imprisonment for one year and five hundred dollars fine.

The horse epidemic in Jersey City is rapidly abating. The streets are lively in the vicinity of the steamship docks, present a busy scene.
