

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR BIG FIGHT

Jeffries Will Meet Johnson If He Can Condition Himself.

HE IS NOT CERTAIN YET.

Says "I Must Have More Time Before I Will Make Any Definite Plans."

Chicago, March 1.—"I will fight Jack Johnson for the heavyweight championship of the world if I am able to get into condition to do myself justice," said James J. Jeffries, who stopped off on his way to New York today.

The story from Omaha that I said I would fight Johnson as soon as I finished my valuable engagement is not true," continued Jeffries. "I never have said I would fight Johnson, and I definitely do not intend to do so now. My future is not ready to get into condition depends on the match he has on with me, and I am not certain yet whether I will be able to do myself justice if I go to the ring. I must have more time to analyze my condition before I will make any definite plans."

Jeffries appeared to be in excellent condition, but somewhat heavy. He was accompanied by Mrs. Jeffries and Sam Berger, his sparring partner.
