LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 20.

Jordan Water.—Water from the Jordan is now running into the First Ward of this city by the Salt Lake and Jordan Canal.

To Be Painted.—The rock of which the Logan Temple is constructed being of a dark color, President Taylor has decided to have the outside walls painted cream color and pointed. It is thought that this will greatly enhance the external appearance of the structure.

Crop Consumers.—The crickets are in the Minersville canyon by millions and destroying the grain on the Reese farm. They are also working towards Adamsville. In fact, they cover the road in all directions between Minersville and Adamsville, working east and south.—Beaver Enterprise.

Building Up.—The burned district in Butcher's Row, First South Street, is nearly rebuilt. Griffiths and Hyde are erecting a couple of two-story stores on the east end of the gap and O. H. Miles two one-story structures on the west, thus filling up the whole of the unsightly gap.

Small Fruits.—This season's crop of raspberries, gooseberries and currants, is a partial failure in this vicinity. The majority of the raspberry canes were killed off during the past winter. Gooseberries are afflicted very materially with mildew, while currants are suffering from the rapacious attacks of small insects.

A Double Bereavement.—A correspondent writes from Springville: At this place, on June 9th, 1882, the messenger of death visited the home of Brother George and Sister Mary Burch, and called from them their little daughter, Lillase May, aged 3 years and 22 days. On the 11th of June, two days later, they were called upon to part with their little son, Allen Hilton, aged 5 years, 5 months and 28 days. Both children died of Scarlet Fever.

An Illustrated Work on Utah.—Mr. P. J. Robinson, correspondent of the New York World, purpose, at an early day, to publish the results of his observations in Utah in book form. The work will be illustrated. Some of the drawings of the engravings are being made by M. J. C. Ward and Lawson, the artist who produced the picture on exhibition in Mr. Dwyer's window, erroneously called Leo, in yesterday's issue.

Holiday Rates.—In view of the numerous attractions that will be presented in Salt Lake City between the 23d of June and the 4th of July—Races, Old Folk's Excursion, Celebration—the Utah Central Railroad Company will issue return tickets, giving an opportunity for people to make the round trip for a single fare. The tickets will issue from points south on and after the 22d inst., and from Ogden and places this side on and subsequent to the 23d.

Accidents.—Last night two men, whose names our reporter was unable to learn, were put on the Utah & Northern Railway, one at American Falls and one at Arimo, to be brought to the Ogden hospital. The men were working under Col. Stevens, the Oregon Short Line contractors, and were injured by premature explosion of blasts. One of them was badly hurt about the face and arm, and the other has a fracture of the upper jaw and some minor hurts. Dr. Mitchell, who is attending them, says that though the wounds are severe there is nothing serious about them. The men are at the hospital and receiving the best of treatment.—Ogden Pilot.

The Late David Shorten.—Many of the Saints from London will remember the late Elder David Shorten. He died at Mound Fort, near Ogden a few days ago. The funeral took place on the 14th instant, at the meeting house of the Ward where he resided.

Deceased was born at Fakenham, Norfolk, England, March 1st, 1814. He was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ, of Latter-day Saints, by Elder James Brookes, in London, June 12th, 1842. He presided over several branches of the Church in the Capital of England for a number of years. He came to Utah in July, 1879, and has resided at Mound Fort from that time until his death.

Serious Runaway Accident.—To-day a team and wagon started from Mason's lumber yard, opposite the 14th Ward Schoolhouse, and running west, turned north one block to South Temple Street, continuing westward until coming in contact with a heavy freight dray it severed a wheel from the wagon, and further on collided with an express wagon, considerably damaging both vehicles. Reaching the Utah Central Railway depot, the runaway rushed through the gateway at the southeast corner, to the imminent peril of the many passengers awaiting the departure of the south-bound 2 p. m. train. Here one of the remaining wheels ran over William Sleater, striking him in the back. The boy was quickly brought up town and, pending an examination, it was supposed that the unfortunate little fellow's back was broken.

A Dangerous Practice.—Our attention has been directed to a dangerous practice which, if not stopped, is almost certain to result in a loss of life or limb to some of the juveniles who engage in it. Along the line of each of the branches of the street railroad there is a group of children who run after and climb upon the cars while they are in motion. How some of them escape being killed or badly injured is almost marvelous.

It is not only necessary that this practice should be stopped, for the safety of the youngsters who indulge in it, but also for the comfort of the passenger, the more timid among whom are kept in a state of nervous excitement in witness of the danger to which the children expose themselves. It is also a source of great annoyance to the car driver.

The parents or guardians of these venturesome juveniles should put a stop to this troublesome and dangerous pastime.

The Trouble in Apache County, Arizona.—A correspondent at Fort Huachuca, Apache County, Arizona, in forwarding a statement regarding the late killing at that place, by Indians, of N. B. Robinson, makes the following observations as to the cause of the dissatisfaction on the part of the red men:

Old Forest Dale, numbering some 15 families, is now under the control of white settlers, and being farmed by them. Some 10 days since a band of Indians came in for the purpose of planting corn, as they had formerly done. The settlers had just completed the putting in of their crop and did not feel disposed to relinquish their rights, having been assured by the commander of the post at Camp Apache that it was not on the Indian Reservation, and that they would be protected in re-settling the place they once had been prohibited from under the supposition at the time it was on the Reserve. The settlers sent a dispatch to the post and a company of cavalry was sent to inquire into the matter and to protect the people. The soldiers are still here. As yet no definite understanding between the parties has been reached. There is a misunderstanding between the Government and the Indians as to the line made in the treaty.

"I have found St. Jacobs Oil to be a most excellent remedy for rheumatic pains," says Mr. F. Latham, 5 Harrison Street, Providence, R. I.—Boston Herald.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

TWO SANPETE MEN ARE HELD UP
BY ROAD AGENTS, NEAR FRISCO.

The Beaver Utsonian of Saturday states that on Thursday last two young men from Sanpete County, named N. C. Sorenson and A. Anderson, were returning from Frisco, where they had just disposed of two wagon loads of flour, and that when they arrived at a point about half a mile or so below the town two men stepped out and pointing double-barrelled shotguns at them ordered them to "halt" and throw up their hands. It is almost needless to say that the peremptory command was instantly complied with, when one of the robbers stepped forward and "went through" the pockets of the teamsters, relieving them of two Horn Silver Mining Co's checks, of the aggregate amount of $148 46, and a few dollars in currency.

After satisfying themselves that they had taken all the money the young men were possessed of, they bade them drive on, which they did, but driving around to Frisco gave notice of the robbery, and enquiring the number of the checks, had their payment stopped.

The teamsters think that the marked dial of the highwayman who did all the speaking indicated that he was an Englishman, the other one keeping discreetly silent. The description of the stolen checks is as follows: Horn Silver Mining Co's check No. 2612, for $86 31 payable to N. C. Sorenson; and check on same company No. 2613, $62 15 payable to A. Anderson.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 21

A Good Periodical.—We have received No. 4 of Morgenstjernen, a periodical published in the Danish language which is very highly spoken of by parties who are its constant readers.

Going Ahead.—The Oregon Short Line Railroad is completed between Pocatello, where it joins the Utah & Northern, and American Falls. Trains are running regularly between those two points.

A Lost Bundle.—We are requested to state that Anna Christine Ahlgren, who arrived with an immigrant company in October, 1881, lost a bundle of bedding. She is now living in Montpelier, Bear Lake Co., Idaho, and would like to receive it. It is supposed to have come on to Salt Lake City. Any person knowing anything concerning it will confer a favor by communicating with her.

Bear Lake Valley and the Railroad.—We are assured, from a reliable source, that the railroad from Granger to Montpelier will be open for traffic by July 15th, the O. S. L. R. R. Co. having contracted to ship one thousand head of cattle from the latter place on the above date.

This is good news for the residents of this valley. Many industries that have lain dormant will now be opened up to give employment to the rich people generally. It will also give an impetus and increased facilities to those industries already in existence.—Bear Lake Democrat

Utah Statistics.—The census bulletin No. 282, shows as follows, in relation to Utah: Persons, 143,903; square miles, 82,190; families, 28,373; dwellings, 26,710; persons to a square mile, 1.75; families to a square mile, 0.25; dwelling to a square mile, 0.32; acres to a person, 365.38; acres to a family, 1,853.93; persons to a dwelling, 5.39; persons to a family, 5.07.

Bulletin No. 283, shows as follows: Number of horses, 33,131; rate of increase 1870-1880 per cent., 245; number of mules and asses, 2,898; rate of increase, 1870-1880, per cent., 1; number of working oxen, 3,968, rate of increase, 14; milch cows, 32,768; rate of increase 87; other cattle, 58,680; rate of increase, 224; sheep, 233,121; increase, 291; swine, 17,193; increase, 446.

Pamphlets.—We have on sale the pamphlet "On Marriage," by President Taylor, price 5 cents "The Constitutional and Legal Aspects of the Mormon Question," by James W. Stillman, 10 cents; John Morgan's tract, on the First Principles of the Gospel, in the Swedish language, 3 cents each.

A Kindly Review.—The Glasgow Times, a journal whose circulation is said to be second only to the London Times, publishes a good natured summary of the elaborate discourse delivered by President Taylor at the last General Conference. It is entirely free from the slightest tinge of prejudice, being really favorable as well as kindly in spirit. The article concludes as follows:

Of course the object of President Taylor in quoting these official statistics was to disprove the vast mass of falsehood which has from time to time been openly spoken or insinuated against the moral results and effects of Mormonism in the Territory of Utah. In referring to the bill which has been introduced into the House of Representatives dealing with the peculiar domestic institution of the Mormons, President Taylor asked the assembly he was addressing, more than 12,000 persons, what in the circumstances they were going to do? whether in fact they were going to rebel? That he said, would please their enemies. But they were not going to do anything of the kind. Although they had been shamefully lied upon, they would defend their position, property, and system in a peaceful and constitutional manner. The President made a great point here. "I say in the name of God we will not do any such thing, and let all Israel say amen!" And the vast congregation responded "Amen!" "We will stand by our contracts," said the President, "and the Constitution will bear us out in it. You have," he added, "no doubt with a genial twinkle in his eye—'contracted to be united with your wives in time and eternity, and it would not do for us to break a constitutional law, would it?'"

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 22

Welcome.—Lieut. Willard Young and Cadet R. W. Young, from West Point Military Academy, are home for the summer vacation. They will be heartily welcomed by numerous friends in the community.

Address Wanted.—Wm. Men-denhall of Springville Utah Co., U. T., would like to know the address of Henry Mildenhall, who came in the first company of this season's emigration from Europe.

Confirmed.—The appointment of the Utah Commissioners has been confirmed by the Senate. One name is omitted—Ambrose B. Carleton, but whether it was intentional on the part of the Senate, or an accident on the part of the telegraph, we are not able to say.

Feeling Better.—This morning Judge Pyper was asked how he felt. "I feel clearer in my head, stronger in my body, and firmer on my feet," was the characteristic reply of Bishop Pyper, whose unflinching fortitude during the whole of his long and trying illness has been something admirable.

Exposition.—The Grand National Mining and Industrial Exhibition, which is to be held at Denver, from August 1st to September 30th next, is now being prominently advertised in this locality by large illuminated posters giving details of the "unequaled attractions" to be presented in a building 500 feet by 316 feet. It will undoubtedly be a great affair and one that Colorado will be proud of. The liberality of the mining men and merchants of this city ensures a proper representation of Utah, as the subscription list already foots up over twenty-five hundred dollars.

The Utah Commissioner has his office in the basement of the Deseret Bank building, and all those who desire to contribute specimens of the productions of this Territory, should at once communicate with that gentleman.

RETURN OF HON. GEORGE Q. CANNON.

Yesterday afternoon, in a special car provided by Asst. Superintendent James Sharp, Esq., of the U. C. R. R., Presidents John Taylor and Joseph F. Smith, a number of the members of the Quorum of Apostles, other leading gentlemen of the community, and a number of ladies, went up to Ogden to meet Hon. George Q. Cannon. The party of welcome had not only the pleasure of greeting Mr. Cannon, but also Lieut. Willard Young and Cadet Richard W. Young, who traveled in company with him.

A large crowd of citizens were at the depot to welcome Mr. Cannon, and the Ogden brass band discoursed some lively airs. The gentlemanly subject of this genuine demonstration moved among the people, with whom he exchanged hearty and cordial greetings.

On the trip southward to the city crowds were gathered at the several stations with whom friendly salutations were exchanged. At Farmington the scene was enlivened by the presence of a martial band, which played several strains.

At the depot in this city several hundred people were assembled. The Tenth Ward and Sixteenth Ward brass bands were there, and played a number of lively airs. Mr. Cannon was affectionately greeted and welcomed with great warmth.

The hon. gentleman returns after a somewhat protracted absence, from the scene of his arduous and indefatigable labors in behalf of his constituents, who hold him in unqualified esteem, mingled with the still warmer sentiment of sincere affection.
