E. E. Heston, a Rio Grande brakeman, met with a severe accident last evening in the yard in this city. Dr. Aird dressed the wound and the patient was taken to St. Mark's hospital on a special.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

The second session of the W. C. T. U. convention opened yesterday morning by reading respectively the 14th psalm, "Give to the Lord thy fears," the report of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. D. Sarey, was read, showing an increase in membership of 363, and great activity along all lines of work. The treasurer's report showed an increase in the amount of money on hand with which to begin the work of the year, and the union expects to push the work of organization in the state.

PIONEER DEAD.

Death has claimed another of Utah's early pioneers in the person of H. Canby Hadlock, who was summoned to the great beyond yesterday morning by the angel of death, after a severe illness of the stomach and chest. The deceased came to this city during the early days and endured the many hardships and privations which the pioneers had to bear in building up this country. He was a man of sterling character and noble works, and his name will long be remembered in honor in this community.

DEATH OF CAPT. ELI HARRIS.

Once again we are called to part with a veteran and pioneer. On Sept. 18, Eli Harris, or "Cap," as he was better known by, was stricken by a paralytic stroke. He lingered in a dazed condition for several days, but his spirit passed away. Brother Harris was the son of Maggie and Mary Gibbons Harris; born Feb. 13, 1842, in Marion Co., Ill. He passed through the ranks of the Union army and was honorably discharged in 1865. His parents settled in Salt Lake in the move south at the time of Johnston's army. He reported for duty at the Echo canyon campaign, but Bro. D. H. Wells said he was too young, and he had to return home disappointed. At the age of 20 he was a pioneer to Cache valley and Richmond was his Mecca. He was called to go to the states with one to help the poor emigrants. He traveled in Bishop Preston's company. He was the father of 12 children, 9 are still living and were all at his bedside at his death. He is the uncle of Governor Heber M. Wells of Utah. Governor Wells' mother being his sister. In 1884 he again pioneered Lewiston, where he built him a home and made a farm and remained there until the year 1891, when the Snake river was opened up and he again found him to the front seeking a new home in the north. Marysville was his final destination. Brother Harris has always been willing and ready to help build up and foster everything that was started by those who were placed to lead, whether it was in the log camps, making roads, fighting or trail-ing up Indians or building school or meeting houses or in any capacity. The speakers at his funeral all bore testimony of his many good qualities, to his honesty, faithfulness and sterling integrity. The funeral was very large, and attended upwards of 25 teams laden with his many friends followed his remains to the cemetery. A very painful accident happened, by which a young man, A. Irish, lost his left hand. While feeding a threshing machine his hand was caught in the cylinder, lacerating it to such an extent that his hand had to be amputated at the wrist. The youngest son of Patrick Liffenquist of Verden died of pneumonia last Sunday and will be buried Friday. He was 18 years old.

Means had air, and whether it comes from the low lands and marshes of the country, or the filthy sewers and drain pipes of the cities and towns, its effect upon the human system is the same. These atmospheric poisons are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood, and the foundation of some long, debilitating illness is laid. Chills and fever, chronic dyspepsia, torpid and enlarged liver, kidney troubles, jaundice and biliousness are frequently due to that invisible foe, Malaria. Noxious gases and unhealthy matter collect in the system because it becomes so polluted and sluggish that the poisons literally break through the skin, and carbuncles, boils, abscesses, ulcers and various eruptions of an insidious character appear, depleting the system, and threatening life itself. The germs and poisons that so oppress and weaken the body and destroy the life-giving properties of the blood, rendering it thin and watery, must be overcome and carried out of the system before the patient can hope to get rid of Malaria and its effects.

S. S. S. does this and quickly produces an entire change in the blood, reaching every organ and stimulating them to vigorous, healthy action. S. S. S. possesses not only purifying but tonic properties, and the general health improves, and the appetite increases almost from the first dose. GARDEN CITY NOTES.

Roy Thompson of Rexburg indulged in a liquid refreshment with some acquaintances on the Rio Grande railroad, yesterday, while coming down from Soldier Summit. He claims that his acquaintances forced him into a fight. However, it may be he had a fight and during the row some car windows were broken. At Provo Mr. Thompson, who is an intelligent appearing young man, was arrested by special agent Brown and taken before Justice Foot on a charge of disturbing the peace. He was fined $35, which he paid.

Will Bowen amused himself yesterday by running after a dog and attacking the wheel and the result was a mix up in which Mr. Bowen sustained a sprained wrist and a bruised forehead. Thomas Barrett of Provo bench wishes to announce that he has so many fine prizes that he is willing to supply any needy people who will come after them free of charge.

David John Jr., has purchased Alma Van Wagenen's shoe stock and will move it to his new store on Center street.
