Ogden, Utah, April 12 .- A special meeting of the Real Estate Men's association of Ogden was held yesterday afternoon in the office of Hunter & Kennedy, for the purpose of taking action expressing the views of the association on the proposed franchises for electric lines that have been before the city council. The association discussed the various phases of the ordinances for some time, and then appointed a committee to draft resolutions on the subject and present them at another sperial meeting. The tone of the discus-Fin yesterday, which is expected to crystalize today into resolution, was that the association is in favor of the reads coming to Ogden. They depend on the council and other city officials to properly safeguard the interests of the city in the details of the ordinances, but are strongly in favor of interurban

JURORS FOR MURDER TRIAL.

When the district court adjourned yesterday afternoon, six jurors had been secured to try the case of Joseph Kendal, charged with the murder of his wife on Sept. 15, 1904. The six men ere James F. Burton, David Shupe, W. O. Ridges, Henry MoIntire, David A. Shard and George W. Bain. There was considerable difficulty in getting the jury, and two special venires were drawn during the day on the order of Judge Howell. At the beginning of the proceedings Kendall's attorneys ob-jected to Judge Howell hearing the case for the reason that Howell was city julge at the time the murder was com-mitted, and acted as committing judge in the case, also as coroner at the in-quest over the body of Mrs. Kendall. Kendall was charged with murder in the first degree. He shot and killed his effective frame the section of the section. When the district court adjourned
