sion to-day. Amessor Shattuck, of M ississippi, reports that on the night to burn the assessor's office at Okolona, but the fire was extinguished before any material damage was done. The assessor thinks there is no doubt the fire was set by the friends of a party of Ku Klux, five of whom had been arrested that evening and confined in his house, Threats were freely made against the life of Mr. Hall, the assessor's clerk, motion for the part he took in the affair, Assessor Shattuck suggests that troops peror. be stationed there to protect the government property, as the excitement is

Senor Don Santiago Pierce, for some time past minister resident here from the United States of Columbia, to-day delivered his credentials as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary from that republic-

At the cabinet meeting to day, a petition from Chicago signed by representatives of both political parties was read, asking that troops be stationed in that city for the protection of property, those troops which were there immediately after the fire having been withdrawn. In accordance with the petition an order has been issued by which a portion of the eighth infantry at Willit's Point will be dispatched to Chleago.

The subject of the Ku Klux arrests in South Carolina was considered, attorney general Ackerman stating the result of his late visit to South Caroilias. The prisoners having asked to be released on ball it was thought best to leave the matter to the discretion of attorney Ackerman.
